PERSONAL.—Gen. Jas. Carle has reported for duty at Hillsboro, North Carolina, where he has established the Headquarters of the Freedmen's Bureau for four counties.

THANKS.—We had the pleasure and the profit of meeting many of our patrons last week, and of adding a goodly number of new names to our circulation.

DEFERRED.—The great length of the County Statement, and the proceedings in court, force us to defer the publication of several interesting local matters, among which is a capital letter from "Pat." We shall endeavor to catch up next week.

The Second Quarterly meeting of the Tioga Baptist Association will be held with the East Sullivan Church on the second Wednesday in Feb. at 10 o'clock A. M. Rev. C. A. Stone will preach the opening sermon.

Contributions for the Education Society. Tioga Feb 3d 1868   E. T. Bentley, Clerk.

Mr. G. W. King writes us from Dixon, Scott Co., Iowa, Jan. 19, that but two inches of snow had fallen in that region up to that time. We are obliged to him for a copy of the Davenport Gazette, a large and ably conducted paper.

PROMOTED.—We are glad to see that our friend Lieut. H. J. Ripley, of the 32d U. S. Infantry, now stationed at Camp Goodwin, Arizona Territory. This is an honor to be proud of. Capt. Ripley is a native of Richmond township.

ADMITTED.—Maj. Geo. W. Merrick was last week admitted to practice in the several courts of Tioga County. The Major passed an excellent examination, as we learn, and deserves, as it is our sincere wish that he may receive, professional success.

FOUND.—A lady's gold locket pin, on the Court House steps. The owner can have the same on application to Judge Williams.

"THE TRIBUNE."—All those who wish to avail themselves of the offer we made two weeks ago for the Tribune should call upon us, or send their money to this office at once. This opportunity to secure the largest and ablest newspaper in this country for $1,10 a year will not soon again present itself.

We desire to close our list by one week from to-day (Feb 12.). Any persons in the neighboring townships sending us the names of five subscribers and $5.50, will receive the papers at their post-office. Ten names and $11 will secure ten copies for one year.

Active Republicans in the several election districts will do well to canvass their neighborhoods at once. The offer will be withdrawn on the 1st of March.

THE TEMPERANCE MEETING.—The temperance meeting held pursuant to notice at the Court House, Tuesday evening week, was the largest, most enthusiastic, and impressive, of any that has ever come under our notice. The opening address, by Alexander S. Brewster, Esq., constituted one of the most effective appeals for sobriety ever made in that Court House. Plain, unpretending, without an effort for mere effect, the address was a model of English composition, and full of the pathos which springs from earnest convictions. His relation of individual experience was full of humor, and was loudly applauded.

Maj. Brewster was followed in a neat speech by Maj. Merrick, full of argument and showing a determination to advocate Man's enfranchisement from the bonds of Excess worthy of high praise. He was followed by Rev. O. L. Gibson in an address full of force and fire, and of great effect upon the crowded assembly. He wielded a sword of two edges, and spared neither seller nor drinker. The closing address was by Rev. J. F. Calkins, who put a few questions in the opening which were so neatly answered by his predecessor and others that the sarcasms went barbed to the mark aimed at. He closed by reading a dramatic poem by Dr. Nott, full of warning to the victims of Excess, and very impressively read.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the County Temperance Union, and was gracefully presided over by Judge Williams, the President of the organization. Taken in connection with the revival now in progress in this village the meeting cannot fail of lasting good to the county.

THE COURTS.—The business in the Quarter Sessions and Oyer and Terminer last week was very heavy and of unusual interest. The case of Commonwealth vs. Russel, Green, and Hatfield had long claimed and received a large share of public attention. The indictment was for burning the house of Russel to defraud the Wyoming Insurance Company. A nolle prosequi was entered against Russel by order of the Court, and the District Attorney elected to try the defendants upon the first count of the indictment, for conspiracy.

We gave a history of the case in these columns some weeks ago, omitting, however, much of the testimony of Mr. & Mrs. Russel before Justice Brewster on the hearing. We shall not rehearse that portion of the matter.

M. F. Elliott, Esq., opened for the Commonwealth, giving a graphic history of the case from its inception to the arraignment of the accused.

W. T. Reed, Esq., the General Agent of the Insurance Company was called to identify the handwriting of Hatfield and the policies of insurance upon Russel's house, furniture, &c. The amount of the insurance was $2000. He testified to the notice of loss from Hatfield, the local agent through whom the insurance was effected, and to its adjustment by himself on the 5th of last August. Both Green and Hatfield assured him that the loss was full, as stated. The loss was adjusted for $1500, cash.

