

WESTFIELD, PA., GEORGE CLOSE, Propri-	JOHN SUHR,	(Post Depression of Sprits.	hold without blowing the head off of	house. The land thoroughly tilled.	Messrs. Hamlin, of Maine, Martin Gro- verland Preston King, of New York,	him. His health gi until it was almost imp
stor. A new Hotel conducted on the principle of live and let live, for the accommodation of	TT OULD announce to the citizens of Wellsho-	These templies will effectually cure layer ,	"How are you, Peeb?" said old Mer-	coffee, arrowroot, cassava, sweet and	McClelland, of Michigan, and others.	to attend to the routin
1 the public.—Nov. 14, 1866.—1y.	VV ro and surrounding country, that he has opened a shop on the corner of Water and Craf-	Nervor, Der alty, Ghronie Daarneen, Disense of the Robert and all Disenses arbitrag frage a Disense test bater, Stomach, or Infosting's	white as a piece of chalk, and trembling	"Several farms are given up to cotton	offering by Mr. Wilmot of the celebrated l	rial dutics. He served Senate, on the Commit
GEO. W. RYON, ATTORNEY & COUNSELOR AT LAW, LAW-	ton streets, for the purpose of manufacturing all kinds of	•	as if he had/swallowed a condensed earthquake. Peebles was afraid to and	and it has been ascertained that grapes and hops can be profitably cultivated.	Proviso, which has been so generally known as the "Wilmot Proviso,"	Affairs, Claims and Persucceeded in 1863, by ronceville, Tioga Co., Pa. Bounty, Pensian, and Insurance Agent. Collections promptly	CABINET FURNITURE,	DICBILITY	swer, because he wasn't sure about that	Thus far the tobacco crop has proved the most lucrative, but the farmers who	which provided, that in any territory	At the conclusion o term he was appointe attended to. Office 2d door below Ford House. Dac. 12, 1867-1y	REPAIRING AND TURNING DONE	RESERVED AT OIL OF THE SYSTEM.	grip on it, while he, had it, there, or it	have chosen to plant coffee have no rea-	acquired from Mexico, "neither Slavery nor involuntary servitude shall ever	Lincoln a Judge of the
R. E. OLNEY,	to order. COFFINS of all kinds furnished on short notice. All work done promptly and war-	UNPOSURE, FRVERS, ETC	all'oned cel through an augur hole. So	son to complain. Besides feeding them- selves, the colonists exported produce in	cept for crime, &c." This proviso	which office he held u But few public men
DEALER in CLOCKS & JEWELRY, SILVER & PLATIND WARE, Spectacles, Violin Strings.	rapted. Wellshoro, June 27, 1866.	Ricre is normedicing, extant equal in three of temedics in such cases A tone and that is for the parted to the whole By the first A particle is	As blurted right out an and in the first	1665 to the value of 30,000 francs, or $19,000, They were also represented in	was adopted in committee by 80 ayes to 64 noes—only three members from the	such an enviable and v
de., &c., Mansfield, Pa. Wutches and Jow-	UNION HOTEL.	Strengthened, food	max not be unknown to you, sir, that during an extended period of some five	the Faris Exhibition.	Free States (Democrats) voting against it, and the two million bill, containing	little effort as Mr. Wrr.
alry neatly repaired. Engraving done in plain English and German. Ilept67.1y.	MINER WATKINS, PROPRIETOR.	nomach a genta die	years, I have been busily engaged in	given up to agriculture. In 1865 it con-	the proviso, sent to the Senate, where	stances, but more to th
Thos. B. Bryden.	HAVING fitted up a new hotel building on the site	$(-2) e_{1} (0) (0) e_{1} e_{2} (-2) e_{2} $		tained within its bounds fifty-three su- gar refineries, sixty-one stills, forty-	Massachusetts, "sneaking against time"	'Possessed of a comman polished address, and a
URVEFOR & DRAFTSMANOrders left at 615 room. Townsond Hotel, Wotlsboro, will	I am now ready to receive and onfertain guests. The Union Motel was Intended for a Temperance House,	and a lid Diviciolation set of a set of the	the time, while I thought you was tend-	and oil mills, and several breweries -	and preventing its passage in that body.	earnestness which neve mand attention and str
Leot with prompt attention.	and the Proprietor bolieves it can be sustained without grog. An attentive bostler in attendance.		in' store? Well, by George, you're one of 'em, now, ain't you ?"	To a German colony these last are in-	The Slavery question did not enter	every hearer, was comb
Jan. 13. 1867tr.	Wellsborg, June 28, 1867.	And are ing the hand or time weighing heaving upon them, with di its attendant il's, will find in	Peebles had to begin all over again, to	The success of this colony is not en-	prominently into the canvass in this Congressional district, in 1846, at the	was a profound thinker
FARR'S HOTEL,	TOWNSEND HOUSE.	Banes of this that it has or the TONIC, and the second sec	get the run of ; it. "Mr. Merriweather, sir : Perhaps it	1 son or the proverbial thrift of German	time of Mr Wilmot's second election. He received, as usual, the unanimous	said to have grasned a
TIOGA, TIOGA COUNTY, PA.,	WILLIAM TOWNNEND, PROPRIETOR.'	more your one days, build up their shrunken form, and give health and happiness to ther	may not be unknown to you that dur- ing the extended, period of five years. I	emigrants. A part of the credit is due	nomination of this party. His vote upon the Tariff, and his well-known	ly. What other men a diver always in attendance.	Haziett I am prepared to furnish the traveling and	ten dan. yena.	have been engaged in the prosecution	Their management of the colony has	Free-trade views, were made the oc-	without labor, and app
E. S. FARR, Propriotor.	local public with the best accommodations to be pro- cured in the country. A good hostler always in at-	NOTICE.	of a commercial enterprise, with a de-	good sense. They have not paid any	which joined a few members of his own	enabled him at once to Hairdressing & Shaving.	tendance: Teams furnished to fishing parties. ' Wellsbore, June 26, 1867.	It is a well-catabilished fait that fully one-half of all measure pro- tures the source of the enjoyment in the enjoyment to as the company of the source of	tenance-""".".".".".".".".".".".".".".".".".".	emigrant's passage-money unless he was plainly unable to pay it for him-	party. Hon. R. G. White, of Tioga, and	in all its branches and
