Soldiers of Tioga. Let us gather together in one grand Brotherhood of soldiers, as many of our brethren have throughout the State. Lodges of the "Legion of Honor" are springing up all over the State; the Legion is permanently organized, and he who now and over the state; the Legion is permanently organized, and he who now addresses you has been appointed to organize this county. I now call upon you to "rally around the standard." and join the League of Honor. It would be an honor to ourselves and to our courreles wherever we may neet our comrades wherever we may meet them. It is founded upon the principles of Liberty and Union, charity and prosperity to all self-sacrificing patriots, and their helpless dependents if such thore be among us. If no one else will honor us let us honor conselves, and let ty, at least that he is proud to own that he has been an American soldier.

"Oh ' patriot hearts wipe out the stain,

Come join your hearts and hands once more,
And let no common soldier blush
To ewn the loyal blue he were.
Shout legg and lead the victory wen,
Ry chief and leader staunch and true, But don't forget the boys that fought. Hurrah for the common soldier too."

Now brother soldiers, I call upon one Now brother soldiers, I call upon one of you at least in every township where there are soldiers residing, to address me. I will furnish you with any information desired. Authority will be given to one man in every township to organize a Lodge. Come up to the work like men, and let us have our county organized by February at least.

The principles of the League will be fully explained to any one who may address me. It is secret in its organization, but it is not political. Those addressing me will please inclose a stamp.
