A case occurred in Harrisburg only a day after this law went into force where a party bid $5,000 on a certain property, against which was a mortgage of $5,000—thus, by the terms of this act, the purchaser becoming responsible for the payment of $10,000, for that for which he had only bid $5,-000. Regarding the equity of the case. Judge Pearson set the sale aside. It is well, however, that this law be thoroughly understood, and we therefore the courts may inform themselves for the protection of their interests. Every newspaper in the State should publish this law for the protection of the people. SENATOR CAMERON.

The editor of the Scranton Republican falls into a common error as to the animus of our strictures upon its course toward Senator Cameron. Though always grateful to Gen. Cameron for his unvarying kindness and consideration in the past, we did not undertake his defence out of personal considerations. Knowing him to have been true, and as inflexible as true, in the dark days of 1861; true and firm when men of greater pretensions wavered in their judgment as to the policy to be pursued-we learned to know him better than his chronic defamers, and to recognize in him a man who, whatever his ambitions, put the common weal above personal aggrandizement.
