SLIGHTLY CHANGED.

Hon. Chas. Sumner, in a recent address delivered in Boston, thus states the substance of a conversation between himself and Andrew Johnson, justafter the latter became President;
"I was in Washington during the first month of the new administration destined to fill such an unhappy place in history. During this period I saw the President frequently, sometimes at the private house he then occupied, and sometimes at his office in the Treasury. On these gressions, the constant topic was 'reconstruction," which was concidered in every variety of aspect. More than once I ventured to press upon him the duty and the renown of carrying out the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and of founding the new governments in the rebel States on the can never forget: "Onthis question, Mr. Summer, there is no difference between The size at present is 24X36 inches. that I was touched to the heart by this annunciation, which seemed to promise a victory without a battle. Accustomed to controversy, I saw clearly that if the on one side of which would be gentlemen calling themselves 'the President's together as one seamless garment. To this he promptly replied, "I mean to keep you all together." Nothing could be better. We were to be kept all together on the principle of Equal Rights.

The terms of the material interests of Tioga county, and to the enfranchisement of MAN everywhere. Thanks. As I walked away from the President that evening, the battle of my life seemed to be ended, while the Republic rose before me, refulgent in the blaze of assured fredom; an example to the na-

PREFERRED HER SECOND LOVE .- Jacob Kiepfel, twenty years ago, married Miss Kate Schmidt, in Germany. Two or three years later, Jacob came to America and settled in Auglaize county. Ohio. He neglected to inform his wife of his whereabouts, and she, believing him dead, married again. Twelve years ago she came across the seas with her second husband, and located in the same county within ten miles of her former lord. Strangely enough, though only to be forgotten. living so near, they had never met until last Thursday, when Jacob, visiting the county fair at Wapakonetta, was rather surprised to meet his deserted frau "swinging around the circle mit anoder man," and half a dozen children. He made himself known, and the two sat down and had a long talk about old times in Germany. The advised him that under the circumstances, he had better retire for another sixteen years, as her second husband suited her best. and she intended to stick to him.

A SINGULAR CASE.-A novel case was decided at Jackson, Michigan, recently, by Commissioner Walcott, in regard to the custody of the issue of a marriage declared void for illegality. The parties were united in marriage some eight years ago, the husband sup-posing that the woman was unmarried, while she had a husband then living. This fact coming to light, the marriage was declared void. The wife then brought a habeas corpus against the husband for their three children. But the Commissioner decided against her claim under all the circumstances and contrary to the general legal proposition that the custody of illegitimate children belongs to the mother. She now brings an action for the recovery of wages for the whole period of their supposed mar-

DIAMONDS IN BRAZIL.—We have been gratified by a visit from H. M. Lane, Esq., the agent for Ayer's Pills, Sarsaparilla and Cherry Pectoral, in South America, who has just visited the mines with his medicines, and described to us the process of taking gems from the earth. A driver places his gang of slaves in a mud hole, where the gems are found, and pans out of the earth in the water, like gold washers. The negroes are naked, to prevent their secreting the diamonds in their clothes. They are required to work facing their overseer, and forbidden to raise a to the face. lest they should swallow the jewels when found. Yet they do carry them away, by becoming so expert that they can snap them with their fingers from the pan to their mouth, without detection, Ayers medicines are the talismans for their diseases, and it was not difficult to exchange, with the negroes, Ayer's Pills in about even weight, for the rough stones in which the brilliants are holden.-Leader.

MORTALITY IN ONE FAMILY.-The Davenport (Iowa) Democrat reports the recent death or Mrs. Parks on New Orleans, on board the steamer Davenport on her downward trip. Her remains were taken South in charge of her nephew, J. O. Nixon, Esq., of the New Orleans Crescent, and on his arrival he learned than an uncle, aunt and two cousins, who were on their way home of a magistrate who habitually comto New York, were among the unfortupounded felony, and so enriched himnate passengers who went down with the ill-fated steamer Evening Star. while, also, that another cousin had just died of congestion on the brain—making six deaths of near relatives within the space of ten days.

THE AMENDMENT SOUTH .-- Governor Orr, of South Carolina, has authorized the statement that he is utterly opposed to the Constitutional Amendment; Governor Humphreys, of Mississippi, has taken the same ground: the North Carolina elections have pronounced against it, and the Texas Legislature, by an overwhelming vote, has refused to adopt it. These are indications unfavorable to the South, but do not prove that the rebel States will not change their attitude after the November elections. General Grant, in supporting the Amendment, has given the South advice which it will do well to weigh.

The telegraph amounces the death of Mr. William Wright, United States Senator from New Jersey. His health has been feeble for many months. He was born in Rockland county, New York, but removed to New Jersey as early as 1794. From 1843 to 1847 he was in the House of Representatives. In 1853 he was chosen to the Senate and ing in 1869. He possed very fair abilities, and acted steadily with the democratic party.

His successor will undoubtedly be a republican.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

It is the present purpose of the Proprietors of THE AGITATOR to issue the concent of the governed, without any distinction of color. To this earnest appeal he replied on one occasion, as I 1867, enlarged to thirty-two columns.— XIVTH Volume, beginning January 2, act with him alone, in words which I This will require a sheet 28X40 inches.

than to Hercules?

Some lessons are readily learned, and strictly heeded; and some, though direct, are learned over and over again,

Under the head of lessons generally needed we place the following:

Fire will burn. Hot iron will burn. Edged tools will cut. Powder will explode.

It is dangerous to leap off a precipice. Deep water is death to poor swimmers. Vicious dogs will bite.

Eggs will break. Dirt will soil clothes. Thieves will steal.