Russel's testimony set forth the following facts: That Green came to his house to board, and some time in May last suggested to him that as his (Russel's) house was getting old he had better get it insured, assuring him that he, Green, had got the agents in such a shape that they must do as he said, and that Hatfield would effect the insurance. Russel finally consented. Hatfield went up to Russel's in June and after some conversation offered to insure house, barn, furniture and provisions for $2000, stipulating that he should receive $500 out of the insurance. Russel agreed to this, and Green agreed to burn the house, receiving pay for the service out of the plunder. The time of burning was fixed for the early part of July; and it was remarked that Mr. Reed would be in Wellsboro about that time, also that there was to be a fire at Blossburg about the same time. Hatfield said that Reed knew all about it, but that Russel must not "let on" to Reed that he knew it when Reed came on. Several conversations were held by Russel and Hatfield about burning the building, at different times and places. Hatfield said the house could be burned at any time. This was at the June Horse fair. He told Russel that there would be a fire at Blossburg that night. Green wanted to delay the burning a few days on account of being scorched at the Blossburg fire. Green helped hide Russel's goods in the loft of the mill. Hatfield was not present when the goods were moved, but knew of the moving; and said, when the insurance was effected, that "we must save all the goods we can." The house was burned July 12, in the morning. Hatfield had not delivered the policy to Russel up to that time, but did deliver it on that day. Hatfield told C. G. Williams, Esq., that the policy was $400, or $450; he also told Williams that he wanted to have Russel take a policy for $500, but Russel thought $400 enough. Green was at Blossburg when the house was burned. On Sunday following Hatfield visited Russel and showed him how to make out a bill of the loss. Russel made out a bill for $1000, and Hatfield told him he must make it go over $1000, that it would be all right. Green also told him that he could get some one to come 30 or 40 miles to burn the house, and that he knew of a man by the name of Danks who would take the goods off. They went to see Danks. When they got back to Wellsboro, Hatfield got into the buggy with them and said it was all humbug that the Insurance Company suspected anything. When Mr. Reed came on to adjust the loss, Hatfield told Russel that Reed would offer $1000, but that Russel must not agree to take it. Reed and Green went up and examined the premises, and the former told Russel to come down to Wellsboro in the evening. He came down and Mr. Reed gave him a draft for $1500 to satisfy the loss. It seems that shortly after Green and Hatfield went to Blossburg, the latter demanded a note of Russel for $200, saying that some had gone back on him before. Green did not want a note. The note was given. When the money came Russel paid Hatfield $200 and Green $150, and told C. G. Williams, in whose office the business was transacted, and who came in during the settlement, that it was pretty hard to pay $10 for the use of $200 for ten days. This was to blind Mr. Williams.

On Monday preceding the arrest of the parties they began to suspect that they were watched. Mr. Reed was in town, and was closeted with Mr. M. F. Elliott in his back office. Hatfield sent a man to listen at the door. He thought Reed was after him for embezzlement. Russel further stated that the first arrangement was for Green and Hatfield to pay the premium fees, and that they were both present when the application was made for insurance. On his cross examination Russel denied that there was any arrangement between him and his wife to burn the house. Green told him she was to do it, but not when. This was the day before the burning. The goods were moved at different times. They were worth $400. Green put the idea into his head sometime in May 1867; said that it was an old house and ought to be insured and burned; that he had the insurance agents where he could use them. Russel did not then agree to it, but afterward being strongly urged by Green, entered into the arrangement. When Hatfield insured him, he thought the barn ought to be insured as a blind, and that he and Green must have $500 out of the insurance money.

Mrs. Russel testified substantially as follows: That Green told her sometime in June last that he was "going to get the d—d old shell insured and burn it." When he got back from Blossburg, he told her that if the house was burned it must be done carefully; that he was suspected at Blossburg, but had got out of it. He offered to burn the house; that Mr. and Mrs. Russel might go away and he could set the fire so that it would burn in 12 hours; but that she could burn it and never be suspected. That benzine was the best, but that she would have to be smarter than he was to use it safely. The goods were moved by Green, and the Russels. She set the fire by putting paper soaked in Kerosene between the clapboards. Green got her to do it as he was suspected. No one but Green knew that she was to burn it.—The insurance on the house was $750.

Mr. John W. Bailey testified that the real worth of the house was about $50. It was twenty years old, and might cost $150 to build now. Messrs. Wm Henry, Curtis Culver, F. K. Wright, and Orrin Fenton testified similarly. Mr. Danks corroborated Russel's statement as to Russel and Green coming to his house. Messrs. Cummings, Wingate, and Johnson testified to the intimacy of the parties accused. C. G. Williams, Esq., testified that Hatfield, Green, and Russel had frequent interviews in the back room of his office, before and after the fire, Hatfield at this time occupying a part of the same building as an office. That he asked Russel what insurance he had, and Hatfield replied for him $450. After the loss was paid Russel was in the office with Hatfield and he saw money in his hands.

Evidence of the attempt of the accused to break jail was introduced. We gave the facts last week.

Mr. Reed was recalled and cross-examined. He said that Hatfield told him, after the fire, that he thought the house was worth less than the insurance.

The defence introduced but two witnesses, whose evidence did not materially affect the case.

Mr. Knowles, of Albany, N. Y., employed by the Wyoming Insurance Company, addressed the jury for the prosecution in a clear and concise argument, in which the connection of the parties accused, and the chain of events leading to the crime were logically and consecutively traced, from the hour the plan was laid by the accused to the hour of arrest.

