DONATION PARTY.—A donation visit lace at the M. E. Church, Mansfield Pa., on the evening of Friday Jan, 31st 1868. TEMPERANCE MEETING.

The friends of Temperance Reform and the pub-

he generally, are invited to attend a Meeting to be holden in the Court House, Tuesday evening, Jan. 28, inst. Addresses will be made by A. S. Brewster, Esq., Revs, J. L. Calkins and O. L. Gibson, Maj. Merick, and others. Let there be a full attendance the occasion will be of unusual interest.

REVIVALS .- The Methodists and Pre-byterians of this village are holding nightly meetings at their respective places of worship, each necessful in awakening considerable intereshin their congregations. Good—Dr. Pratt, of the Corning

Journal, announces that he is about to enlarge that paper to 8 columns. We are glad to note the evidence of deserved prosperity. The Jourand is among our most valued exchanges, and the best local paper on our list.

A BIG LOAD .- From Mr. Peter Douglas, Scaler at Phelps Mills, we learn that Mr. J E. English recently hauled a load of logs measuring 3791 feet with one team and bobsled. This was on William W. & J. E. English's log job. Lather hard to beat, we guess.

RAILROAD MATTERS .- Henry Sherwood, Esq., of this place, has been elected President of the Wellsboro and Lawrenceville Railroad company, in the place of Humphries Brewer, deceased. Mr. Sherwood will bring to the Company well-trained energies and a disposition to forward the construction of the road not less tavorable than those which characterized Mr.

No TIME.—The McKean Miner, in a late number says that it is not often that it finds time to notice the thousand and one medical preparations on sale. Yet in its local column of the same number it has seven puffs of seven different medical humbugs. If w much time does our cotemporary want to notice poor whisky preparations in its editorial columns?

SELLING OUT.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that our tewnsman, Mr. F. D. Bunnel, is about to remove to Elkland, and take charge of the Hotel at that entizen of untiring energy, and Wellsboro will means proportioned to his zeal for progress and improvement, he would build up any town in a 'year. Success to him.

STATE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION .-A Convention of the friends of Temperance will be held in the Court House at Harrisburg, commencing Tuesday, February 18, 1867 at 10 o'clock forenoon. The railroads will carry delegates to the Convention at half fare. Pastors of Churches are requested to give notice of this Convention to their congregations. All temperance organizations and thurches are requested to send as many deligates as they may think proper. The State Temperanco Union will hold its annual Session during the same week. Let it be a rouser.

assuring our Republican friends that our opponents are making great efforts to control the election boards wherever they can do it, and by any thems within their power. Their leader in the Etate has recommended the drawing of party lines in the elections to take place on Friday. We must meet the enemy on the ground chosen. If they want to draw the lines let us accommodate them. And remember, whenever they profit by the magnanimity of Republicans they will claim it as "a Democratic Victory," and trumpet it all over the State. keep them in their places and hold them level. WEIGHT OF GRAIN, &c .- We are obliged to John I. Mitchell, Esq., for the follow ing table of standard weights of the various gams, and produce. It is compiled from the latest statutes of the Commonwealth:

Clover Seed, 2. larmers will save themselves trouble by cutting this out and preserving it for reference. AN OLD SETTLER.-We are indebted to Col. Emery for a copy of the Lycomilia Gaatte, dated December 13, 1809 It is about one bouth the size of The Agitator, and chiefly devoted to unscated land sales, county statements, and torego news. First under the editorial head is the Marriage notice of Henry Harris and Nancy Wrathmell, following which is a volumnious petion to the Legislature for the location of the sent of Government at Bellefonte. Across the bottom of the third page is the statement of the Commisstoners of Tioga county in account with Samuel W. Morris, Treasurer, showing a credit of $525,81 in his favor, against a debit of $132,69-leaving the county in debt to Mr. Morris in the sum of 493,12. The statement is signed by Nathan Niles and Ira Kilburn, Commissioners, and attested by John Norris, Clerk. A comparison of the Treasurer's business for the year 1809 with that of 1867 presents a striking contrast. The war, and the progress of the county, during a period of 62 years, are represented in the last tatement, as against the county but a step removed from a state of nature. The Gazette was in its third volume, and bears the name of W. Brindle as Printer.

