

TIOGA, TIOGA COUNTY, PA.		without roprieve. I can sall Sugars, Teas, Mo-	coarse checked apron to her eyes, partly to check the tears that always rose read-	tor, critically surveying the double	day, that it was better for boys to help themselves than to be depending upon	stitutional cases as any other Judge of	on. • Offentimes as he looked up to the lived a little attached and an attactive her	E. R. KIMBALL,	Lassos, Fish, Pork, Flour, Corn Meal, Coffees, Canned Fruits, Spices, and overything intended	ily to her muddy blue eyes, and part-	damask on his lap. Again Mrs. Napier b6wed.	the paternal savings, and after having	his years in the State, and as a commer-	face on the glowing cany ass he wonder Good stabling, attached, and an attentive hes the always in attendance.	GROCERY AND RESTAURANT,	for family use, giving the buyer the benefit.	ly to hide the flush of mortification that suffused her freckled cheek ; while	1 4 5 5	furnished his son with the means of acquiring an education, he sent him	cial and constitutional lawyerand Judge, he has no superior on the bench.—	ed what had become of that boy. "How I should like to see how he
E. S. FARR, H , Prupietor.	One dure whose the Most Muchat.		to flieir motier's voluminous skut in	1 the only unmanning tone HT have	forth from the paternal home, at an	Quick to see the real point in the cause	looks ment? I if I should Hairdressing & Shaving.	WELLSBORD, PENN'A,	full of the markets, an advantage duly appre-	a sort of vague apprehension that some-	"Ah—yes," simpered the gratified	and fight the battle of life unaided, save	werepted before him, and prompt to	or wicked and abandoned? Or bas
Joon over Willcox & Barker's Store, Wells	RESPECTFULLY announces to the trading- public that he has a desirable stock of Gro-	cinted by everybody, excepting only those verdant	thing was wrong, although their tiny minds could hardly take in the full	mama, "white is very becoming to my	by his own energy and talents. In college, Judge Williams gave	rules of law and evidence, he nasshown himself a sound, clear and practical	One day the artist way structure hore, Pa - Porticular attention paid to Ludie.	cernes, comprising, Teas, Coffoce, Spices, Sugars,	INNOCENTS	meaning of the catastrophe that was	Theodosia's style.? And she glanced towards Theodosia,	promise of his future success. He be-	Judge, whose opinions and decisions	one of the fine walks of the city, when Alter-enting, Shampoong, Dycing, etc. Braids July, colls, and swiches on hand and made to or		who prefer PROMISTAG TO PAY one hun-	disturbing their domestic peace.	who was playing with hor Rhok Ham-	and at once one of the most popular men of his class, loved and respected by	have been as selfom reversed by the Su- preme Court as those of any other Judge	he beheld a man whose face and noted the x	sonable hours.	dred per cent profits to the seller, to PAYING twenty five per cont. cash on delivery of the	"Not your fault, Mrs. "Pooley?", re- beated Dr. Maynard, in sharp, accents.	burg grapes in a manner eminently	all for his correct deportment, his kind	of any other inferior Court in the State.	fiend-like, that he involuntarily from 1 JI. W. DORSEY. J. JOHNSON.	Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1967-1f.	goods. I shall offer my stock of goods at fair	"But it is never your fault, according		and social disposition, his high sense of	These opinions, many of which have	ped and gazed at him.
BACON, M. D.; late of the 2d Pa. Gavalry, after being being four years of army, service, with a larg	THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS.	prices	to your own story." "My man is sick, sir, wid the rheu-	ress," said the doctor, abruntly,	honor, his great regard for truth, his strict integrity, and for his entire free-	found place in our legal reports, are sound and lucid expositions of the law
Applience in field and hospital practice, has opened a the bit the practice of medicine and surgery, in a		EVERY MONDAY, EVERY TUESDAY	matiz in his knee-joints," apologized	"I believe Mrs. Tooley is quite com- petent to her business." answered Mrs.	dom from envy and jealousy. He im-	of the case before him. They always	studio opposite the angel boy," e-brinthes. Persons from a distince can find goo	A will find out an thing proparly halonging to	EVERY WEDNESDAY,	the Irish-woman, "and it's hard work	Napier, a little puzzled, but trying to	mediately took high rank as a scholar,	possess the merit of adhesion to the question at issue, of clearness and brev-	the artist to himself. The young man asked the painte Will visit any part of the State in consultation, or t	I the Drug Trade	EVERY THURSDAY,	we have to get along, and provide the bit and sup for the growin' childer;	indicate her claims to "our best soci-	ter a logician, and a metaphysician.	ity. He never wanders from the point	for money, for he was a beggar as we tui- Wellsboro, Pa., May 2, 18661y.	CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST,	EVERY FRIDAY,	meself knows; have a little patience,	ety" by expressing no. symptoms of surprise whatever.	which rank he maintained and in-	involved, and never seeks to inject his	as a thief.
NEW PICTURE GALLERY	and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints,	The AND	sir-" "Patiencepatiencepatience!" ejac-	"You are satisfied with her, then,	He graduated at Amherst College,	own milions of law or ethics into the decisions of the Courts which ought ev-	vour portrait and I will give you all you
• . N	Oils, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin	EVERY SATURDAY,	lated the doctor, each word uttered in a	madam?" "Quite."	Massachusetts, in the summer of 1837,	er to be faithful interpretations of con-	ask," said the artist.
FRANK SPENCER	Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Flax Seed.	and fill up as fast ha I sell out	key somewhat higher than the last.	"Than why don't you now hav for	and so proud has his alma mater been of this one of her favorite sons that she	stitutions and laws as they are. He is not a judicial law maker, many of	The yong man followed the painted bad set for a skotch. When it was to
is the pleasure to inform the citizens of Tiog county that he has completed his		L. A. GARDNER.	"One ought to have the patience of Job to get along with such a pack of	her work ?"	sometime since honored herself by be-	whom, to the grief of the profession,	ished, and he had received a few coin
NEW PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY,	Lawrenceville, May 8, 1867.	Wellsboro, Juno J2, 1867.	tenants as I have. Why don't you		stowing upon him the honorary degree	we have, but a judicial law expounder, leaving the making of the laws to those	for his trouble, he turned to go; ha ad is on hand to take all-kinds of Sun Picture		NEW DRY GOODS STORE.	Mrs. Tooley glanced a little reproach-	quite uncertain whither this singular	intervening time in teaching, he com-	[whose business it is, In his charges to	boy: he looked at it, turned pale, an whas Ambrotypes, Ferrotypes, Vignottes, Cart White, the Surprise and Eureka Pictures; al			fully at the wash-tub in the corner-a		menced reading law in the office of Ex-	the jury, he lays down the law of the	then burst into tears.
