And we congratulate the poor who may be domiciled there, on falling into the hands of a man who will do all that an honest and humane man can do to'smooth the troubled waters of dependent life.

PENMANSHIP .- our friend, Mr. Chas. W. Palmer, of Sullivan, sends us some specimens "the trumphs with the pen which certainly do him with credit. Both in plain and funcy penmanship Mr. Palmer excels. If his object is to Shortu classes, He can recommend him to the public as A. Ko. I, and we hope that he may find ample enequiagement in the way of patronage. We indge him to be a rapid writer. His fancy writing is very beautiful.

RICHARDSON'S BOOK-"Beyond the Missistipper—naido from the information it contains, is an altern or net. More than we not seed-out mobilish its pages, some of them nearly equal to steel. As a history of the early roublewiff Kansas it is very interesting. Dr. C. k. Thompson, is canvassing for the book, and we commend him to the patronage of all who want a book worth all it costs.

Aldeged Slander.—Some person who does not subscribe his name, or date from anywhere, sends us a letter branding the account of the assault upon Mr. Crofut by Mr. Gee, in ast week's Agitutor, as "an infamous slander." One who does not date from anywhere, and does net regard his ne of weight enough to sign it to his letter, is not, strictly speaking, entitled to credit. But our aim is to give all a fair hearing. This anonymous relator asserts that Crofut hired a horse of Gee to meet the stage on the Tioga mad, and kept the horse two days. That Gee hove the team on the occasion referred to last reck: that Geo only struck his own horse first then struck Crofut's; and that Crofut then tried to put Gee out of the wagon, when Geo "licked him soundly." That Crofut hallooed back to And finally, that nobody that knows Gee believes be ever took a cent of Crofut's money. We are referred to ex-Sheriff Tabor, and Shoriff Potter as Geo's character. We need no references. Mr. ice's character previous to this affair was good magh as far as we know. But he should not have run away from the officers of the law. That ...oks badly. Mr. Gee has now told his story, exept that his defender claims that Mr. Crofut was

Mr. Seeley removed, with his parents, from Lindley, Steuben Co., N. Y., into the Cowanesqu elley, in the year 1799. The family consisted of hine, and located in what is now Deerfield. The father creeted a cabin of bark set against a large Pine log, and there lived for a year, and a shalf lle then built a log house, and they lived in it in first winter without a floor, there being neither " nor grist mill nearer than Painted Post. As substitute for a gristmill used a stump, hollowed at by fire as a mortar, with a spring postle. In is they pounded their, samp for bread and adding timber for two years. After a while viral of the settlers clubbed together and purused a pair of millstones out two feet in ameter, which we turned by hand. This was

About this time one echer Aut up a grist mill at Beecher's Island, at twelve miles distant from Mr. Sceley's ice, the country being a dense forest for twenty des castward, and no house between the Knox am and Lawrencoville. At first only corn was town. This lasted seven or eight years, when us, rye and wheat began to be sowed. Mr. ing very plenty, as well as deer. His principal sie was the howling of wolves. AYÉR'S Cherry Pectoral Is a soothing expectorant, prepared to meet the ur-gent need of a safe and reliagent need of a safe and reliable cure for diseases of the throat and lungs. A trial of many years has established the fact, that it is more efficacious in pulmonary affections, than any other remedy. Its efficacy has now become so generally known, that it is justly regarded in many countries as a medicine of indispensable necessity. In Great Britain, France, and Germany, where medical science has reached its highest perfection, it is prescribed in domestic practice, and constantly used in the armics, in hospitals and other public institutions, where it is regarded by the attending physicians as the most speedy and agreeable remedy that can be employed. Scarceattending, physicians as the most speedy and agreeable remedy that can be employed. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found where well known cases of diseased lungs, which had baffled the efforts of the most skillful and experienced doctors, have been completely cured by it. These results are the most convincing proofs of the superior curative properties of this preparation; and to them the authors point with peculiar satisfaction. While it is most newarful results convincing the convention of the superior curative properties. isfaction. While it is mest powerful against con-firmed discases, it is extremely gentle as a medi-cine in infancy and youth, being quite harmless to even the youngest, when administered judi-

This health-restorer accomplishes even more by prevention than ours. If taken in season, it heals all irritations of the threat and lungs, whether arising from Colds or Coughs, or from other causes, and thus prevent that long train of painful and incurable diseases, which would arise from the neglect of them. Hence no family should be without it. Influenza, Cropp, Hoarseness, Whooping Cough, Pleurisy, Incipient Consumption, and other affections of the breathing organs, give way before this pre-eminent combi-nation of medical virtues.
