"Osceola, Pd. March 4, 1867. Editor Agitator: We were glad to notice in your last issue, a call for a public meeting in the interest of Education. That something should be done in the direction indicated in the ehoald be done in the direction indicated in the call is patent to all friends of education in the county. We feel comfident that Oscola will put a strong shoulder to the which—as is her wont in all such moments—and send a large delegation to the meeting of March 21st. Of course we cannot now tell all that "The Toga Co. Institute of Instruction" will accomplish, but we know that much is to be, and can be done. All that is required is a few grains of plack applied with a will, and in the right direction, and the needed work is done. Oscola reaches forth the warm hand of greeting to the committee, and hopes to meet a large delegation from other parts of the county, upon the day appointed.

BENJAMIN SEELRY, shee-maker, over Jerome Smith's store on Main Street, would just say to the Shoeless and Bootless-that is, that portion of them who have the dudads to change their condition—that he is now prepared to manufacture coarse gantlemen's une Boots, or fine gentlemen's coarse Boots in as bungling a manner, and at as dear rates as any other establishment this side of Whitney's Corners. Anything in the line of Shoemaking or Cobbling will be admirably hotched on the shortest notice. Don't examine my work; it won't bear inspection; but "go it blind." Remember the place, next door to Shakspeare's Tailor Shop.

B. SEELEY.

A hot of land situate in Wellaboro, bounded easterly by Water street, southerly by C. W. Sears westerly by land formerly owned by Julius Sher-wood, and northerly by W. W. Webb—containing 2 acre more or less with a frame dwelling house thereon.