patticular attention paid to copying and enlarg	TTAS just returned from the City with a large	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	sort of altar, enshrined in the incense of steaming soap-suds.	"Dr. Maynard, I do not understand	Chief Justice Lowrie, of this city, in the spring of 1839 and was admitted to the	case with great clearness and leaves all questions of fact fairly to their determ-	said the painter. It was long beto 102 Pictures. Instructions given in the Arts reisonable terms. Elmira St., Mansfield, Oct.	and desirable stank of woods consisting of		"Indade, sir, I try my best; and I had	you." "Do you not, madam ? Then I will	bar of this county in May, 1841. He	ination.	the young man could speak : he solute
1.46;	DRUGS AND MEDICINES,	STOTES & DADKED	hoped to have the money ready for you	endeavor to speak a little more plainly.	practiced his profession with increasing	Judge Williams is emphatically an honest, impartial and just Judge. He	aloud and seemed pierced with agony At last he pointed up to the picture
ATTENTION SOLDBERS.	Yankee Notions, of every description. Gluss and Plated Ware. Wall Paper, Paints and Oils, Dye	TULES & BARKER,	to-day, but Mrs. Napier put me off as she's done many a time, bad luck to	Taus. Pooreaus one of my remains-suc	to the bar, as a partner with his precep-	cannot be turned a hair's breadth by	on the wall, and in broken tones which
W.B. SMITH, Knoxville, Tioga Count, Pa., (U.S. licensed Agent, and Attorno	Stuffs, School Books, Groceries, and finally every	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	her. "Its the girl's new dresses cost so	cannof raise her rent, because Mrs. Na pier has not paid her a cent for the five	tor, until the latter was appointed Judge	prejudice, by favor, or by interest, from what he believes to be the justice of the	seemed to come from a broken hear for soldiers and their friends throughout all th	e Store I would also call the attention of the		much," says she. "You're too impudent altogether, Bridget," says she—and me	weeks' washing she has done. As I		cause before him. So well is his stern	"Twenty, years ago you asked me i bral States,) will prosecute and collect with up multed success,	public to our Stock of GERMAN LAMPS, une- qualed in the wide world, and also that I nm		starvin' for the money that's me own	cannot for an instant suppose that Mrs. Napier would withhold the wages of	elevated for the first time to his present	integrity as a Judge understood in this	sit for a picture, and that angel-face SOLDIERS' CLAIMS AND DUES	Agent for the "Morton" Gold Pen, and shall al-	TATE have just received our new and very	and not her's at all, at all!" "Do you mean Mrs. John Napier"	her laundress on any other ground than		community, that no counsel or suitor ever undertook to influence him in the	man : so bloated so hideous, that won of all kinds. Also, any other kind of clai Brunst the Government before any of the D		VV large stock of	asked Dr. Maynard.	that of inability to pay, I can only sup- pose her to poor to discharge her right-	I cautious, safe, honest and reliable coun-	decision of a cause pending before him,	en and children turn away their face pirtments or in Congress. Terms moderate, A			"Sure I do, and its nine dollars and sixty cents she's owin' me for the sweat	I ful dution "	generally successful advocate. He en-	save by legal testimony and sound legal argument.	i from me; so field-like that you wan iny picture to show how ugly a ma
Admunications sent to the above address will r and prompt attention. Jan. 17, 1868.	- Gien's Falls Insurance Company,	DRY GOODS,	of me brow and the wear and tear of	I He was shent a moment. Mis. Na-	degrared to keep his clients out of the	Judge Williams is a christian gentle-	could look. Ah! I see now what vie GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y.		me hard-worked hands," said Bridge	pier strove to speak, but something rose up in her throbbing throat and seemed		man, a ripe scholar, a sound and well-	and crime have done for me." The artist was amazed. He could DENTISTRY.			Tooley, looking down at the red and parboiled members aforesaid.	I to choke her. Mr. Mapier bat at his	ergies and abilities were bent to bring-	With such a candidate and in a cause	scarcely believe his own eyes and ear
\mathbb{C} N. DARTT	Gapital and Surplus $373,637,66	such as	"And she won't pay you?"	end of the table aghast. "Under these melancholy circum-	ing matters to a favorable issue. His	so worthy, our own and the other coun- ties of the Western part of the State WOULD say to the public that he is perm neutly located in Wellsboro, (Office at h	FARM RISKS; only, taken.		"Niver a red cent, sir, though I told		dealings with his clients were ever	will wie with Dividelability and her side	The joung man told ms sad an
		ATTOMISTICS CONTINUES DESIG	I DOL HOW I ACHOK HAU THE FREMINALIZ	1/4 T 2 -3	' characterized by justice and faithful-	will vie with Filliadelphia and her sis-	areadial story; now being an only so tesidence, near the Land Office and Episcop	No Premium Notes required.	SHEETINGS, SHIRTINGS, PRINTS, CLOTHS CASSIMERES VEST.	and the children hadn't bread and salt	stances," resumed the ruthless Doctor, "I beg leave to suggest taking up a col- lection at this table for the benefit of	I ness. While he would never knowingly	will vie with Philadelphia and her sis- ter counties of the East in raising the human of Freedom and the Union still	and very beautiful, his narents nette residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not.	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS READY MADE CLO	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman	f ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi tesidence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nug, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for live stock killed by Lightning, it to be a stock billed by Lightning, it	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put	f ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace-	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi and vices and came to love them; ho residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing complete	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for live stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, MATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that even was l?	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid l, I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?"	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868,	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi and vices and came to love them; ho having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, an
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to t	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for live stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa.	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that even was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid I, I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting to what is	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi and vices and came to love them; ho having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for live stock killed by Lightning, ir barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent,	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, MATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was !!	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid l , I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite,	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad-	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi and vices and came to love them; ho having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, an then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nig, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - also a large and well selected stock of	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was !?	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid! I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite mailclously alive to all the weak spots	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nig, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of. CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO-	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid I. J. put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi-	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership 'of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; how having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, stichded to on shortest police, and done in t	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, ir barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19". SUMMER MILLINERY ! MARS: MITCHELL would particularly invite	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - also a large and well selected stock of CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir"" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointee	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid I. J put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession.	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership 'of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; how having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, stucked to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAN by the the use of Ancesthetics which are po	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, ir barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19'' SUMMER MILLINERY! N RS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public responsibility. I. call and see her new collection.	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - ,also a large and well selected stock of CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napler's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napler, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone tho work of years	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of Lung 1851. Ludge	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership 'of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his now novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Descon. Some doing model doubt	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; how having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; 'how every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not steal
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, stended to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAN by the the use of Ancesthetics which are pe fectly harmless, and will be administered in ove	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19''. SUMMER MILLINERY ! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - ,also a large and well selected stock of CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid I. J put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in vers and in	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership 'of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the pottrait: "How they every mode a Deacon out	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and brough
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, stucked to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAN by the the use of Ancesthetics which are po	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, it barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19" SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS,	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - ,also a large and well selected stock of CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1 , I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too!	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- portiones without collocitation on his	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his now novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the potrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Markles Luever could imagine	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; how having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not stea till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Ancesthetics which are per feelly harmless, and will be administered in ove "ise when desired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-1y.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, ir barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMM E'R GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - ,also a large and well selected stock of , also a large and well selected stock of SENE OIL PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill ETC, DTC., ETC.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir"" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointed word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor!" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1 , I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and 'silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation.	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership 'of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant. A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the pothait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was fouch	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; how having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst erime nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not sta till brought to the gallows. It was a fearful tale, and brough tears into the artist's eyes. He b sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best, to san tesidence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e- avail in the management of cases peculiar to t calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH , set on any material desired. HILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, steicheld to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are per feelly harmless, and will be administered in ove cise when desired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-19.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19' SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - ,also a large and well selected stock of , also a large and well selected stock of SENE OIL HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill ETC, DTC., ETC.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1 , I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have nurdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the poptrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine ! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro-	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; 'ho every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not stea till brought to the gallows. It was a fearful tale, and brough tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer to help him, and tried his best to sat him. But alas! it was too. late. D
tesidence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e- avail in the management of cases peculiar to t calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH , set on any material desired. HILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, steicheld to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are per feelly harmless, and will be administered in ove "ise when dosired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-19. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, it barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection, o SUMM ER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, 'ERENCH FLOWERS, RIB-	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HAFS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - also a large and well selected stock of ware, stone ware, wooden WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES,	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!-	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed upon the iudicial ticket of that party with the	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to tire, but after the langest dark toil he surang	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not stead till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa him. But alas! it' was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so prostrated the young man and he di
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to t colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, stended to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAN by the the use of Ancesthetics which are per feelly harmless, and will be administered in ove (see when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-19. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES, successfully for Cataract, Str bismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, ir barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19' SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, PERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- DONIG TACTOR	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - ,also a large and well selected stock of. - ,also a large and well selected stock of. CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc; brc., Erc; d Wg are able to offer our customers the benefit of the	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir?" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointed word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor!" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on his heel. "I'll call again next week; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time."	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid I. J put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley! Ladlies and gentlement, I have the hon-	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his now novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the potrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to lire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang un the moment he bad done work as it	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; how having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; how every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not steat till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and brough tears into the artist's eyes. He be sought the young man to stop, offer to help him, and tried his best to sat him. But alas! it was too late. Do ease contracted by dissipation soon prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The balant
