We are obliged to Senator Cameron for a choice variety of seeds. Also to Hon. J. W. Forney for several kinds of choice Garden Saeds. To Hon. John S. Mann, of the Legislature, for documents. COBRECTION .--- In our list of township officers elect the name of J. G. Albeck, Esq., of Liberty, Justice of the Peace, was emitted by our reporter. There may have been other omissions, notice of which will be gladly received, and omis-sions supplied. We intended the list to serve as a directory to business men, and regret that it was not perfect.

The Potter Journal is widowed and weeping, its editor, McAlarney, having shuffled coil of a bachelor and put on the robes of the jally Monks of St. Benedict. The Journal ed as a book for Ladies. for several years has been his helpmeet and companion. We hope Gould, of the Cameron Press, for several years has been alls helpanete and com-panion. We hopo Gould, of the Cameron Press, will make a handrome apology for his recent elander upon the marringcableness of Msc. ART ITEM.-Our young friend, Charles Thompson, has just finished a pretty statuette in platar, this time not a copy, but of his own cre-stion. He calls it "The Shepherdess," and a right demure little Shepherdess it is. We are discussed in the state of a million of glad to note that, apart from its originality, the work shows a marked and promising improve-ment upon former efforts. We trust he will go n, "conquering and to conquer."

THE "lastsurvivor of the Revolution," ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—Rev. A. Dodge deires to tender his gratofal acknowledgments to his friends of Stony Fork and Middle Ridge, for their generous donation in his behalf, Tuesday erening, March 12. He desires also to thank the host on that occasion, Mr. Wm. R. Colcs, of the Steny Fork Hotel, for the free tender of his house, and the excellent order preserved on the occa and the excellent order preserved on the occa-tion. Though the night was inclement the re-ceipts were $65. S. S. BENEFIT.—The Stereopticon en-tertainment given at the Presbyterian Church on Wednesday night last, in aid of the Sunday School, while it was not so profitable in a pecu-niary point as it should have been, produced about $36, and pleased the audience. We have spoken favorably of this enterprise of Mr. Wood's heretofore, and still regard it as a most profitable entertainment. The night was inclement which doubtless deterred many from going out.

GREELEY'S AMERICAN CONFLICT .--The issue of the second volume of this remarka-ble work completes the most thorough and systematuc history, not only of the rebellion, but of the causes which combined and worked together to culminate in open war. The work consists of two large octavo volumes, printed and bound in the best manner, and illustrated with fine steel portraits of the chief actors of the drama, south and north. The popularity of the work is won-derful. The sale has reached 122,327 copies, and the publishers are issuing 700 copies, daily, still, No library, however small, is complete for any general purpose without this work.

D. D. VAN ALLES, Principal, ont at Knoxville, whom we take to be a lady, sends us the following advice to men : "We have been lectured long enough, and now it's our turn. Wouldn't a strice of bints to the the gentlemen be particularly appropriate? Just think how nice it would round: Do, he a bit rensible in your furbion: war that store-pipe-hat of yours, just ne it will product your lead and cover your ears: wh. is the use of that iniserable concern perched on the top of your head? The ridicibus way you mon all wear it fashion senctions of course. Going with the cheet upprotected, except by a thin shield of starched linen, when the rest of your body is smegly encased in warm broadcloth. We can't find words strong enough to denounce it! Of all unmangeable brutes a man is the worst (espo-chally a sick one). We'd rather have chargo of a wild byons, or Dan Rice's great ugly elephant. Hzereise, gentlemen ! den't is in the corner wathing every movement and finding fault. If you would just chop your own kindling wood, or you'd on finding table and ig a few pottocet, you would be far more agreeable in the eyes of your 'd can lithe wife, is you sometimes call her.— I but men of fishion will stay out at the gambling house, or the billing table until 2 or 3 in the morning; then they must have their own hours. The consequence is, the wife-has an extra hreak-fast to get. Yet she must 'wear' Girls, beräre, or you'll be a slave to some brute of a man !"
