Well, as the night of Thursday closed in with aed up the chimney in a great shout of definice the rising gale and drifting snow-did we, or we not, all think of the possibility of the exence of some house, somewhere, with broken undows, and little ath and plaster, and open andows, and little fath and plaster, and open of the bride's father in Blossburg, by the Rev. It swould do it. It is murderers of us all? Are we less than murderers if we waste what would keep somebody from starving and freezing?

-And Christmus is coming. But in thousands of homes its coming and going will hardly be known. Where do you think the children of the poor get their toys for Christmas? Where do they get their nice picture-books, and the warm stockings, and the comfortable shoes? We are afraid that Santa Claus does not visit the children of the poor. Perhaps the chimneys are too narrow for his jully form; or perhaps the poor children have no stockings to hang up; or, if they have stockings, there are holes in them, so that they will not hold the toys, and the picture-books, and so forth. Among THE HUMBUGGERS. - Mr. Kurtz, of the Bellefonto Press, has been on a trip to New York; and while in that city visited several of the Gift Enterprise concerns which do a rushing business in that city. He did this in the interest of some friends who had purchased tickets and received notice that they had drawn a prize, each. First he called upon the"Merchants, and Banker's "concern, widely known as strictly honorable parties, on their own representations. The prize drawn was valued at $200, and proved to be that amount in defunct oil stock. Kuita did not secure the prize, not being ready to pay the five per cent on that valuation which was demanded. He next visited the spacious 739 concern of Wright Brothers & Co., with a ticket purporting to call for a valuable watch, worth He brings to the position capital business talent, $110. Next he wont to the munificent Arandale's-the grand depot for jewelry-and presented a ticket calling for a fine sett of gentleman's jewelry, worth, as alleged, $20. This proved worthless, and our contemporary departed empty-handed. His conclusion is, that there is not a man, or a farm, in New York, able to sell $100 gold watches for $10, or $600 pianos for $30. We are glad to get this confirmation of our own suspicious. We got taken in and done for several years ago, when Gift Enterprises were in their lamb-hood. Some body out West sent us an advertisement of a Land Scheme, tickets $1-and farms tolerably certain. prepared to meet the ur-gent need of a safe and reliale cure for diseases of the iront and lungs. A trial of many years has esthroat and lungs. A trial of many years has es-tablished the fact, that it is more efficacious in pulmonary affections, than any other remedy. Its efficacy has now become so generally known, that it is justly regarded in many countries as a medicine of indispensable necessity. In Great Britain, France, and Germany, where medical Britain, France, and Germany, where medical socience has reached its highest perfection, it is prescribed in domestic practice, and constantly used in the armies, in hospitals and other public institutions, where it is regarded by the attending physicians as the most speedy and agreeable remedy that can be employed. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found where well known-cases of diseased lungs, which had baffied the efforts of the most skillful and experienced doctors, have been completely cured by it. These doctors, have been completely cured by it. These results are the most convincing proofs of the superior curative properties of this preparation; and to them the authors point with peculiar satisfaction. While it is most powerful against confirmed diseases, it is extremely gentle as a medicine in infancy and youth, being quite harmless to even the youngest, when administered judiciarshy

This health-restorer accomplishes even more by prevention than curd. If taken in season, it heals all irritations of the throat and, lungs, whether arising from Colds or Coughs, or from other causes, and thus prevent that long train of painful and incurable diseases, which would arise from the neglect of them. Hence no family should be without it. Influenza, Croup, Hoarseness Whooning Cough, Pleurisy, Inginient Conness, Whooping Cough, Plearisy, Incipient Con-sumption, and other affections of the breathing rgans, give way before this pre-eminent combination of medical virtues.