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c avail in the management of cases peculiar to the colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAN by the the use of Anæsthetics which are perfectly harmless, and will be administered in ove the when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-19. Definition of Cataract, Str hismus, (cross cye) Removal of Tumo Bare Lip, Varicese Veins, Uhb Feet, &c.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, ir barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection, o SUMM ER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, PERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great ears. Everything belong	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - ,also a large and well selected stock of , also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc; brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir"" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointee word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor!" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on, his heel. "I'll call again next week ; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blassin' of all the saints bo	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1 , I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and 'silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and gentlemen, I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Convert and Hon. William B. McClure	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the potrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. Ho was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to tire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine stoel spring. A few hours	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; how having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not steat till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He be sought the young man to stop, offer to help him, and tried his best to sa him. But alas! it was too late. D ease contracted by dissipation soo prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to t calling ite will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. HILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Ancesthetics which are per- fectly harmless, and will be administered in over the when dosired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-19. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Str hismus, (cross cye) Removal of Tumo liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discases of the E ard General Surgery.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19". MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, SERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great enter.	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - ,also a large and well selected stock of , also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc; brc., ETC. We are able to offer our customers the benefit of the LAST DECLINE OF PRICES.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid med since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwonan whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!— Ladies and gentlement, I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no one cared to prolong	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to tire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the moming stars the year round? His	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sar him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t hung his portrait opposite that of t
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to the calling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest police, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Ancesthetics which are po- feelly harmless, and will be administered in ove "ise when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Shi hismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo Hare Lip, Varices Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discusses of the E ability of the successfully the set of the particular attention paid to discusses of the E	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, ir barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection, o SUMM ER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, PERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great ears. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the LATEST IMPORTATIONS;	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of. also a large and well selected stock of. CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc, brc., ETC. USARS, DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased since the great decline in (fdods. TOLES & BARKER.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. J put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but if will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley !- Ladies and gentlemen, I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition."	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His intercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to tire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not sta- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sar him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e- avail in the management of cases peculiar to the calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. HILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are per feetly harmless, and will be administered in ove sets when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-19. DEL SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Str hismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tunno flare Lip, Varicess Veins, Club Feet, Ac. Particular attention paid to discasces of the E and General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. References given to operations recently per formed.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19" SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, SERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great eard. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the LATEST IMPORTATIONS:	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - also a large and well selected stock of - also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc; brc., ETC US are able to offer our customers the benefit of the LAST DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased slace the great decline in (1004). TOLES & BARKER.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir?" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointed word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor?" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said ife, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on his heel. "I'll call again next week; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blessin' of all the saints be about yez and over yez," whined the relieved Bridget. But the uncerimonious closing of the door cut short Mrs. Tooley's shower o blessings and unnecessary details. Dr Maynard went slowly down the echo	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. J put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , maliclously alive to all the weak spott in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just flifty cents more than we need; but i will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and gentlemen; I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous ity somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his now novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the pothait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to lire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; how having plenty of money, he was enticed to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; how every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not steat till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and brough tears into the artist's eyes. He be sought the young man to stop, offer to help him, and tried his best to sat him. But alas! if was too late. Do ease contracted by dissipation soo prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of the beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the others to hear of the story, saying as he closed: "B to tween the angel and the demon there
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to the colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Ancesthetics which are perfectly harmless, and will be administered in over the when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Str bismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo Hare Lip, Varices Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discusses of the E and General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. References given to operations recently performed. Office haurs from 12 M. to 3 P. M.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, SERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great eard. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the LATEST IMPORTATIONS; can be found at her Rooms on Broad Street, to which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - also a large and well selected stock of. - also a large and well selected stock of. CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hild Erc, brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES. in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased since the great decline in (fond). TOLES & BARKER. Wellshore, July 5, 1867!	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly: "but what can a poor body do, sir"" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointee word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor!" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on, his heel. "I'll call again next week ; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blassin' of all the saints be about yez and over yez," whined the relieved Bridget. But the uncerimonious, closing of the door cut short Mrs. Tooley's shower o blessings and unnecessary details. Dr Maynard went slowly down the echo	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone tho work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, des fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and 'gentlemen', I have the hon- oit to bid you a 'very good evening?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no oue cared to 'prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was " extinguished.'	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he how holds, and was placed [upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position which he holity and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position who added to his other qualifications for the position which he holity and learning who added to his other qualifications for the position when the party and learning who added to his other qualifications for the position who added to his other qualifications for the position who added to his other qualifications for the position who added to his other qualifications for the position who added to his other qualifications for the position who added to his other qual	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership 'of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to tire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment ho had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- over dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his weak to itself and	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; 'ho every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not stea till brought to the gallows. It was a fearful tale, and broug tears into the artist's eyes. He b sought the young man to stop, offer to help him, and tried his best to sat him. But alas! it' was too late. D ease contracted by dissipation so prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B
 tesidence, near the Land Office and Episcop Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- statistation where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to the calling ite will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, steended to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Ancesthetics which are perfectly harmless, and will be administered in over the when dosired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Stra hismus, (cross cye) Removal of Tumo like Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discases of the E and General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. References given to operations recently performed. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. 	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, it barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, PERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great energ. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the LATEST IMPORTATIONS; can be found at her Rooms on Broad Street, to which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL.	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - also a large and well selected stock of. CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hild Erc, brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES. in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been purchased since the great depline in Hodds. TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July S, 1867!	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone tho work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, des fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and 'gentlemen', I have the hon- oi to bid you a 'very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no oue cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was " extinguished.' Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket of	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an ability and learning wears upon the	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. Ho was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his cyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. It was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice."
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to the colling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Ancesthetics which are perfectly harmless, and will be administered in over the when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Str bismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo Hare Lip, Varices Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discusses of the E and General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. References given to operations recently performed. Office haurs from 12 M. to 3 P. M.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, SERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great eard. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the LATEST IMPORTATIONS; can be found at her Rooms on Broad Street, to which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES Hill Erc; Drc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased slace the great depline in Hoods. TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! 4 4 4 4 4	to be comfortable. She's niver paid med since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir"" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointed word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor!" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on his heel. "I'll call again next week ; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blassin' of all the saints be about yez and over yez," whined the relieved Bridget. But the uncerimonious closing of the door cut short Mrs. Tooley's shower o blessings and unnecessary details. Dr Maynard went slowly down the echo ing, uncarpeted stains, with his hands in his pockets, and his brows contrac red, in a brown study."	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and gentlemen, I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening "" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was "extinguished.' If urthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!" she truly commented, while Dr	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in 'years' and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he how holds, and was placed [upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Bench, to which the Democratic party	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as if he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his cyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keen soher. He had heen knowi	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa- him. But alas ! it' was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice."
 residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- statistation where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to the calling its will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, steed to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are perfectly harmless, and will be administered in over the when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES, successfully for Cataract, Str bismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo Bare hip, Varicese Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discases of the E deferences given to operations recently per formed. Office a this residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office of the National Series of Standard Sche 	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMM ER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONN ETS & JOCKEYS, SERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great eard. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the LATEST IMPORTATIONS; can be found at her Rooms on Broad Street, to which would invice an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention puid to Bleaching and the-tom Work. Togay Pa., June 5, 1867-17.	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - also a large and well selected stock of - also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc; Drc., ETC. US are able to offer our customers the benefit of the LAST DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased slace the great desline in (1004). TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 3, 1867! Real Estate Sale.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir?" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointed word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor?" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said ife, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on his heel. "I'll call again next week; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blessin' of all the saints be about yez and over yez," whined the relieved Bridget. But the uncerimonious closing of the door cut short Mrs. Tooley's shower o blessings and unnecessary details. Dr Maynard went slowly down the echo ing, uncarpeted stairs, with his hands in his poekets, and his brows contrac 'ted, in a brown study."	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , maliclously alive to all the weak spott in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just flifty cents more than we need; but i will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and gentlemen; I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous is ysomehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was " extinguished.' Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!?' she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagoly in his sleeve.	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional brethren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an advantage over his opponent. Had he remained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most difficult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial experience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the district of poponent at the election in the fall was judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position and experience of several years upon the sought again to elevate him. The result of the election showed that the action is subtofthe election showed that the action is part.	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his now novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the potrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to lire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as if he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and phis cyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep soher. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his foce between	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not steat till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug tears into the artist's eyes. He be sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sat him. But alas! it was too late. De ease contracted by dissipation soo prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of the beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale self. You who read it can tell what is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways.
