History of Sullivan Township. FIFTH PAPER.

Churches and school-houses were, for many years unknown. Finally however there was a house creeted on "the State road" which served both for "a meeting," as well as a school house. They had no regularly established minister, and the people depended on, now and then, an occasional sermon from any minister, who happened to be travelling through the country. Hospitality then was considered a duty. The weary traveler found warm welcome at the fireside of the pioneer. As soon as they learned they were entertaining a minister, he would be invited to preach, and when consenting, some one would start out and notify the neighbors of the fact. How cagerly would each and all avail them-selves of the privilege of listening to the word of God. No foolish pride kept them from the "house of worship" although, many times, a yoke of oxen and a sled were their only conveyance. How great has been the change in Sullivan, since then. Now there are six churches, and sixteen school-houses To look back and see what it was, even thirty years ago, and what it is to-day, the change scenis almost miraculous Yet perseverance and industry, can accomplish almost anything. It would be a difficulttask to find 'a more energetic and industrious class of farmers in any community than Sullivan af-

Its efficacy has now become so generally known, that it is justize regarded in many countries as a medicine of indispensable necessity. In Great Britain, France, and Germany, where medical science has reached its highest perfection, it is prescribed in domestic praotice, and constantly used in the armies, in hospitals and other pub-lie institutions, where it is regarded by the attending physicians as the most speedy and agreeable remedy that can be employed. Scarce, ly any neighborhood can be found where well known cases of diseased lungs, which had baffled the efforts of the most skillful and experienced doctors, have been completely enred by it. These results are the most convincing proofs of the su-

"Diamond Dickens," we are glad to know, are duly appreciated .- Chicago. Copperheads have carried, in part, Con-Journal. This is the Seventh number of this issue. The remaining six or seven volunies will be published in rapid succession. The set, consisting of 12 or 14 elegant little volumes, will be a choice library in itself. Besides being so very attractive, it is really the cheapest edi-tion of Dickens's Complete Works is-sued in this country. The illustrated edition is only $1,50 a. volume; plain, $1,25. All the booksellers have it, or i will be sent postpaid by the Publishers. Ticknor and Fields, Boston.

ALMOST A CENTENARIAN, - There is now living in Athens township, Brad ford county, Pa., a venerable lady in the person of Mrs. Rebecca Porter.-Mrs. Porter was born in the province of Nova Scotia, from whence she removed ome twenty-six years ago with her son to this county, and she is now in her ninety-ninth year. Mrs. Porter is one of the few living links connecting the long past with the present. The old lady relains the faculties of her mind and body quite remarkably, for one of her extreme age. She talks of occurrences connected with her early age with a vivid recollection, while her comprehension of present circumstances seems but little obstructed by the many years she has passed. She survives all her children. She has a number of grand children, and numerous great: grand children. Last week the old lady walked one and a half miles, obtained a pair of hand cards and from the fleece carded, spun, and twisted eight 'run' of woolen yarn within a space of time which many a younger damsel might be proud of. We believe Mrs. Porter is the oldest person in our county - Ex.

MASSACRE AMONG SNAKES .- On Friday, the 23d inst., D. T. Wise, Esq., of Trout Run, while in seach of a flock of sheep, on the mountain, about one mile from the village, was startled by the rattling of a monster suake, and seeing, to his surprise, that he was 'surrounded by the poisonous reptiles, he commenced the massacre by shooting. He fired four times, which started them toward their den; then seizing a stout cudgel ho finished the escaping snakes. Upon gathering together and counting them, they amounted to fifty two killed. He then left on his journey, and marked the spot to visit on his return, or at some future day. Two days afterwards he returned, accompanied by his brother, S. L. Wise, and T. A. Brees. Arriving at the den they dis covered a monster copperhead snake lying at his content over the entrance of the den. Killing him caused a huzzing noise among the rocks, and the party commenced removing the stones, finding and killing six more copper-heads, eight rattle, and three black snakes; killing in all sixty rattle, seven copper and three black snakes-sum

SUDDEN DEATH.-Mr.' George Fred erick Hite, aged about 65 years, and a vory respectable citizen of Muney township, this county, went out on Sunday evening a week, to look at his corn tield, and not returning, his family supposed that he had gone to visit his son-a-law about 'a mile distant. Not reurning,next morning search, was instituted when he was found dead, having evidently just left the corn field, when he was stricken down. Justice Painter, of this place was sent for and held an inquest on the body, which resulted in a verdiet, that the deceased died by the visitation of klod, there being no marks of violence on his person. Mr. neighbors and bore the reputation of an

MAINE, ever true to Republican principles, has again ranged herself upon he side of Freedom and Justice against Andrew Johnson, Rum and usurpation, At her annual election on the 9th inst., The entire Republican State ticket was elected by about 12000 majority, as well as a Republican legislature. The issucs in the election were somewhat complicated, the prohibitory law being the chief and most hotly contested. The victory is rather for temperance than political, and ought to be delebrated by the friends of temperance everywhere.
