MR CYRUS . WEBB, and FRANKIE TROUT, a little daughter of A. J. TPOUT, had a narrow escape from drowning on Friday last. They were riding in a skiff on the pool at this place, when the boat tipped to one side and they were precipitated into the water. Sheriff GRIFFIS, party, or principles, others have inand another gentleman, happening to see the accident, procured a boat, and went to their assistance. The little girl when taken out of the water, was unconscious and Mr. WEBB was considerably fatigued from his exertions in keep-ing himself and the little girl from sink-ing. The girl was taken to her home where the proper remedies were appli-ed, and she is again quite well.-Brad. Reporter.

The King of Prussia cannot have enjoyed himself during his recent tour in South Germany. In a great many places they did not even take off their hats to him. At Frankfort it was still worse. He went to see the ruins of the cathedrel. The firemen were throwing water on the heaps of smouldering embers. Accidentally, of Jourse, one of them turned the pipe which he was holding in the direction of King William drenching him in an instant.

Last Sunday, Dr. J. B. Graves while driving, in Caton near Abel-Wilcox had a narrow escape from severe injury or death. The bolt which held the whiffletree of the buggy came out, and struck the horse's heels. The horse ran one hundred rods and one side strap break ing the buggy was overturned throwing out Dr. Graves. He was considerably bruised by the fall, but not seriously hurt.--Corning Journal.