 tesidence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- statistation where the skill of the Dentist e- avail in the management of cases peculiar to t- calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, steinled to on shortest notice, and done in t- best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are pe- fectly harmless, and will be administered in over the when dosired. Wallsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-19. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Str hismus, (cross cye) Removal of Tumo like Lip, Varices Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discases of the E- ard General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. Reference given to operations recently pe- formed. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Part East from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Part String from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. 	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nicky, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, it barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONN ETS & JOCKEYS, PERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great ears, Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the Market invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention poid to Bloaching and Cu-tom Work Togat Pa., June 5, 1867-17. 	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES Hill Erc; brc., Erc. Kart DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased since the great decline in Gods. TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to with One farm, on which he new resides, one-hall unit from three churches, two School Houses	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir?" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointee word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor ?" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on his heel. "I'll call again next week; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blassin' of all the saints be about yez and over yez," whined the relieved Bridget. But the uncerimonious closing of the door cut short Mrs. Tooley's shower o blessings and unnecessary details. Dr Maynard went slowly down the echo ing, uncarpeted stains, with his hands in his pockets, and his brows contrac rted, in a brown study."	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley ! Ladies and gentlemen; I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening "" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was "extinguished.' Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket.o me'!" she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagely in his sleeve. THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus. d'Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in 'years' and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he how holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClurc as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Bench, to which the Democratic party sought again to elevate him. The re- sult of the election in nominating Judge	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the potrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? 'His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his eyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkrechief and couched a split	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed- beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. It was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways.
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e- avail in the management of cases peculiar to t calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & ENTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are per feetly harmless, and will be administered in over the when desired. Wellyboro, Jan. 1, 1865-19.	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19" MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONN ETS & JOCKEYS, 'ERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great eard. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the Which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention puid to Bleaching and the two the Togay Pa., June 5, 1867-17. J. H. RANDALL, SURGICAL AND MECHINICAL, 	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SXRUPS, MOLASSES Hill Erc; brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been purchased since the great decline in (1004). TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to wilf One farm, on which he new resides, one-hall will from three churches, two School Houses two greg sheps, and one railrind, and inbut the	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone tho work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and 'gentlemen', I have the hon- ot to bid you a 'very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no oue cared to 'prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was " extinguished.' I'urthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!' she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagely in his sleeve. "THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus d'Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o the 15th century, purloined severa	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional brethren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an advantage over his opponent. Had he remained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most difficult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in 'years' and in his profession, and without judicial experience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed [upon the 'young' as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the induct of the courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Williams, without a dissenting voice Williams, without a dissenting voice Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. Ho was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his cyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep soher. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkerchief and conghed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believ	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sar him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The 'paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there is only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways.
 tesidence, near the Land Office and Episcop Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- satisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to the calling ite will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest police, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are policely harmless, and will be administered in over the when desired. Wallsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Shi bismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo Bare Lip, Varicese Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discases of the E and General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. Betorences given to operations recently per formed. Office headras from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Fit. NORMAN STRAIT, A GENT for the National Series of Standard Sch and the published by A. S. Barnes & Co. 111 & 1 Markeb 27, 1567-1y. 	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nicky, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, it barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONN ETS & JOCKEYS, PERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great ears, Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the Market invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention poid to Bloaching and Cu-tom Work Togat Pa., June 5, 1867-17. 	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc; brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES LAST DECLINE OF PRICES In the New Nork Market, our Stock having been purchased slace the great decline in (foods. TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to with One farm, on which he new resides, one-hal mile from three churches, two School Houses two greg shops, and one rallrind, and inbott the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro the parchased shops, and one rallrind, and inbott the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro the parchased from the fine of the Wellsboro the from three churches, two School Houses two greg shops, and one rallrind, and inbott the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro the parchased its the from the fine of the Wellsboro the famile from the fine of the Wellsboro the fame distance from the fine of the Wellsboro the famile from the fine of the Wellsboro the	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but if will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley !- But the party broke up simultaneous is somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-party. Socially, she was " extinguished." Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!?' she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagoly in his sleeve.	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in 'years' and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClurc as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Bench, to which the Democratic party sought again to elevate him. The re- sult of the election in nominating Judge Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the warc	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beccher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the poterait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. Ho was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to tire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as if he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his cyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkerchief and coughed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believ ed it. Once, on a hot summer day, ho	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went wit bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa- him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di- before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways. Refer to heat the tollowing anecdod which was told by a well known - Iri which was told by a well known - Iri character. Thaddens Coundly, we
residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where ho will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- ration where the skill of the Dontist c dual in the management of cases peculiar to t calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. HILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, steended to on shortest notice, and done in t heat and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAN by the the use of Ancesthetics which are pe- fectly harmless, and will be administered in over cise when dosired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Str hismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo Rare Lip, Varico-o Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discusses of the E and General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. References given to operations recently pe- formed. Office heatrs from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tiogn Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tiogn Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Surgery, Consultation at office tree. References given to operations recently pe- formed. March 27, 1567-19. NORMAN STRAIT, GENT for the National Surgery for count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Surgery, Stratt, Stratt, March 27, 1567-19. BEACH & WILLIAMIS.	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, it barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19". MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS. BONNETS & JOCKEYS. BERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great eard. Everything belong ing to the Millinety Trade of the Which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention paid to Bloaching and Cu-tom Work. Togay Pa., June 5, 1807-12. J. H. RANDALL, SURGICAL AND MECHANICAL, DEC N THS T. 	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES Hill Erc; brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been purchased slace the great decline in Godd. TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to with One farm, on which he new resides, one-hall night from three chargers, two School Houses two grog shops, and one railrind, and about the same distance from the file of the Wellsboro and Lawrenceville failroad. The furn contains 16 agrees of good land, 50 acres timbered, well wall and the form and the date of the Wellsboro and Lawrenceville failroad. The furn contains 16 agrees of good land, 50 acres timbered, well wall and	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was !"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir"" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointed word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor!" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on his heel. "I'll call again next week ; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blessiu' of all the saints be about yez and over yez," whined the relieved Bridget. But the uncerimonious, closing of the door cut short Mrs. Tooley's shower o blessings and unnecessary details. Dr Maynard went slowly down the echo ing, uncarpeted stairs, with his hands in his pockets, and his brows contrac ted, in a 'brown study." As he entered his office, several block helow, the first thing that met his eye was a note, written on a perfumed pint paper, and sealed with a gorgeous her aldie device in rose-rolored wax. ""Hum-men!" muttered the doctor between his closed lips. "Mr. Napier's compliments ; pleasure of Dr. May	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!— Ladies and gentlemen, I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was " extinguished.' Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!" she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagoly in his sleeve. THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus d' Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o the 15th century, purloined severa pieces of meat from a neighboring butcher's shoy." Two of his scholars of doubtful gharacter, were put in pris	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional brethren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an advantage over his opponent. Had he remained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most difficult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in 'years' and in his profession, and without judicial experience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he how holds, and was placed upon the judicial teket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Budge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Budge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position and experience of several years upon the Budge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position and experience of several years upon the Budge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning who added to the sout of the Convention in nominating Judge Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the ward in which he lived, in "the old Demo	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership 'of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment ho had done work, as if he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his eyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several occa sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkerchief and conghed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believ ed it. Once, on a hot summer day, he saw Deacon Trowbridge—a "sober and fall was the matter, yet mobody believ	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed- beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed- drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa- him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of the beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the ob- the story, saying as he closed: "B- tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale fs-in the tale? Self. You who read it can tell what is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways. A RIGHT KIND-OF PREACHINGT Gilly related the tollowing anecdor which was told by a well known Iff charactet. Thaddens Connolly, with
 residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Church) where ho will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- ratisfaction where the skill of the Dentist c edual in the management of cases peculiar to t calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, steepided to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are pe- fectly harmless, and will be administered in ove case when dosired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract. Str bismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo lare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the E and Guerral Surgery. Consultation at office tree. References given to operations recently pe- formed. MORMAN STRAIT, GENT for the National Series of Standard Sch Backs; published by A. S. Barnes & Ca 111 & 1 Mithan, caner of John Street, N. S. Strait Consult attention prime for the street of the state of the street of Standard Sch Backs; published by A. S. Barnes & Ca 111 & 1 Mithan, caner of John Street, N. S. Strait Street, next door to Henden's Store. 	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19" MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONN ETS & JOCKEYS, 'ERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great eard. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the Which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention puid to Bleaching and the two the Togay Pa. June 5, 1867-17. J. H. RANDALL, SURGICAL AND MECHANICAL, OFFICE at his residence on Wellsboro Street Tiopa, where he may be found from the latest and the construction of the freed triopa, where he may be found from the latest in the found found in the may be found from the latest in the set of the set of the set of the set of the freed triopa, where he may be found from the latest the found from the latest of the found from the latest the found from the latest the set of the found from the latest of the found from the latest found found fo	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of also a large and well selected stock of CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc; brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES In the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased slace the great desline in (fodd). TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 3, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable.property, to with Obe tavern stand in Lawrenceville? One farm, on which he new resides, one-hal upite from three churches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one raltrind, and hout the same distance from the full or ront in School Houses two grog shops, and one raltrind, and hout the same distance from the full or contains 160 agree of good land, 50 acres timbered, well wa ered, and very productive. It requires that the acre should be sowed and planted, however, to	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone tho work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and gentlemen, I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was " extinguished.' Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!" she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagoly in his sleeve. THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus d' Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o the 15th century, purloined severa pieces of meat from a neighboring butcher's shoy." Two of his scholars of doubtful diaracter, wero put in pris on as authors of the theft. Accoltus in	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Bench, to which the Democratic party sought again to elevate him. The re- sould the lection showed that the action of the Convention in nominating Judge Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the ward in which he lived, in "the old Demo- cratic Third Ward," and in the county beating his able opponent 2,245, while	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant. A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as if he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his cyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep soher. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several occa sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkerchief and conghed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believ do it. Once, on a hot summer day, he saw Deacon Trowbridge—a 'soher' and fat man of great sobriety—gradually as- cending from the bodily state into tha spiriting coulding and the deal was the matter, yet and a pro- diate the matter, yet maked and shifted allower with saw Deacon Trowbridge—a 'soher' and fat man of great sobriety—gradually as- gending from the bodily state into tha spiriting coulding and the deal of the share the soher and fat man of great sobriety—gradually as- gending from the bodily state into tha spiriting coulding and the deal of the solution and the deal of the soluting and the deal of the solution and the deal	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. It was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of the beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale fs-in the tale; self. You who read it can tell what is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways. REALT KIND-OF PREACHINGT Gilly related the tollowing anecdo which was told by a well known - Iri charactet. Thaddeus Connolly, whis which was told by a well known - Iri charactet. Thaddeus Connolly, which was told by a well known - Iri charactet. The beam of the time visiting the poorer classes in freland, and if a stucting them in their native bigeners.
 residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- statistation where the skill of the Dentist e avail in the management of cases peculiar to the calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, steeded to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Ancesthetics which are perfectly harmless, and will be administered in over the when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-1y. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES, successfully for Cataract, Str hismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo Hare Lip, Varicese Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discases of the E and General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. Reformeds given to operations recently performed. Office hadrs from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular form 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular form 12 M. to 3 P M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular form 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Particular form 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office at his residence, Mansfield at the far Marker particular	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection, o SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, Consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, Consisting of the latest novelties of BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great energ. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the LATEST IMPORTATIONS; can be found at her Rooms on Broad Street, to which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL N. BParticular attention puid to Bleaching and Cu-tom Work. Togar Pa., June 5, 1807-17. DEC N THS T. OFFICE at his residence on Wellsbore street the tothe many be found from the 12th, and from the 19th until the 25th of each month. With be in Blossburg at the Street month. 	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of also a large and well selected stock of WARE, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES Hill Erc; Drc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased slace the great deeline in Hodds. TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July S, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to with One farm, on which he new resides, one-hal mide from three churches, two School Houses two greg shops, and one railrind, and about the same distance from the Time of the Wellsboro the Lawrence will claim and mout the same distance from the Time of the Wellsboro the fawrence will claim and not the same distance from the Time of the Wellsboro the fawrence will claim and not the same distance from the Time of the Wellsboro the fawrence will claim and planted, however, the officiency of good land, 50 acres in bored, well we for farm in Jackson township, 175 acres; to One farm in Jackson township, 175 acres; to	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid I. J put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, maliclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars!" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just flity cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley ! Ladies and gentlemen; I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening "" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was "extinguished.' Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket.o me'!" she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagoly in his sleeve. THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus d'Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o tho 15th century, purloined severa pieces of meat from a neighboring butcher's shop: Two of his scholars of doubtful maracter, were put in pris on as authors of the theft. Accoltus in vain accused himself; it was though he did so the rescue the young men	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional brethren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an advantage over his opponent. Had he remained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most difficult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial experience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the fulliams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the ward in which he lived, in "the old Democratic Party sought again to elevate him. The result of the lived, in "the old Democratic Party beating his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hering his	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant. A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. Ho was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his cyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several occa sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkrechief and conghed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believe ed it. Once, on a hot summer day, he saw Deacon Trowbridge—a 'sober' and fat man of great sobriety—gradually as- centing from the bodily state into that spiritual condition entitled sleep. He was blameless of the act. He had	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. It was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offfer- to help him, and tried his best to sa him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there tonly twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale fs-in the tale is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways. Refer to he told who read it can tell what is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways.
