I was littler than I am now. At a very early period of my life My mother used often to take me A walking in the garden, And she wud tell me stories Uv. you, my sweet and sour tomatuses! She said when mock-granges was little known, Folks sit you on mantle-piece for ornament, · Along with them, and called you Jerusalem apples!

O tomattuers! What makes you so good and Sweet and sour, with your red Checks shinin among the green Lieves, and lookin as remptin As you kin? Some of you iz Smooth, like a apple, and Like a Cut better a need

Some of you has knownes in you Otomattures! do you know you My Kalemel in you, cauf to salivate Some folks that has used halomet Dis-To much before? I discovered that, And you kin regulate the bowels too. . "O Jerusalam apple tomatture -!

Did you ever five before the flud. And when Adam and Eve were little boys! Did you go on the banks of the Knile. When the masterdon used for to cum Out sout grass, with his hand hige The the water ! Did he turn you up With his ponderous snoot and go away

Xnd leave you like the dew's abomination, Called a horg, duz now-a-daye? That wad be hard to tell. What's the reason no animal cats you Except man, and chickens, and sich? I don't no. Mabbe it's the kalomel. The man who first kanned you Deserves to be Emperor of Mexico, Of it was safe!

BASE BALL.—The Titusville Herald says: Base ball is raging fearfully throughout the oil region; sparing neither age nor condition. We eathase ball, talk it, and actit. The other night one of the deacons of a church in Franklin, winding up fi petition to the Throne of Grace, said: "Oh, Lord, as we start for a home run to Glory, don't let us by the devil be caught on the fly!"

EVERY SATURDAY. - This popular Weekly presents its readers just those portions of European current literature which every intelligent American wishes and needs to see. Omitting the heavier papers, discussions of topics of local interest, it gathers from all sources the wadable and instructive articles which express the best current thought of Eng-land and the Continent, and with the atmost promptness places them before American readers. Any good story, any popular sketch or essay, any interesting semi-scientific paper, any striking poem, or literary intelligence appearing in a European periodical, is sure to reappear speedily in the pages of Every Saturday. It is published by Ticknor and Fields, Boston.

Anybody who entertained a lingering executed in the best manner and with dispatch doubt of the disloyalty of the Dem-ocratic party, might have had his doubte dispelled the other evening, when the Copperheads held a mass meeting in Baltimore to ratify the new Maryland Constitution. One of the speakers, who began by declaring that the negro had "no rights except what the white man those to give him as privileges," wound up with the appropriate boast that his sympathics during the war had always been with -"the Rebel army." Among the sentiments which appeared most grateful to the assemblage was this: "Little Phil. to. fight indians, and Stanton to rule them. fill Davis and Wilkes Booth.

It is not bften that the Tribian lots the ale of Sit's prettier hit than this: "A Democratic journal remarks that "the Republicans attribute the losses to their party in Maine to increase tove of whiskey; we rather deem it an increased love of Democratic principles." Here is a distinction without a differonce; for we all know that-as the market reporters say-when whiskey is casy Democracy is firm, and whenever run is quoted free the voters of this fuith are tight and in good demand.

Hon. Simon Cameron has written a letter stating that he has "no intention of resigning his scatin the United States Senate in order that Secretary Stanton appointed his successor. He eave "Mr. Stanton is not a citizen of Pennsylvania, and has not resided in it for more than ten years. Much as I like him, if there were no other reason, I could not ignore all the men who have so faithfully sustained me, if I desired to leave the Senate. But I do not desire to leave it, and would, under no circumstances, accept any other place under the government."

A Southern paper the other day ad nunistered a most crushing rebuke to our of the gentlemen who is in the habit of indulging in the bluster about tighting ugain in case of a defeat at the polls. It said:

"Why didn't you fight when fighting could be of some use? You who blustered while we fought are very ready to renew the battle. We who fought while you swaggered have had quite enough of it."

General Canby, who was sent to Charleston to replace General Sickles; because the latter was too loyal, turns out to be a man of the same kind. He has directed that all the orders issued by Gen. Sickles shall-remain in full force, and declares that the course he pursued was the very best that could have been adopted. Johnson will have to try his hand at another change in that Department.

THE Lynchburg (Va.) News of the 28th ult., is openly for repudiating the war debt of the nation; and quotes with approval Vallandigham's speech and articles from the Cincinnati Enquirer and other Democratic papers.

Let the people watch the signs of a

"ADVERTISER" BINDERY.-Louis Kies of this well known bindery, has recently leased and fitted up a room at the head of the stairs, second story, opposite the Assessor's office, for an office and the convenience of customers having work to be done. Some one will always be in attendance to receive callcrs and impart information. To those who have mounted up two flights, of stairs, to their great discomfort this improvement will be feelingly apparent. Mr. Kies also informs us, that he has now unusual facilities for doing work connected with the bindery promptly, and in any style to suit customers, and in finish to equal or compare favorably with the finest New York work. He is supplied costly and claborate machinery to very much facilitate all the purposes of blank book making or general book binding. Specimens of work and style may be seen at any time by calling at his office. He intends to make this the Bindery of the Southern Tier, and Mr. Kies is not one of those, who often fails in carrying out intentions.
