Her majesty arrived in excellent health and spirits, having achieved a journey of 30,000 inles when she reached Wellsboro. She bore the at the hands of Express-Agents. That her majesty is no chicken scoms to be admitted; but their a bird of passage, and whenever she nlights, their a standing joke. As Bullard is liberal, lie will permit some one of the uninitated agents to invest two dollars in the joke at an early day. Gossip.-A friend laughs atour warning against overwork in last week's gossip. And, in some points of view, he is entitled to the saugh. We had no reference to the very large class of young men who do not work enough to lay the patches needed to close the rents in the eats of their trousers, and who do not keep out mischief. On the contrary, we alluded to the bid, the ruinous practice which used to prevail of the rulnous practice which used to prevail of the bride's father, Feb. 20, by Elder Lucius Ames, Mr. Levi V. Crittenden, of Archandul, cks, and herded the cows on the Hoosic grounaping farmers when we were sheep's grey emock has: that is to say—the practice of hiring a by to do the work of a full grown migh. It is ucong in morals and evil-in result. Xo man can sace a dollar by hiring, or employing a boy to and insele. If any father says $150 yer year at this way, he risks the health and life of his you often, a boy who has enough of ambition to do work beyond his stringth will cahautt his macular capital in advance of its accumulation; and when he attains a man's stature and years, if he live so long, he is mertified to find that he cannot perform a much labor as, he could and the district of the live so long, he is mertified to find that he cannot perform a much labor as, he could and the district of the live so long, he is mertified to find that he cannot perform a much labor as, he could and the live. My should we deny to a human being the samperportunity? Long-lived men are generally longest in maturing; just are the pine and the lat are longer lived than the allanthar, the hard are longer lived than the allanthar, the hard says and the lime. Nature requires, by the says legisly during the period of the expansion of the tissues which make up the frame. The cyll of oresworking a growing boy or girl may be ren very clearly when one takes into account its fact that mature is called upon to repair the extraordinary waste of muscle as well as to build an approach, she expends her major force upon its option, and the meager reciduo only goes to perfect the physical man. A MONG the useful improvements of the day, there are few that give more promise of good, few so well adapted to relieve human suffering, few so well adapted to refleve human suf-fering, few so well approved by the public as that new and powerful remedy called Salutifer (or as the German people call it Healthbringer). It gives case and comfort to the poor sufferer from Neuralgia and Rheumatism, and brings speedy relief to that large class of diseases that ire often cured and always benefited by an outwardapplication. For sale by all Druggists.
