OBITUARY.—It is with deep regret that we chronicle the sudden death of Albert Willis, Esq., of Ridgway, Elk County, which occurred on the morning of Saturday, Nov. 23d. Mr. Willis was a native of Delaware county, N. Y., studied law in the office of Earl Wheeler, came associated with Hon. Henry Souther, of Ridgway, in the law business, and at the time of his death the firm was one of the utost prosperous House of Refuge.

and reliable law firms in Northern Pennsylvania. Mr. Willis was one of the purest minded mon t was our good fortune ever to know. It may the truly said of him that he possessed not only the virtue of strict integrity, but the bloom and fruitage thereof; for he was honorable as well as honest. There was little alloy in the pure gold of his character. With him generosity was overpaced with prosperity. He was unselfish and true-hearted, intelerant of duplicity and meanness: a man whose loves were anchored in his soul. It may truly be said of him that the world was the better for his living in it.

THE COURTS.—A heavy business was prepared for the Over & Turminer last week, though but a portion of it was finally disposed of. The Grand Jury did a large stroke of business however, and proved to be something higher and better than many of its predecessors. The cases which excited the greatest interest were those of Commonwealth vs. Ives, Fitch, Kilburn and others charged with arson and attempt at burglary in Brookfield, a history of which we gave some weeks ago; and that of Comwth vs. Hatfield, Green, and Russels for conspiracy and arson. The Grand Jury returned trug bills in both cases. The latter case, which became public on the 13th o November, created a great excitement in this region, and still maintains its supremacy among criminal revelations hereabout. We have refraiged from giving currency to the facts elicited up to this time, not desiring either to increase the excitement or obstruct the proceedings. The case is now in the Courts, and nothing that we can say will defeat the ends of justice or increase prejudice. On the morning of the 12th of July last, the house of Mr. A. Russel, at the steam grist mill, about two miles east of Wellsboro, was destroyed by fire, as alleged, with all its contents. Upon this building was an insurance of $800 in the Wyoming Insurance Co., of Wilksbarre, and upon the furniture was an insurance of $1000 in he same Company. This insurance was effected through Theodore Hatfield, an agent of the Company, and residing in Wellsboro. The fire was regarded as not an "honest" fire, from the first, ly a great many people. The house was not thought to be worth, intrinsically, $100, being cheaply built and dilapidated. The general agent of the Company, Mr. W. T. Reed, came on to inspect and adjust the loss. His, suspicions were aroused early in the work of inspection. A large/quantity of crockery, alleged to have been destroyed, was not to be found in the ruing, though Russel alleged that the children therenbout had carried it off. Mr. Reed examined the par Mies separately, but could get hold of nothing definite to carry his suspicions to fact. He therefore adjusted the loss, and after taking some steps to watch the affair, returned to Wilkesbarre. It is proper to say here, that suspicion rested equally upon Hatfield in the mind of the agent. And he instituted measures to bring the facts to was ascertained that the furniture alleged to have been destroyed was still in existence, having been carefully boxed and stored in a loft attached to the Mill. Information was at once ledged with Shades and Miss Frances A. Lamb, of Westfield, Pa.

Lift BLADES & CO. Prop'rs, Emission, N.Y. which characterize him, proceeded to verify the facts. The goods were found as represented, and Mr. Reed came on at once and took charge of the Mary P., wife of Silas Staples, aged 57.

The state of the free thing the first of the matter. On the 13th of November a search warrant was issued by Justice Browster, and the Sheriff, with Mr. Reed and his attorney, M. F. Elliott, Esq., proceeded to execute the warrant. Before setting out, however, Russel was arrestedas he came into town, and placed in custody. The Sheriff and his party, having arrived at the mill arrested Mrs. Russel. Overcome by the suddenness of the affair, she at once confessed to the hiding of the goods, and to other facts which led to the subsequent arrest of Hatfield and Thomas Green. The goods were found in the left in good order. The hearing was before Justice Brewster, of this village. Russel, overwhelmed with shame, made a clean breast of the whole matter. His testimony, which is described to us as bearing the impress of truth, implicates Hatfield and Green as the originators of the conspiracy to defraud the Company, he, Russel, binding himself to share the proceeds with them-a contract which he alleges that he performed. Russel and his wife were bailed, and Hatfield and Green were committed in default of bail. Hatfield's case has been continued to next term, in the absence of a naterial witness. (The thanks of all good citizens are due to Mr. Reed, Gen. Agent of the Wyoming Insurance Company and to Sheriff Tabor, for their prompt-Firing to retain their pows should leave their ness in bringing this iniquity to light. The hames with Dr. Webb, Secretary of the Vestry; guilt of some of the parties is yet to be proved. of course; and far be it from us to makelit more difficult work for the defence than it is likely to prove. But if these parties be guilty the object of twenty-four hours. It is said that the quality is justice, and the repute of Tioga County demands that they should be condiguly punished. The reputation of Tioga County for enforcing the law for the punishment of crime is not good-we 10gret to say it-but it is not good. If houses and barns, and goods are to be sold to Insurance Companies, with impunity, how long will insurance Companies consent to insure the property of men who do not contemplate such irregular sales? We can only hope that the demand for plied with. But there must be-there can be no hushing up of this matter except by the conviction or discharge of the parties by a jury.

