

NASBY.
HOW MR. LOCKE TURNED TO PETROLEUM.

Everybody has read the Nasby letters, but very few people know anything of their origin or their author. Those who have the book—lately printed—containing according to the title page, "Divers Yarns, Opinions, and Prophecies of yore, trool, and Petroleum V. Nasby," have undoubtedly made themselves familiar with the portrait of the "Lait Pastor" as drawn by Jones, and printed therein. This is undoubtedly a true likeness of Petroleum V. Nasby, the gentleman who personates him in the Nasby letters; and it is quite probable that many people would recognize the former as a real caricature of the latter. The picture was undoubtedly intended to have some points of resemblance to the real author of Nasby, and with this many admiring readers should be satisfied.

The first of the Nasby letters appeared in April, 1863, and is printed third in the book. Its title is "Negro Emigration." This letter depicts the statement of "Inceps" regarding the publication at Wingert's Corner, calls upon the disinterested patriots of that place to "hold a mass meeting to take this subject into consideration," and proposed the adoption of a series of resolutions and resolutions. The second clause of the proposed preamble has in it the germ of the entire series of the Nasby letters, and is printed as follows:

"Whereas, In the event of this emigration, our fellow townsmen, Absolum Kitt and others, who are dependent upon their labor for support, would be thrown out of employment,"

"Absolum Kitt" is not a myth, but at the time this letter was first published, lived at Findlay, Ohio, his real name being Elmer. He was a heavy drinker, lazy, good-for-nothing sort of a fellow, seldom doing any work, and making himself little less than a charge on the town. In fact, his father was already in the poorhouse, and Elmer, being the cost the town less trouble and money—About this time a petition, emanating from high Democratic authority, was circulated in Ohio, asking the Legislature to pass a law prohibiting negro immigration, and to provide for the removal of negroes that residing in that State. The principal reason offered by these "disinterested patriots" for the passage of such a law, was that the great influx of negroes from the South, that would follow the expected emancipation, would reduce the wages of labor in Ohio, that white laborers could not live there. A copy of this petition was sent to a very respectable Democrat of Findlay, who, being ashamed to circulate it himself, employed Elmer to do the job. Mr. D. Locke, publisher at that time of the Findlay Jeffersonian, was at once struck by its absurdity, especially when presented by a man like Elmer. He therefore borrowed the petition, intending to print it in the next issue of his paper and make some serious comments regarding it. His design had been carried out, the Nasby letters would never have been written nor published; but so extremely ridiculous did the whole affair appear, that Mr. Locke, who is a practical printer, finally gave up the idea of writing anything serious about it, and commenced putting in type with his own hands the letter referred to above. This he did without having written a word of it, and without any defined plan, except to make his solecisms humorous, and his humor pointed and pungent. After the letter was in type, Mr. Locke hesitated about publishing it, and probably would not have done so if he could have prepared other matter to fill its place before the time for the issue of his paper. So the letter was published in the Jeffersonian, and in a short time thereafter appeared in many leading Republican journals throughout the country, giving the writings of Nasby the stamp of success from the very first. Thus encouraged, Mr. Locke continued to write over this signature; and the subsequent career of Petroleum V. is known to every one. Elmer, the indirect author of the Nasby letters, afterwards enlisted in the United States service, and died in the army.—Detroit Post.

Soup or Nothing.
At a very excellent hotel, not a hundred miles from our parts, there was one day short of a waiter, when a newly arrived Elmer was hastily called upon to supply the place of a more expert hand. "Now, Barney," said mine host, "mind you serve every man with soup the first thing—serve the soup first." "Beard, I'll do that same," said the alert Barney.
Soup came on, and Barney, after helping all but one guest, came up to the last one.
"Soup, sir?" said Barney.
"No soup for me," said the man.
"But you must have it—it is the rules of the house."
"D—n the rules of the house!" exclaimed the guest. "When I don't want soup I won't eat it."
Well, said Barney, with all due solemnity, "all I can say is this, it is the regulations of the house and d—n the drop else will get till ye've have finished the soup!"
The traveler gave in, and the soup was gobbled.

A TRUTHFUL ANSWER.—Bunkum, in the old North State, and upon the healthiest spot on earth, and it was on that account that some "lower country gentlemen" were surprised to see a Bunkumite at work upon an ominous looking "hole in the ground." Of course they inquired what he was about.
"Digging a grave, sir."
"Digging a grave? Why, I thought people didn't die often here—do they?"
"Oh no, sir, they never die but once."
They never asked that question "but once."

FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
Horse and Cattle Powders.
This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate broken-down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.
It is a sure preventive of all distempers, and is especially adapted to the treatment of LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, COLIC, DISTEMPERS, FEVERS, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY.
Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite, loosens a clogged and gloomy stomach, and transforms the miserable specimen into a sleek-looking and spirited horse.
To keep in good condition is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk from a cow twenty per cent, and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetito, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.
In all diseases of Struck, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one to a paper barrel of swill the water, and stirring it well, will be eradicated, or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure. Price 25 Cents per Barrel. Hand Power Loom—Patented 1865.
ALL persons interested in the production of practical machinery in our country, are requested to investigate the merits of HENDERSON'S HAND POWER LOOM.
This loom will do all kinds of hand weaving. It will weave jeans, blankets, plain cloth, satinet, kersey, flannel, seamless sack, double width blankets, or any kind of cotton, or wool cloth. It travels on treadles, throws the shuttle, lifts the web, and takes up the cloth. It makes the upper shed as the bottom comes forward, and beats up the filling after the cross is made, making better cloth and better selvaige than can be made in any other way.
It is the only hand loom that is suitable for weaving wool.
No loom that makes all the shed as the bottom goes back, will weave wool satisfactorily.
It has no strings to stretch and get out of order; has treadles at both sides of the loom, making the shed complete at both sides.
The loom is made to weave the different kinds of cloth, by simply changing the pins that make the upper shed.