Thin ice will not bear great weight. Unripe fruit is unwholesome. Bad men make bad}citizens.

Such are a few of the many simple universally acknowledged truths which have come out of experience.

As for the no less apparent facts that are as if they were not, and never had been, we have a word to say:

Heretofore the American people have very sparingly carried their Common Sense into their politics. If they have been badly governed sometimes they are to blame for it. If they have been cheated and betrayed they are to blame for that.

No business man delivers his safe key a known thief and forger.

But the American people select their servants from among men who, morally, type a mackerel in the last stages of decay. Such servants plunder the public till, and the people cry out lustily that they have been betrayed:

No good citizen employs a swaggering rowdy to teach his children how to conduct themselves properly in good soci-

But the American people often put men in high places whose example, if copied, would damn the youth of the nation. What could be said for the common a clergyman who should drink, swear and gamble? What could be said for the integrity

What right have the American people to complain of the shortcomings of their servants, while, in many instances, they knowingly and wilfully select them from the ranks of the vicious? These are proper questions to be put;

and the answers are so ready upon ev ery tongue that we need not waste time and space to record them here. True, men may be deceived in the selection of agents. But they cannot always plead human frailty and exceptional turpitude in justification of public and private acts. Men must be taught by these things, the carcase of which is dead and buried. Yesterday week the people of a certain Congressional district in New York body will send us a report. We are unable to them in Congress. This man Morrissey is an habitual lawbreaker; he is selected to represent a district in Congress. He is to make laws for the American people!

What is that to say?-that the district electing him is inhabited by lawbreakers? Is not that the rational conclusion?

What do you think of it? Who voted for John Morrissey, the gambler? Did good citizens assist to swell his majority?

Republicans did not vote for him, evidently. They had a candidate of their own; a candidate who had never won a brutal prize-fight, or set up as a professional gambler. Hence his signal defeat.

No reputable man, of any party, regards the election of Morrissey as other than most disgraceful. Why was he nominated? Because he controls the scum of New York and the Hoffmans and Seymours, having use for the scum, desired to propitiate it. Surely there must be something wrong when such a man as Morrissey controls a Congress-

Possibly the people may regard these things worthy of serious thought. We hope they may.

The Copperhead papers below the mountains in this district are asking if there was colonization at the late election. If anybody can answer that question by the book it should be the Copperhead leaders.

It appears that the Republican vote was increased about one-third over that of 1864, while the "Democratic" vote was increased but one-fifth.

Well, why go all about Robin Hood's barn to get at the reason? should a dying man compare his failing pulse with that of a man in robust health he would conclude that the healthy man had a galloping fever. Your party is dying. gents, and cannot expect to grow over half as fast as a live party.

Among the array of "unkindest cuts of all" is that made at Mr. Philander T. Wright, late a candidate for Congress, by the Clinton Democrat. Its leader of two weeks ago is entitled "Running after Office," in which it is declared that "one radical evil in our party is the system of office hunting."

Well, we agree to that. But were the office hunters of that party to be discharged, as all radical evils should be, the party would have no leaders at

Were that party to be purified of its office-hunters there would not be enough left to bury a remaining member were he to die.

The editors of the Center, Clinton, and Lycoming Coppery papers should come up to Tioga and attend one of our numerous and excellent district schools for one term. They have dwelt in moral darkness until they have forgotten the consequent of light. There, the people look upon a school-teacher and a horse thief as one in vocation. We correct that false teaching in this latitude.

The aforesaid editors are shocked beeause their party carried but one district in this county. Why, gentlemen, and his check-book into the custody of as soon as we can get a few ministers and school-teachers into that benighted corner, with a good temperance organization to help, we expect to carry Fall Brook for correct principles.

> The trial of the Fenian prisoners in Canada has resulted in the conviction of Col. Lynch, a Fenian leader. He is sentenced to be hung on the 13th of December proximo. This may be said to seal the fate of some half dozen more.

> It is said that the people of Canada will oppose any attempt to obtain Lynch's reprieve. However this may be, Great Britain may learn that the blood of the martyrs is the seed of the Church. In this light, the execution of the culprits may not work any serious damage to Fenianism.

We beg a correspondent to remember What could be said for the sagacity of that all the fools are not dead yet. So, when a man charges unfairness upon Republican election boards, and says that Republicans were left to vote unchallenged, he advertises as a fool of generous dimensions. The right of challenge for cause is established by law. Either party may challenge; and of a magistrate who habitually com- if Republicans, or their opponents, voted unchallenged, and illegally, then both parties are in fault.

BRILLIANT VICTORIES!!

"MY POLICY" NOWHERE.

The 6th of November was a day of Republican victories. New York elects Fenton Governor by 15,000 majority. The Congressional delegation stands 20 Radical to 11 Johnson men, as at are often present. New Jersey gives 5,000 maelse life is a farce and a mockery. Per- jority for the Radical ticket, electing three out of five of the Congressmen, ing Andrew Johnson in dangerous and a strong Radical Legislature. This secures two Radical U.S. Senators from New Jersey.

> Michigan gives us 25,000, and a solid Radical Congressional delegation. Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Missouri, Kansas, Nevada-all go overwhelmingly Radical. So that the 40th Whelming J. Radical. So that the total Congress will stand 140 Radical to 44 Johnsonites. The Senate, which stands at present 38 Radical to 13 Johnson, will stand 41 Radical to 10 Johnson.

> This is glory enough for one day. The President appealed to the people, and the people have spoken in tone which cannot be mistaken. If Mr. Johnson meant to abide by the decision of the people, his policy will now be abandoned, and Congress will exercise its legitimate function of restoring the Union.