 residence, near the Land Office and Episcop Courch) where ho will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- ratisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e dual in the management of cases peculiar to t calling. He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. 3 FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, stuchded to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAN by the the use of Anæsthetics which are per fectly harmless, and will be administered in ove the when dosired. Wellsbord, Jan. 1, 1865-19. D'PERATES successfully for Cataract. Str bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tumo Bare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discusses of the E std General Surgery. Consultation at office tree. Befartes from 12 M. to 3 P M. Güize at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga Count Pa Mare Lip, vall. And StrikatT, GENT for the National Surges of Standard Sch Barmest of John Street, N. J. Straft Mithan, count of John Street, N. S. STRATE Mithan, Cane of John St	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light nick, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19". MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, 'ERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &cc., All seleted with great eard, Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the Which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention poid to Bleaching and Cu-tom Work. Togar Pa., June 5, 1867-17. J. H. RANDALL, SURGICAL AND MECHINICAL, DECN THS To Methods of the Tiogar, where the may be found from the 1- unit the 12th, and from the 19th until the 22th of each month. Will be in Blossburg at the Unit de Tethe Mill her Month of Street to mather the Millinery the found from the 1- unit the 12th, and from the 19th until the 25th of each month. Will be in Blossburg at the Unit de Tethe Mill her Mill be in Blossburg at the Unit the 12th, and from the 15th until the 25th of each month. 	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of also a large and well selected stock of ware, STONE WARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc, brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased shace the great decline in (1004). TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to with One farm, on which he new resides, one-hal utile from three churches, two School Houses two grey shops, and one railfind, and inbut the same distance from the fine of the Wellsbore and utile from three churches, two School Houses two grey shops, and one railfind, and inbut the same distance from the fine of the Wellsbore and Lawrenceville failmend. The farm contains lof upres of good hand, 50 acres timbered, well was tered, and very productive. It requires that the same distance from the fine of the Wellsbore and Lawrenceville failmend. The farm contains lof upres of good hand, 50 acres timbered, well wa tered, and very productive. It requires that the same distance from the fine of the Wellsbore that he can harvest. One farm in Jackson township, 175 acres; f first rate had eige of the the source of the theorem the failed of the source of the theorem the failed of the source of the theorem the failed of the source of the term of the failed of the source of the failed of the theorem of the source of the sour	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was !"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir ?" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointed word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor ?" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab ruptly on his heel. "I'll call again next week ; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blessin' of all the saints be door cut short Mrs. Tooley's shower o blessings and unnecessary details. Dr Maynard went slowly down the echo ing, uncarpeted stains, with his hands in his pockets, and his brows contrac ted, in a brown study. "As he entered his office, several blocks helow, the first thing that met his eys and sealed with a gorgeous her aldie device in rose-rolored wax. ""Hum-m-m!" muttered the doctor between his closed lips. "Mr. Napier' compliments ; pleasure of Dr. May nard's company to dinner on Thursday evening next, at six o'clock! Anothe of their champagne and turbot celebra tions, eh? Well-well-well-these ar not much to my fancy, but I heliey	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley ! Ladies and gentlemen, I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no one cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was "extinguished.' Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket.o me'!" she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagely in his sleeve. THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus. d'Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o the 15th century, purloined severa pieces of meat from a neighboring butcher's shop: Two of his scholars of doubtful maracter, were put in pris on as authors of the theft. Accoltus in vain accused himself; it was though he did so to rescue the young men.— When the affair was blown over, and	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Bench, to which the Democratic party sought again to elevate him. The re- sout of the election showed that the action of the Convention in nominating Judge Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the ward in which he lived, in "the old Demo cratic Third Ward," and in the county beating his able opponent 2,245, whill Judge Forward's majority over Judge Henburn was only 1,225, and Judge	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant. A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. Ho was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment ho had done work, as if he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his cyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkerchief and conghed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believ ed it. Once, on a hot summer day, he saw Deacon Trowbridge—a 'sober' and fat man of great sobriety—gradually ä- centing from the bodily state into that spiritual condition entitled sleep. Ho	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sar him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di- before he could reform. The 'paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways. Ruant KIND OF PREACHINGT is the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale is which was told by a welt known -fri charactet. Thaddens Connolly, w used to spend most of his time visitif the poorer classes in 'freland, and i e structing them in their nativelangang if "4 went," said he, "one Sunday into
 tesidence, near the Land Office and, Episcor Charch) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing complexitication where the skill of the Dentist eavail in the management of cases peculiar to the calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, atteided to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAN by the the use of Anæsthetics which are perfectly harmless, and will be administered in over the when dosired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-19. E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully for Cataract, Shi hismus, (cross cyc) Removal of Tumo Rare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to discusses of the East of the growth to aperations recently performed. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P M. Office a this residence, Marghe 27, 1507-19. NORMAN STRAIT, A GENT for the National Strikes to a Street, and Margh 27, 1507-19. BEACH & WILLIAMIS. A TTORNEYS AT LAW. Office on Marsheld, Store. C. G. WILLIAMS, C. W. BEACH. WILLIAMS, M. M. M. Street, next door to Heaten's Store. C. G. WILLIAMS, AT LAW. Office on Marsheld, Store. C. W. WELLIAMS, C. W. BEACH. WILLIAMS, M. M. M. Street, next door to Heaten's Store. C. W. WELLIAMS, C. W. BEACH. WELLIAMS, M. M. B. Street, next door to Heaten's Store. C. W. WELLIAMS, C. W. BEACH. WELLIAMS, M. H.L. WELCHAMS, C. W. BEACH. WELLIAMS, Street, next door to Heaten's Store. C. W. WELLIAMS, M. M. M. W. WELCHT, "A GENERATE A Mark of the form to the bard of a form to the store. C. W. WELLIAMS, C. W. WEL	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not? It pays for five stock killed by Lightning, it barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONN ETS & JOCKEYS, Consisting of the latest novelties of BONN ETS & JOCKEYS, Consisting of the latest novelties of BONS, LACES, &c., All seleted with great end. Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the ArtEST IMPORTATIONS; can be found at her Rooms on Broad Street, to which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL N. B -Particular attention puid to Blosching and Ca-tom Work. Togar Pa. June 5, 1867-17. J. H. RANDALL; SURGICAL AND MECHINICAL, DEC N THS To Helshore street to rioga, where he may be found from the 1- unit the 12th, and from the 19th until the 25th and in interence of the Blosching and the 19th until the 25th and in interence of the Blosching and the 19th until the 19th and in interence of the Blosching and the 19th until the 19th and in interence of the Blosching and the 19th until the 19th and in interence of the Blosching and in the 19th until the 19th and in interence of the Blosching at the Will be in Blosching at the 19th until the 19th and in interence of the Blosching at the Will be in Blosching at the Will be in Blosching at the 19th and in interence of the and in the 19th and in interence of the and in the 19th and in interence of the atthe to 19th until the 19th and in interence of the and in the 19th and in interence of the area in the 19th and in the 20th until the 19th and in the 19th and in the 19th and in the 19th and 10th 19th 20th and 10th 19th 20th 20th 20th 10th 10th 20th 20th 20th 10th 20th 20th 20th 10th 10th 20th 20th 20th 20th 10th 10th 20th 20th 20t	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, - also a large and well selected stock of. - also a large and well selected stock of. CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc; brc., Erc. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES. LAST DECLINE OF PRICES. In the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased slace the great decline in Gods. TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to with One farm, on which he new resides, one-hal mile from three churches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one rallrind, and about the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro that Lawrenceville italized. The farm contains left agrees of good land, 50 acres timbered, well wa tered, and very productive. It requires that the acres should be sowed and planted, however, to offur a harvest.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid me since I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"" "It's a shame," said Dr. Maynard laconically. "Sure an it is, sir," assented Bridget meekly; "but what can a poor body do, sir?" Dr. Maynard murmured something under his breath. Mrs. Tooley could just catch here and there a disjointed word of the old Bible sentence having regard to "grinding the faces of the poor!" "Well, Bridget, you are not so much to blame as I thought you were," said he, in a milder tone, as he turned ab- ruptly on his heel. "I'll call again next week ; it's more than likely you'l have the money by that time." "The blessiu' of all the saints be about yez and over yez," whined the relieved Bridget. But the uncerfimonious, closing of the door cut short Mrs. Tooley's shower o blessings and unnecessary details. Dr Maynard went slowly down the echo ing, uncarpeted stairs, with his hands in his pockets, and his brows contrac- ted, in a brown study." As he entered his office, several blocks helow, the first thing that met his eye was a note, written on a perfumed pint paper, and sealed with a gorgeous her aldie device in rose-rolored wax. ""Hum-men!" muttered the doctor between his closed lips. "Mr. Napier's compliments ; pleasure of Dr. May nard's company to dinner on Thursday evening next, at six o'clock." Anothe of their champagne and turbot celebra toons, ch? Well-well-these ar not much to my fancy, but I believe I'll go this time? I believe-f-will."	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite , mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone tho work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and 'gentlemen', I have the hon- oit to bid you a 'very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no oue cared to 'prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was '' extinguished.' I'urthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!' she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagoly in his sleeve. THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus d' Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o tho 15th century, purloined severa pieces of meat from a neighboring butcher's shop: Two of his scholars of doubtful diaracter, were put in pris on as authors of the theft. Accoltus in vain accused himself; it was though he did so to rescue the young men.— When the affair was blown over, and the students set at liberty by paying certain sum, Accoltus brought plat	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this courty, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClurc as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the Bench, to which the Democratic party sought again to elevate him. The re- sult of the election showed that the action of the Convention in nominating Judge Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the ward in which he lived, in "the old Democ ratic Third Ward," and in the county beating his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge Hepburn was only 1,225, and Judge McClure's over Jas. S. Craft only 1,117 a. So well, faithfully, impartially and	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the potrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. Ho was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to tire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment ho had done work, as if he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his eyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkerchief and coughed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believ ed it. Once, on a hot summer day, he saw Deacon Trowbridge—a 'sober and fat man of great sobriety—gradually as cending from the bodily state into tha spiritual condition entitled sleep. Ho was blameless of the act. He had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed- beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed- drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways. REALT KIND OF PREACHINGT Gilly related the tollowing anecdor which was told by a welt known -Iri ways.