The case of the Com'wth vs. Titus Ives, Solonon Kilburn, and Daniel Fisk, came on Friday, and attracted much attention.; The defendants were charged with burning the barn of Capt H. B. Seeley, of Brookfield, on the night of the 12th of August last, and afterward attempting to rob his house. We gave the details of this case at the time, and may be excused from repeating it in full. Suffice it to say, that Capt. Seeley had his suspicions directed to Fisk as a party-concerned in the burning, and a few days after the event, charged him with having set the fire. Confronted York election, Jury Commissioner Bailey and with the charge Fisk confessed to having set the Sheriff Tabor laid a wager on the result. in this fire at the instance of Ives and Kilburn, and furwise: If the State went Republican Mr. Bailey | ther admitted that there was a plan to rob the was to wear a steeple-crowned, Swiss hat, labeled Captain when he got the insurance. The Capin a cordance with the fact, during one day of thin arranged with Fisk to carry out the selame, Court week; and if the State went the other way and on a stated night Ives and Kilburn came to the Sheriff was to wear the hat. Accordingly on the window of a room where Seeley and Fisk Wednesday of last week, the Shoriff appeared on wore concealed. Capt. Seeley usement of the crowd. The Sheriff enjoyed the at once fired at the head of the nearest, severely wounding Kilburn in the face. The parties were pursued and arrested, and on a hearing before a Justice, were held to answer at the next term of the county Court. It was pretty well known that a gang of criminals infested that portion of the county and the neighborhood over the State line, and it was de termined that the whole affair should be thoroughly investigated. Shoriff Tabor took the matter in hand, and engaged the services of Mr. A. W. Chappelle, an experionced detective from Rochester and a confederate whose name we cannot give, who with Detective Mulloy, of New York, proceeded to work up the case. Detective Chappelle located in the suspected neighborhood. The others were also busy. Some singular facts was called in, and on examination found the relating to the trouble in Brookfield and vicinity were brought to light, but must remain in safe severe bruises upon his body. He is doing well. custody for the present. Enough evidence of the guilt of the parties charged with burning and robbery was obtained. When the case came on Fisk entered a plea of guilty and was remanded. Ives and Kilburn plended "not guilty," and put themsette: on trut. The evidence was reasonably conclusive as to the guilt of the parties from the admission of Kilburn; scarcely less so in the testimony of Seeley and others. But when Detective Chappel took the stand the guilt of Ives became manifest to the observer, even before the witness was aworn. His testimony was clear, and satisfactory as to the guilt of the prisoners, he having been taken into Ives's confidence, as well as into the confidence of Ives's friends. The evidence for the defence could hardly be said to hold water. And when 11. the case went to the jury, District Attorney Niles 16, asked the Court to increase the bail of the accused. This was done, and no response being ingde, the prisoners were remanded to the custody of the Sheriff. The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and on Saturday Judge Williams sentenced the 21 Esq., Honesdalo, Wayne County, in this State, and on Saturday Judge Williams sentenced the 21, and was admitted to practice in the Courts of that prisoners as follows: Iyes, three years and ten months in 1853. Is your mind canstantly dwelling upon this subject?—Do you feel duil, listless, moping, tried of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or lump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brigliant? The bloom on your check as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well?—Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spill to duil and flagging, given to lits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, selfabulse, venered diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect, health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defant, energiate, por severing, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You here hear-such nice complain of being melancholy, of nervolishess, of palpitation of the heart. They are never affaid they cannot succeed in business; they don't hear hear the fail they cannot succeed in business; they don't hear hear who keep the organs enflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin the constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men from badly-cired diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other of disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections.