Good News to Soldiers and their Heirs.
ALL who have any interest in war claims, will find it to their advantage to read the following acts of Congress which have recently become law.
Sec. 1. To those who have lost the right to both eyes, or both hands, so as to require constant attendance, the sum of $25.
Sec. 2. To those who have lost both feet, or are totally disabled in the civil service of the United States Government, are restored.
Sec. 3. Persons who have been deprived of their pensions under act of March 3, 1863, in consequence of being in the civil service of the United States Government, are restored.
Sec. 4. Pensions are extended to dependent fathers and brothers, as well as to mothers and sisters.
Sec. 5. In addition to the above act, to such persons as are enabled by it, Congress, before its close, July 25, 1866, passed a bill granting additional bounties, and also one increasing the pension to widows and orphans, and extending the benefits of the pension laws to the heirs and representatives of certain invalid applicants, to wit:
Sec. 6. of the act of July 25, 1866, provides for pensions to widows of deceased soldiers or sailors having children by such soldiers or sailors, at the rate of two dollars per month for each child of soldier or sailor under the age of sixteen years.
Sec. 7. gives an increase of pensions to those widows now receiving a pension of less than eight dollars per month, except Revolutionary widows.
This act provides a bounty of one hundred dollars to all three years' men enlisting since April 19, 1861, and fifty dollars to all two years' men who enlisted since that period.
The above is additional to the $100 or $50 bounty provided for in previous acts.
Blanks will be forwarded to all who wish my assistance in the collection of these claims, with proper instructions, and a full list of names.
All claims against the United States Government promptly adjusted and collected.

Tutor, — From $4 to $10, with no incidental. For further particulars see catalogue.
The former well known and eminent success of this school, under the conduct of Mr. Van Allen and his able associates, and the success of the present term, fully justifies the necessity of any extended notice here.
The Trustees take this opportunity, however, to say that the management of the school has been their entire responsibility, and they would recommend the Wellsboro Academy to all who desire a thorough education.

Importance to Soldiers.
THE bill to equalize bounties has become law. The following is an analysis of its provisions:
1. $100 to three years' men who served their time.
2. $100 to three years' men discharged on account of wounds received in the service.
3. $100 to the widow, minor children, or next of kin, in the order named, of any such soldier who died of wounds or disease contracted in the service.
4. $50 to each soldier not included in the foregoing classes, who enlisted for two years and discharged after serving two years.
5. $50 to every soldier enlisted for two years and discharged on account of wounds or disease contracted in the service.
6. $50 to the widow, &c., as above, of every soldier enlisted for less than two years, who in the service, or of wounds or disease contracted in the army.
No additional bounty is allowed to three years' men who have received, or have heretofore received, more than $100 national bounty, or who are entitled to more than $30. The law only applies to honorably discharged soldiers entitled to receive more than $100 national bounty. The undersigned will attend promptly to the collection of all such claims, at reasonable rates. Where parties reside at a distance, the business may be done by letter.

Good News to Soldiers and their Heirs.
ALL who have any interest in war claims, will find it to their advantage to read the following acts of Congress which have recently become law.
Sec. 1. To those who have lost the right to both eyes, or both hands, so as to require constant attendance, the sum of $25.
Sec. 2. To those who have lost both feet, or are totally disabled in the civil service of the United States Government, are restored.
Sec. 3. Persons who have been deprived of their pensions under act of March 3, 1863, in consequence of being in the civil service of the United States Government, are restored.
Sec. 4. Pensions are extended to dependent fathers and brothers, as well as to mothers and sisters.
Sec. 5. In addition to the above act, to such persons as are enabled by it, Congress, before its close, July 25, 1866, passed a bill granting additional bounties, and also one increasing the pension to widows and orphans, and extending the benefits of the pension laws to the heirs and representatives of certain invalid applicants, to wit:
Sec. 6. of the act of July 25, 1866, provides for pensions to widows of deceased soldiers or sailors having children by such soldiers or sailors, at the rate of two dollars per month for each child of soldier or sailor under the age of sixteen years.
Sec. 7. gives an increase of pensions to those widows now receiving a pension of less than eight dollars per month, except Revolutionary widows.
This act provides a bounty of one hundred dollars to all three years' men enlisting since April 19, 1861, and fifty dollars to all two years' men who enlisted since that period.
The above is additional to the $100 or $50 bounty provided for in previous acts.
Blanks will be forwarded to all who wish my assistance in the collection of these claims, with proper instructions, and a full list of names.
All claims against the United States Government promptly adjusted and collected.