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- ratisfaction where the skill of the Dentist e dual in the management of cases peculiar to t calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. 3 HILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, stichded to on shortest notice, and done in t best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are pe- fectly harmless, and will be administered in ove "as when dosired. Wellshoro, Jan. 1, 1865-1y.	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19" MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, 'ERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &cc., All seleted with great eard, Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the Which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention poid to Blosching and Cu-tom Work. Togat Pa., June 5, 1867-17. J. H. RANDALL, SURGICAL AND MECHINICAL, DEC N THS To Methods and the lynn the taxten being from the 19th until the 22th, and the 12th, and from the 19th until the 25th of cach month. With he in Blossburg at the Unit the 12th, and from the 19th until the 25th and in lawrenceville at Slogson's Hotel, from the 26th until the Just day of each month. All operations connected with the dental pro- fersion, whether sup given or mechanicath, will re- ston, whether sup given or mechanicath, will re- ter sup given or mechanicath, will re- ston, whether sup given or mechanicath, will re- tor whether sup given or mechanicath, will re- tors and the superations connected with the dental pro- fession, whether sup given or mechanicath, will re- ston whether sup given or mechanicath, will re- tors and the superations connected with the dental pro- fession. 	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of. also a large and well selected stock of. CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES Hill Erc; Drc., Erc. We are able to offer our customers the benefit of the LAST DECLINE OF PRICES. In the New Nork Market, our Stock having been purchased slace the great decline in Godd. TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to with One farm, on which he now resides, one-hal unit from three churches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one railrind, and about the same distance from the Time of the Wellsboro and Lawrenceville failroad. The farm contains 16 agres of good land, 50 acres timbered, well was tered, and very productive. It requires that the acad should be sowed and planted, however, it offer a shale - 4 unles if or subsci, and unda tered, and very productive. It requires that the acad should be sowed and planted, however, it offer a shale - 4 unles if of sheep, and other stock, cheap on reasonable terms. M. S. BALDWIN.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone tho work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and 'gentlemen', I have the hon- ot to bid you a 'very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no oue cared to 'prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was " extinguished.' I'urthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!' she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagely in his sleeve. "THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus d'Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o the 15th century, purloined severa pieces of meat from a neighboring butcher's shop: Two of his scholars of doubtful diaracter, were put in pris on as authors of the theft. Accoltus in vain accused himself ; it was though he did so to rescue the young men.— When the affair was blown over, and the students set at liberty by paying certain sum, Accoltus brought plain proof that he had been the thief. Of	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the sought again to elevate him. The re- sult of the election showed that the action of the Convention in nominating Judge Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the ward in which he lived, in "the old Demo- erate. Third Ward," and in the county beating his able opponent 2,245, while Hepburn was only 1,228, and Judge McClure's over Jas. S. Craft only 1,117 So well, faithfully, impartially and satisfactorily did Judge Williams dis	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the potrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? 'His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his eyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkerchief and coughed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believe ed it. Once, on a hot summer day, he saw Deacon Trowbridge—a 'sober' and fat man of great sobriety—gradually äs- cending from the bodily state into the spiritual condition entitled sleep. Ho was blameless of the act. The had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had struggled against the temptation with	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed- beg, he began to steal, and was caugh and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. It was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sa him. But alas! it was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The paint hung his portrait opposite that of the beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "He tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways. Refer the work of the tollowing aneedod which was told by a welt known - Iri charactet. Thaddens Connolly, w used to spend most of the time visition is stucting them in their nativelanging if "I went," said he, "one Sunday into a church to which a new incumilent h the nore classes in freland, and it is structing them matheir nativelanging if "I went," said he, "one Sunday into a church to which a new incumilent h the is native appointed. The congre
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- rati-faction where the skill of the Dentist e- dwal in the management of cases peculiar to to calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. " FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Ancesthetics which are per feely harmless, and will be administered in ove case when desired. Wellsbore, Jan. 1, 1865-19.	No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, ir barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19 SUMMER MILLINERY! MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invited the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMM ER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONN ETS & JOCKEYS, PERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &cc., All seleted with great entre, Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the LATEST IMPORTATIONS; can be found at her Rooms on Broad Street, to which would invite a carly call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL, N. BParticular attention puid to Bleaching and the two by the fire from the 19th until the 25th of each month. Will be in Blossburg at the United States Hotel, from the 19th until the 25th and in Lates Hotel, from the 19th until the 25th of each month. Will be in Blossburg at the United States Hotel, from the 19th until the 25th and the two the tast and form the 19th and the north which will be and from the 19th of each month. Will be in Blossburg at the United States Hotel, from the 19th until the 25th and the terms where the may be found from the 19th and the terms the tast and or each month. Will be in Blossburg at the United States Hotel, from the 19th until the 25th and the there we are and ye are month. All operafiling connected with the dental pro- fersion, whether suggical or mechanical, will re- corve expected attention.	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HATS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also u large and well selected stock of. CROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill Erc, brc., Erc. We are able to offer our customers the benefit of the LAST DECLINE OF PRICES. In the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased slace the great decline in (1dod). TOLES & BARKER. Wellsboro, July 5, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to with Obe farm, on which he new resides, one-hal mile from three churches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one rallrind, and about the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro that for a three churches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one rallrind, and about the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro that farm, on which he new resides, one-hal mile from three churches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one rallrind, and about the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro that farm three shurches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one rallrind, and nobout the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro that farm three shurches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one rallrind, and nobout the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro that farm three shurches, two School Houses two grog shops, and one rallrind, and nobout the same distance from the fine of the Wellsboro that farm three shurches and planted, however, it for the farm on lackson township, 175 acres; t first rate plate for the charge finctor for farm on the stock, cheap on reasonable terms. M. S. BALDWIN. Lawrence, Apr. 17, 1867-tf.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite . mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone tho work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley!- Ladies and 'gentlemen', I have the hon- oi to bid you a 'very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no oue cared to 'prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was '' extinguished.' I'urthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!' she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagoly in his sleeve. THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus d' Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o tho 15th century, purloined severa pieces of meat from a neighboring butcher's shop: Two of his scholars of doubtful diaracter, were put in pris on as authors of the theft. Accoltus in vain accused himself ; it was though he did so to rescue the young men.— When the affair was blown over, and the students set at liberty by paying certain sum, Accoltus brought plati proof that he had been the thief. O being asked why he had committed an	a ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional brethren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting: to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an advantage over his opponent. Had he remained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most difficult, laborious and honorable profession. A talarge and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial experience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he how holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the Hon. Walter Forward, as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the District Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the bistrict Court, and Hon. William B. McClure as the candidate for President Judge of the District Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the ward in which he lived, in "the old Demorerate. Third Ward," and in the county beating his able opponent 2,245, while Judge Forward's majority over Judge McClure's over Jas. S. Craft only 1,117 So well, faithfully, impartially and hard, he hered, un wight and useful a Judge Williams disting the duties of his office, and satisfactorily did Judge Williams disting the duties of his office, and satisfactorily did Judge Williams disting the duties of his office, and satisfactorily did Judge Williams disting the duties of his office, and satisfactorily did Judge Williams disting the duties of his office, and satisfactorily did Judge Williams disting the duties of his office, and satisfactorily did Judge Williams disting the duties of his office, and satisfac	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant. A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the portrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to tire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his eyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkrechief and coughed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believ ed it. Once, on a hot summer day, he saw Deacon Trowbridge—a 'sober and fat man of great sobriety—gradually as- cending from the bodily state into tha spiritual condition entitled sleep. He was blameless of the act. The had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had stirred himself up and fixed his eyes on the minster with intense firmness only to have them grow gradually nar- to way blameless of the act. The had stirred himself up and fixed his eyes on the minster with intense firmness only to have them grow gradually nar-	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; 'ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brought to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sar him. But alas! if was too late. D- ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di before he could reform. The 'paint hung his portrait opposite that of t hung his portrait opposite that of the beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there has the angel and the demon there tooly twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale ways.