He was followed by B. B. Strang, Esq. for the defence in a most masterly argument, in which everything that legal ingenuity could do for his clients was done, and well done. He was followed by J. Emery, Esq., who was engaged for the defence, but left the audience and the jury under the impression that he was acting for the Commonwealth.

M. F. Elliott, Esq., made the closing speech for the Commonwealth; and we but repeat the verdict of hundreds in saying that it was one of the most brilliant and effective efforts which have been made before a Tioga County jury in many years. In fact, when it is said that it ranked with Mr. Strang's plea for calm and consecutive reasoning, it is awarded high praise.

For the prosecution, Niles, Dist Attorney, Elliott, Sherwood, and Knowles. For the defence, Strang, Emery.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty against the defendants.

Friday afternoon Judge Williams sentenced culprits, as follows:

Theodore Hatfield, penitentiary,		1 year 9 mos.
Thomas Green.	do	1 year 8 mos.
D. G. Ritter.	do	1 year 3 mos.
James Wallace (horse stealing)		3 years 9 mos.
Fisk, (arson)	do	2 years 8 mos.
Mott, (larceny)	do	1 year 2 mos.

The sentencing of these six young men, but one of them past thirty, was the saddest and most impressive spectacle ever witnessed in the Court House. Let it be received as an earnest of the determination of the authorities to punish crime wherever it shall be found out, and as a solemn warning to young men who have gone out of the right way into evil paths. We congratulate the people upon the inauguration of a new order of things.

The court House was densely crowded during the trials, the gallery being filled with ladies.

The friends of Rev. G. P. Watrous are invited to attend a Donation Party at the house of E. Dewey, in Sullivan, Thursday afternoon and evening, Feb. 6, 1868. Also, at the house of Mrs. E. B. Gerould, Covington, Tuesday, 11th inst., afternoon and evening.

It is often curious to note the workings of prejudice in the human mind. If we have a dislike to the people of a country, the man who wears the costume and speaks the language of that people, is condemned in our thoughts, without judge or jury. A man with a black skin must be a very learned man, or remarkably good, to receive even a passing notice. So with the clothes and fabrics of which they are made. We do not estimate them at their true worth, but are influenced by the tickets attached. They must come from a foreign country, or have the name of a noted mill upon them. So in medicine; the remedy called Salutifer, because it is put up in a printed wrapper must encounter all the odium attached to patent medicines. But thanks to the good sense of the people in giving it a fair trial, it is fast winning its way into every family. It is so prompt and thorough in its action, so certain to relieve pain, so sure to perform all it promises to do, that it must outride the storm of prejudice and be counted among the useful things that tend to promote the public good. In almost every instance where it has been introduced it has become a necessity for the cure of Sore Throat, Croup, Quinsy, Pains, Headache, and Lameness, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, and many other diseases which are often cured and always benefitted by an outward application. Price 50 cents a bottle. Wholesale depot 54 Courtland-st New York. Sold in Wellsboro by John A. Roy.

THE AMERICAN COOKING STOVE

No article of furniture requires more care in selecting than a Cooking Stove. Among the great variety in the market and the strong recommendation of each, by interested parties, those not familiar with the operation of Stoves are liable to make poor selections; while each may have some good points, nearly all have some serious defects. The improved American Hot Air Cooking Stove, manufactured by Shear, Packard & Co., of Albany, N. Y., is the most complete in all its arrangements of any stove yet produced. The manufacturers have spared no pains or expense to make this stove perfection itself, and they have succeeded admirably. It meets the approbation of the people throughout the country, for both coal and wood, and is universally spoken of in terms of the highest praise, and no one should make a selection without giving the Improved American a careful and thorough examination, and after doing so, they cannot fail being convinced of its superiority over all others.—Corning Journal.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

ADDRESS TO THE NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED whose sufferings have been protracted from hidden causes, and whose cases require prompt treatment to render existence desirable. If you are suffering or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or flocky, or is it ropy or settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject?—Do you feel dull, listless, moping, tired of company, of life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well?—Do you pursue your business with the same energy?—Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not lay it to your liver or dyspepsia. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, venereal diseases badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bold, defiant, energetic, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—none of your downcast looks or any other meanness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin the constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—idiocy, lunacy, paralysis, spinal affections, suicide, and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a diuretic. HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU is the great Diuretic, and is a certain cure for diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsy, Organic Weakness, Female Complaints, General Debility, and all diseases of the Urinary Organs, whether existing in Male or Female, from whatever cause originating and no matter how long standing.

If no treatment is submitted to, Consumption or Insanity may ensue. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources, and the health and happiness, and that of posterity, depends upon prompt use of a reliable remedy.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU, established upward of 18 years, prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, 594 Broadway, New York, and 104 South 10th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Public Benefit.

AMONG the useful improvements of the day, there are few that give more promise of good, few so well adapted to relieve human suffering, few so well approved by the public as that new and powerful remedy called Salutifer (or as the German people call it Healthbringer).

It gives ease and comfort to the poor sufferer from Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and brings speedy relief to that large class of diseases that are often cured and always benefited by an outward application.
