LECTURE AT BLOSSBURG.-Our fellow-townsman, Maj. Nichols, delivered an in- down his neighbor atonce and turned the cows teresting lecture on "the Poetry of Irish Song," into his corn to gratify his malice. Unfortunately, at Blossburg, Oct. 26, ultimo. The lecture is the cornfields of the neighbor's joined, and the highly spoken of by capable judges, and having fence was insufficient to stop cattle. So the sinheard it we can well understand that the audience was well entertained. The Major is well posted in song and story.

GLAD OF IT.—Several of our exchanges are cudgeling a "ring" of speculators who bought up all the whisky in the country and then got the government tax increased on the manufacture of the article. We see nothing out of the way in that transaction. It is a gouge game from protest, and the payer supposing the rampart beginning to end, and why not let the "ring" make

FIRE.—About half-past nine, Sunday night, our citizens were aroused by an alarm, of rel with your neighbors; or if you do, don't cut a are, and on reaching the streets the Methodist stick to lather your own back. Church was discovered to be in flames. The wind was blowing a smart gale from the north-west, thing to write for a newspaper. Not at all. It MISERABLE HUMBUG.—We see it stated that the Washington Monument Association is about to renew its attack upon the public purse. It now proposes to memorialize Congress upon the subject, and ask an appropriation to complete the magnificent swindle. We object-havmg invested about forty dollars in the concern some years ago-to any further humbugging on that line. In the beginning it is got up to malary Peter Force, and other notables, and to keep a dozen others out of the poor-house. Put a keg of powder under the concern and end it .--

We object to northern contributions to support decared F. F. V's. THE CELEBRATION .- The Democracy elebrated the "victory over Radical principles" Thursday evening in a very moderate style. The usual amount of gunpowder was exploded but we much doubt if the usual amount of "strongwater' was consumed. Certainly the Court · House was not lighted up, and of course there were no speeches, and therefore no enthusiastic pplause to report. There was no gathering of fins, no bustle in the streets-nothing save the everlasting "anvil-chorus" which accompanies all Wellsboro jollifications, without distinction of party. We regret the failure, not because we like to be exulted over, but for the grave reason that it is pretty certain that our opponents will not have another chance to crow for many years. It was their right to jollify this fall. In fact, the result in New York justified "a big thing" in the way of rejoicing. But the fates ruled adversely to the contration of Thursday hight. It was a case of cure by counter irritation—the public mind being swallowed up in another excitement, quito the reverse in its nature. We believe there was a banquot prepared, may-be cateu, though of that we have no report. We hope and pray, and also a large stock to select from.

will do our utmost to that end, that the occasion Corning, N. Y., Nov. 13. J. A. Prayana & Co. for another celebration of the sort may neveratise until that party changes its principles for the DISTRESSING CASUALTY. -On Friday, both inct., a little boy of twenty-one or twentytwo months, son of Mr. William Clemens, of Charleston, drank a quantity of boiling water do a the spout of the leakottle on the Kitchen 1.10. 1988 taken the fire away. The little fellow; unobarried, seized upon the spout of the boiling tea- and be sure of getting value for their maney by ketile and swallowed a small quantity of the ontents. The unfortunate child was hemarkably ght and much given to imitating the actions of , r people; and no doubt had seen some ontink from the spout of a tea-pot. It is one of these painful accidents which wound and warn the same time. Children should never be per-rited to handle any utentil used about a store. re it can be done children should be kept re it can be used.