residence, near the Land Office and Episcor Church) where he will continue to do all kinds work confided to his care, guaranteeing comple- rati-faction where the skill of the Dentist c- dwal in the management of cases peculiar to to calling He will furnish ARTIFICIAL TEETH, set on any material desired. " FILLING & EXTRACTING TEETH, attended to on shortest notice, and done in the best and most approved style. TEETH EXTRACTED WITHOUT PAH by the the use of Anæsthetics which are po- feely harmless, and will be administered in over free when dosired. Wellsboro, Jan. 1, 1865-19.	 No Premium Notes required. It is LIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for two stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower-than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tioga Co. Pa. May 29, 1867-19" MRS: MITCHELL would particularly invite the attention of her friends and the public generally, to call and see her new collection of SUMMER GOODS, consisting of the latest novelties of BONNETS & JOCKEYS, 'ERENCH FLOWERS, RIB- BONS, LACES, &cc., All seleted with great eard, Everything belong ing to the Millinery Trade of the Which would invite an early call. Mrs. E. D. MITCHELL. N. BParticular attention poid to Blosching and Cu-tom Work. Togat Pa., June 5, 1867-17. J. H. RANDALL, SURGICAL AND MECHINICAL, DEC N THS To Methods and the lynn the taxten being from the 19th until the 22th, and from the 19th until the 25th of cach month. Will be in Bloschurg at the Unit the 12th, and from the 19th until the 25th and in Latvenceville at Slogson's Hotel, from the 26th until the latest day of each month. All operations connected with the dental pro- fersion, whether sup given on mechanicath, will rise and in Latvenceville at Slogson's Hotel, from the 26th until the latest day of each month. All operations connected with the dental pro- fersion, whether sup given or mechanicath, will rise and in Latvenceville at Slogson's Hotel, from the 26th until the latest day of each month. All operations connected with the dental pro- fersion, whether sup given or mechanicath, will rise and in Latvenceville at Slogson's Hotel, from the 26th until the last day of each month. All operations connected with the dental pro- fersion, whether sup given or mechanicath, will rise 	CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VEST- INGS, READY MADE CLO- THING, HAFS & CAPS, BOOTS AND SHOES, also a large and well selected stock of. cROCKERY, HARDWARE, WOODEN WARE, STONE WARE, KERO- SENE OIL, PAINTS & OILS, SUGARS, TEAS, COFFEES, SYRUPS, MOLASSES, Hill ETC, DTC., ETC. WG are able to offer our customers the benefit of the LAST DECLINE OF PRICES. in the New Nork Market, our Stock having been parchased slace the great depline in (food). TOLES & BARKER. Wellsbore, July 3, 1867! Real Estate Sale. THE Subscriber will sell or ront the following valuable property, to will one farm, on which he new resides, one-hal mile from three churches, two School Houses two grey shops, and one railfind, and about the same distance from the fine of the Wellsbore that havences its fame in Lawrenceville. One farm, on which he new resides, one-hal mile from three shurches, two School Houses two grey shops, and one railfind, and about the same distance from the fine of the Wellsbore that havences its fame of rouge the Subscriber of the sound and success the fine of the Wellsbore that the same distance from the fine of the Wellsbore that havences its fame of the Subscriber of the Subscriber of the Wellsbore that the same distance of rouge the fine of the Wellsbore that the same distance of rouge the stock of the Wellsbore that havences it faming the charge fine of the Wellsbore that the same should be sound and planted, however, it effers a harvest. One farm in Jackson township, 175 acres; if first rate plange of the charge filterory. Also-Har sale 4 unless the sheep, and dime stock, cheap on reasonable terms. Lawrence, Apr. 17, 1867-tf.	to be comfortable. She's niver paid medsince I began to wash for her five weeks ago the very last Thursday that ever was!"	Mrs. Napier's distressed washerwoman, whose bills have not been paid 1. I put in a quarter myself—will somebody be kind enough to pass the china-plate?" The china-plate went round the table in perfect silence, and returned to its original source well-filled. The elite, mailclously alive to all the weak spots in Mrs. Napier's armor, appeared to en- joy the thing. Mr. Napier, smiling faintly, endeavored to regard it as a joke; but his wife knew that this one evening had undone the work of years and sat pale and silent. She could cheerfully have murdered Dr. Maynard at that moment, and Mrs. Tooley too! "Ten doliars !" said the doctor, de- liberately counting the change. "Just fifty cents more than we need; but it will not come amiss to Mrs. Tooley ! Ladies and gentlemen, I have the hon- or to bid you a very good evening ?" But the party broke up simultaneous iy somehow, no oue cared to prolong his stay after Dr. Maynard's awkward little exposition." It was Mrs. Napier's last dinner-par ty. Socially, she was "extinguished.' Furthermore, Mrs. Tooley lost her cus tomer. "Small' loss to the pocket o me'!" she truly commented, while Dr Maynard smiled sagely in his sleeve. THE USE OF REPUTATION.—Accol tus d'Arreggo a celebrated lawyer o the 15th century, purloined severa pleces of meat from a neighboring butcher's shop. Two of his scholars of doubtful diaracter, were put in pris on as authors of the theft. Accoltus in vain accused himself; it was though he did so to rescue the young men When the affair was blown over, and the students set at liberty by paying certain sum, Accoltus brought plat proof that he had been the thief. Of being asked why he had committed at action so unlike himself, and of which	ness. While he would never knowingly take a bad case for the sake of fee, he never gave up a good one because his client was unable to pay him. His infercourse with his professional breth- ren was always kind, courteous and honorable, never resorting to what is termed "sharp practice" to gain an ad- vantage over his opponent. Had he re- mained at the bar, few would have met with greater success in that most diffi- cult, laborious and honorable profession. At a large and respectable Convention of the old Whig party, of this county, held on the 4th of June, 1851, Judge Williams, then young in years and in his profession, and without judicial ex- perience, without solicitation on his part, was nominated by acclamation, for the responsible position which he now holds, and was placed upon the judicial ticket of that party with the court, and Hon. William B. McClurc as the candidate for President Judge of the Courts of Common Pleas, &c. His opponent at the election in the fall was Judge Shaler, a lawyer of eminent ability and learning, who added to his other qualifications for the position an experience of several years upon the out of the Convention in nominating Judge Williams, without a dissenting voice was peculiarly acceptable to the people He ran ahead of his ticket in the ward in which he lived, in "the old Demo cratic. Third Ward," and in the county beating his able opponent 2,245, whill hearned, upright and useful a Judge Williams dis charge the duties of his office, and sa the learned, upright and useful a Judge Williams dis charge the duties of his office, and sa that hearned, upright and useful a Judge Meclure's over Jas. S. Craft only 1,117 No well, faithfully, impartially and satisfactorily did Judge Williams dis charge the duties of his office, and sa the hearned, upright and useful a Judge di hearned, upright and useful a Judge di	ter counties of the East in raising the banner of Freedom and the Union still higher, and in inaugurating a campaign for free principles and a united, peace- ful and happy country, which shall cul- minate in the glorious victories of 1868, under the leadership of a Thomas, a Sheridan, a Sherman, or a Grant A LAUGHING DEACON Beecher, in his new novel, thus de- lineates the character of a laughing Deacon. Some genuine model doubt- less sits for the potrait: "How they ever made a Deacon out of Jerry Marble I never could imagine! His was the kindest heart that ever bubbled and run over. He was tough, elastic, incessantly active, and a pro- digious worker. He seemed not to fire, but after the longest day's toil he sprang up the moment he had done work, as it he was a fine steel spring. A few hours sleep sufficed him, and he saw the morning stars the year round? 'His weazened face was leather color, but for- ever dimpling and changing to keep some sort of cognity between itself and his eyes that winked and blinked and split all over with merry good nature He always seemed afflicted when oblig ed to keep sober. He had been known to laugh in meeting on several ocea sions, although he ran his face betweet his handkerchief and coughed, as i that was the matter, yet nobody believe ed it. Once, on a hot summer day, he saw Deacon Trowbridge—a 'sober' and fat man of great sobriety—gradually äs- cending from the bodily state into the spiritual condition entitled sleep. Ho was blameless of the act. The had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had struggled against the temptation with the whole virtue of a deacon. He had struggled against the temptation with	and very beautiful, his parents petter and spoiled him; how he went with bad boys, and learned their bad habi- and vices and came to love them; ho- having plenty of money, he was entice to wicked places till all was lost, and then, unable to work and ashamed beg, he began to steal, and was caugi- and imprisoned with the worst crim- nals; came out still more deprayed commit worse crimes than before; ho- every bad deed he performed seemed drive him to commit a worse one, till seemed to him that he could not ste- till brough to the gallows. If was a fearful tale, and broug- tears into the artist's eyes. He b- sought the young man to stop, offer- to help him, and tried his best to sai him. But alas! it was too late. D ease contracted by dissipation so- prostrated the young man and he di- before he could reform. The 'paint hung his portrait opposite that of t beautiful boy; and when visitors ask him why he allowed such a hideo looking face to be there, he told the the story, saying as he closed: "B tween the angel and the demon there only twenty years of vice." The lesson of this tale is in the tale is. Think of it often, and heed it a ways. Ruant KINN- OF PREACHINGT Gilly related the tollowing aneedo which was told by a welt known stri- the poorer classes in 'freland, and i estructing them in their nativelangang the prostreated here, 'one Sunday into church to which a new incumilent h been lately appointed. The dongre tion did not exceed half a dozed, be the prother delivered himself with much energy and affection as if he word addressing a crowded audience: A fi

A VINU received definite instruction in the patient issue in the patient issue in the patient is

. 1

· . .

ı