THE KEENEYVILLE MAIL ROBBERY .-

felt it to be dangerous to entrust valuable packages to the mails on that route, and Judgo Humphrey undertook the case long ago; but the, theft was carried on so chillfully as to baffle his efforts until recently. He persisted, with his well known perseverance, and as we stated some weeks ago, brought the offender to justice. On or about the 3d of November last, two packages of stamps all in the secret, sent them along. The package for l'armington Hill, directed to Reuben T. Hall, was not ordered by him, and not being expected directed to Postmaster Hall. He then visited Keeneyville again and found another slight of the next of all juvenite Mugazines. The publish-stamps with his mark upon it. The parties were be offered microscope, or a good two-bladed arrested and taken before F. E. Smith, Esq., Commissioner, and Mrs. Keeney, appearing from the evidence to be the chief actor in the business, was held to answer in the sum of $1000. The case was one requiring the best detective ability to work up, and reflects much credit upon the skill of Detective Humphrey, Gossip,-"I had supposed," writes a friend, "that a gossiper was some sort of a slanlerer, and that goesip was some sort of slander. But your "Gossip" seems not at all like slander, and I have thought that you could better call it 'Chat." We assure our friend that he is in error. Cossip, per se, is never slanderous, though the would define it, relates to that class of neighborhood events which does not usually get; into the public prints. For example: Aunt Sally, having licked up the kitchen and dusted the furniture of the inhabited portion of her house, puts on her bonnet and drops in upon Mrs. Jones. "Good I thought I'd drop in and have a chat." "I'm glad to see you, 'I'm 'surc," says Mrs. Jones; how's Belinda Jane?" "Poorly," says Aunt Sally ; "the measles has been very hard on her; and its wonderful how much sha has had to suffer, poor girl. First she had the chicken pox, then the nettle rash, and now the measles. I expect she will be down with the mumps soon." "Have you heard from Mary Smith to-day?" asks Mrs. Jones. "Mary Smith that was, I supose you mean," says Aunt Sally; ,"she that has parried Bill Simons. They say she's in a galloping consumption. Poor thing ! And Nancy Duke has got another baby-which in the sixth in seven years, you know. Her mother had thirteen children before the was forty." "Have, m tried Stebbins's Koung Hyson yet? asks Mrsones; "they say it's the best in fown." I' got a rawing of it last night." says Aunt Sally, "and ast stepped in to ask you to come over and try t this afternoon." "Be stre I'll come," says Mrs. Jones. "Well, I'll go home now," says Aunt Sally, "for Belinda Jane will want her broth. Good morning." Now, that's what we call gossip, friend. Lyling's nobody, and seldon gets into the papers. "Slander, however, is very different. traffer thumnles, for example, hearing that Mr. Ripple his nobody, and seldon gets into the papers. "Slander, however, is very different. traffer thumnles, for example, hearing that Mr. Ripple his nobody, and seldon gets into the papers. "Slander, however, is very different. traffer thumnles, for example, hearing that Mr. Ripple his noighbor, is noted for industry and minding his own business, conceives a great hatred for him and determines to pull him down a peg. Says of the state of the papers of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as faithful to him? Any business to mind; and Ripple is entitled to no credit for, it. If I had any business to mind! could do it as well as he."

So Gaffer Chinneles says to neighbor Shooks: "This Ripplb is no better than he should be signed to the stream of the should be signed to the says to neighbor Shooks: "This Ripplb is no better than he should be as good of the striate of the paper of the paper of the stream of the says don't believe he ever spent an hour and a grocery or bar-room in his life. Something wrong at the Ripple I'll be sworn."

"It's none of my buspess," says Snooks, "what Mr. Ripple does with his money. He carns it, I suppose, and it's his'n to spend. He minds his business and I mind mine:" So Gaffer conceives a hatred for Snooks, Snap, and Cammon. to all of whom he communicates his suspicions of Rips. of whom he communicates his suspicions of Rip-

SABBATH SCHOOL EXCURSION AND FESTIVAL.—A season of social enjoyment was provided for the Sabbath School of the Eaptist Church of Tioga, on Wednesday, 9th in t. by th Teachers and friends of the Scholars. The Schoo assembled at the Church, where alright in rooting readingss, and about 10½ o'clock a procession of sight well filled vehicles was formed, accompanied by the Cornet Band of our Borough. And, by ne way, we find the Band an essential to com ritete success on like occasions of festivity.

A banners sypressed the design of the organi ation in the sentence "Feed my lamber" while the intimate association of religious principle with political priffilege and duties was exhibited in the waving folds of our national emblem. The party proceeded to Lawrenceville and returned to the R. R. Depot:

Music, general joy, and hearty welcomes by spectators combined to entwine evergreens in the memories of all participating. Local Trade THE AMERICAN COOKING STOVE

No article of furniture requires more care in selecting than a Cooking Stove. Among the great variety in the market and the strong rec ommendation of each, by interested parties, those not familiar with the operation of Stoves are liable to make poor selections; white each may have some good points, nearly all nave some serious defects. The improved Amplican Hat Air Cooking Stove, manufactured by Spear, Packard & Co., of Albany, N. Y., is the most complete inull its arrangements of any stove yet produced. The manufacturers have epired no points or expense to make this stove perfection itself, and they have succeeded admirably: It meets the approbation of the people lired hour the com-