* Saloon over Willcox & Barker's Store, Wells- ioro, Pa. Particular attention paid to Ladies	JOHN ETNER,	fully well," They	to beer. Don't stand there holding yout hat like a blind beggar with the	self, in such cases the money is ad-	opponent, but Mr. Wilmot received the votes of the Democracy, with but few	illogical in a proposi
Hur-outting, Shampooing, Dyeing, etc. Braids, Puils, coils, and swiches on hand and made to or-	TAILOR AND CUITER, has opened a shop on Cratton street, rear of Spars & Derby's shoe	ne (cossis is sold of all energy, extremely ner- voi set of have no appetite.] 	paralysis. 1 never seen you behave	the funds of the colony. They have	exceptions, and was re-elected.	sented for his considera
der. H. W. DORSEY. J. JOHNSON.	shop, where he is prepared to manufacture gar- monts to order in the most substantial manner,	Tread C. is especially recommended.	yourself so in all my born days.". Peebles was knocked out again, and	inns at Rio de Janeiro, and at the vill- age of the colony, where immigrants	had become the great and leading ques-	severe toil which is y
BACON, M. D., late of the 2d P.a. Cavalry, after	and with dispatch. Particular attention paid to Cutting and Fitting. March 26, 1868-1y	WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN	had to mander hack and take a fresh start.	are lodged and fed until they have se-	tion of the country. The purposes of the slave-holders were palpable; in fact,	great men, who wish to
1. Leastly four years of army service, with a large open-ence in field and hospital practice, has opened an shee for the practice of medicine and surgery, in all		Landber 5 they will cure every case of MA- RASMUS Southeast fail.	* Mr. Merriweither, sir: It may not be unknown to you that during an ex-	and built temporary houses. The land	they were boldly enunciated. We have	It may seem naradox socianches. Persons from a distance can find good uning at the Pansylvania Hotel when desired	HAMILTON · HOUSE, On strictly Temperance principles, Morris Run,	The associates of contributions have accumulated an en-	tended period of some five years. Thave	very low rates. It was surveyed, so that	not space to refer to the many heavy blows dealisthe slave oligarchy and to	in the ordinary and yo
Will visit any part of the State in consultation, or to postorm surgical operations. No 4, Union Block, up	Pa. R. C. BALLEY, Proprietor. Horses and	of the pulsestion of but is faw, Those, it will be observed, are not note and of such stand- ing that they junts to believed.	Commercial enterprise, with the deter-	the purchaser need have no fears about the soundness of his title. He has five	the system of human bondage, by Mr. Wilmot in the discussions which fol-	of the term. We know the general reputation
A s. Wellsboro, Pa., May 2, 1860ly.	Carriages to letMarch 8, 1868 Iy.		mination to procure a sufficient main-	years for the payment of the purchase money.	lowed. Proscribed by the administra- tion of President Polk, deserted by	those who knew him
NEW PICTURE GALLERY.	PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. Graduate of the	TESTIMONIALS.	"A Which-ance!" asked old Merri-	After the colonist has cleared his	I many of those who had in the outset!	the ordinary intrigues
FRANK SPENCER	University of Buffalo, N. Y., Class of 1861	Hon. Seo. W. Woodward.	word as if it was his only chance, and	elapses before it becomes fit for cultiva-	supported the cause of Freedom, he never for a moment faltered, but by his	TV, he had a great con
Las the pleasure to inform the citizens of Fioga stanty that he has completed his	os to the sick and afflicted. Having had much experience in Surgery, he will perform all op-	Car + tunice in the Supreme Court of Pa., writes	" In the hope that some day I might	ployed by the colony, at good wages	bold definince of the Slave Power, by his burning words of eleganent denunciation	profoundly ignorant, underlying political of
NEW PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY,	erations entrusted to his skill in a satisfae-	Philadelphia, March 16, 1867. Lind Hool- And's German	- Conter weatook, and bestow my earthly	On the roads, or at other works of con-	of the "relic of barbarism," by his ear- nestness and consistency made himself	was privatly interacted de Visite, the Surprise and Eureka Pictures; also	street, two doors below the residence of Will-	bit and "Gool- Bitters' is a part for a formal tonic, useful in discussed thera formal gentrie organs, mained strengthera for a setting of the setting of the setting basis of strengthera for a setting of the setting of the setting	jown. I have been a lonely man, sir.	1 ury, the colony supplies him with seeds	1.4 reputation world-wide, and endeared 1	were accustomed to m erticular attention paid to copying and enlarg-	ther Drug Store [jan. 8, 1868-3m]	"i ons trale.	to be alone; therefore	15 expected to pay when he has money	his hame to the friends of humanity everywhere.	political schemers, and
out Pictures. Instructions given in the Art on Formable terms. Elmira St., Mansfield, Oct. 1,	E. R. KIMBALL,	"GLO. W. WOODWARD."	"Neither is it, Peebles; and I'm all- fired glad you dropped in. How's the	of his own. During the first six months of his res-	In 1848, the pro-slavery leaders had	ing combinations he r honesty and intelligence
Wm. B. Smith,	GROCERY AND RESTAURANT,	Hon. James Thompson,		1100000010 the colony he is entitled to	tion, and nominated for President. Hon.	This was really the gre
KNOXVILLE, Pa. Pension, Bounty, and In-	One door above the Meat Market,	Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.	1 les, muesphiring confusion, raising his	(Speaking his own language. This con-	l conels great change" on the subidge of	power with the peopl sincere himself, he be surance Agent. Communications'scut to the above address will receive prompt attention.	WELLSBORO, PENN'A,	Philadelphia, April 28, 1866. S "I consiler Hooland's German Bitters" a ratually modified in case of paticity of Philades-	to voice to a yen, "It may not be unknown	colony and discharged his duties in	slavery, and whose Nicholson letter,	masses wore coupling on and address with receive prompte internition		The second in the second protocol and the second se	o and a starting an extended period	condy, and discharges his duties in so	enunciating the principle of squatter-	tacked he wont holdly lorms moderato. [jau 8, 1868-13]	RESPECTFULLY announces to the trading public that he has a desirable stock of Gro-	tent of 19 spectra. I can certify this from my se	101 a lodely man, 1 have been engaged	encient a manner that the general	sovereignty, gained him the nomina-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in sch
U. S. CLAIM AGENCY,	public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffece, Spices, Sugars,	ton of hyperpoint. I can certify this from my experiment of it "Young, with respect, "Young, with respect,	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I	health is invariably preserved.	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats refused in support him and as	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in sci churches, and plead his the cause of causion
U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of	D public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoce, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea-	tent of 19 spectra. I can certify this from my se	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no.	health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives up	soversignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nomince, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable. Martin VanBuren was	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equal strik the voters was refaid by and regard they had for
Jernus modernto. [jnu 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions.	To public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffees, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first-	Even of the plot pair. I can certify this from my experience of a "Jours, with respect, "JAMES THOMPSON." From Roy. Joseph H. Kennard, D.D.,	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—"	encient a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to renav	soversignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nomince, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equal straight the voters was rebaid by and regard they had fou- ed by many a hard fou- mau was ever so firmly
Terms moderate. [jan 8, 1868-15] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. Will: NEW BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, given I two and three years' soldiers ustra bounty. Soud	D public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sbaable hours.	Even of Trade point. I can certify this from my experiment of it (JAMES THOMPSON." FROM Roy. JOSeph H. Kennard, D.D., Press of Trade Copies Church, Philadelphia.	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look have	encient a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc-	soverbignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nomince, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Batfalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equal attribu- the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard fou- man was ever so firmly the hearts of our neople
Intus moderato. [jan 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. [] HIE NEW BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send by your discharges. OFFICERS' EXTRA PAY.	L public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sonable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you	Lean on Try spin point. I can certify this from my experience of a "Jours, with respect, "JAM ES THOMPSON." FROM ROV. JOSEPH H. Kennard, D.D., Press of T. all Cuptus Church, Philadelphia. Dear Sir: I have been frequently to a solid of medicines, but recommen-	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well."	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined	soversignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large holy of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buffalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause or equalation the voters was repaid be and regard they had for ed by many a hard fou- mau was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and inde
 Jornis moderate. [jan 8, 1868-15] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. WHE NEW BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send to your discharges. OFFICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where in service March 2, 1846. 	L public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sonable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS.	Lean on Try spin point. I can certify this from my experience of a "Jours, with respect, "JAM ES THOMPSON." FROM ROV. JOSEPH H. Kennard, D.D., Press of T. all Cuptus Church, Philadelphia. Dear Sir: I have been frequently to a solid of medicines, but recommen-	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again.	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own-	soversignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable. Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buffalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause or equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable his tastes and habits
 Jorns moderate. [jau 8, 1868-15] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. [MIE NEW BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send to your discharges. OFFICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where the services Harch 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have foot a limb and who have foot properts 	The public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sonable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade	ten or log oppen. I can certify this from my especie une of a JAMES THOMPSON." JAMES THOMPSON." D.D., D.D., Press T. all. Tuplest Church, Philadelphia. Dy ar Sir: I have been frequently to a solid tuplest Church, Philadelphia. Dy ar Sir: I have been frequently to a solid tuplest Church, Philadelphia.	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional	soverbignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the nonle	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judg achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail
I ornus moderato. [jan 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. WHE NEW BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, given in your discharges. OFFICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers who we have vise March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have lost a limb and who have been por ma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted.	The public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sbaable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST,	Lean on The pipe pain. I can certify this from my especieure of at "Young, with respect, "Young, with respect, "Young, with respect, "Young, with respect, "Young, with respect, D, D, "Prove T. all Tuptist Church, Philudelphia. Dy ar Sir: I have been frequently to a source of my at the	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—en_dware it."	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the	soverbignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large hody of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judg achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and
Ierms moderate. [jan 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. [Mile New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICENS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where in service March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have lost a limb and who have been perma- bently and total g disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Wellshore, October 10, 1866-tt	The public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sonable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Otls, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c.	ten or 1 & propert. I can certify this from my especieure of it "Yours, with respect, "Yours, with respect, "Yours, With respect, "Yours, Row. Joseph H. Kennard, D.D., "Pression T. all Unplus Church, Philadelphia. Dy a Sir: I have been frequently to the solution of medicines, but, re- pression of the solution of my appression of the solution of my appression of the solution of my appression of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution of the solution of t	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it— Mr. Merriweather: sir—it—"	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day means and longe come	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Batfalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause or equalation the voters was repaid be and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political
 Jan S. 1868-15] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, given two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFFICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where it is service March 3, 1865. DENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have loss a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. Mi other Government claims prosecuted. Weilsbore, October 10, 1866-tt E. SMITH, M. B. 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sbnable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Ott, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Plax Seed, C. P. LEONARD. 	ten on 1 is pipepsin. I can certify this from my especieure of it "Yours, with respect, "Yours, with respect, "Yours, Row. Joseph H. Kennard, D.D.," Press T. all Implies Church, Philadelphia. Dy a Sir: I have been frequently to the source of the source of the source of the source of the source of the source of the source of the source of the source of the the source of the source of the source of the the source of the source of the source of the source of the the source of the source of the source of the source of the the source of the source	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it— Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first close	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Bio de Laueiro. Weat	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors.	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equal argin the voters was refailed by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judg achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in
 Jerms moderate. [jan 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' solidiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where in service March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have lost a limb and who have been perma- bently and totaly disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Weitshore, October 10, 1566-tt E. SMITTH, M. D. SURGEON. 	The public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sonable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Otls, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c.	ten or 1 y pipesa. I can certify this from my especieure of it "Young with respect, "Young with respect, "Young Row, Joseph H, Kennard, D.D., "Press of T. a.W. Input Church, Philadelphia. Dy a Sir: I have been frequently to a sir to a sub out of my approximation of the second of the species of the side of the second of the size of the spect o	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it— Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk'as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life.—	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post.	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large hody of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in which at once probed a
 Jerms moderate. [jnu 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. The Bounty LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where in service Barch 8, 1866. To all who have loss a limb and who have been pointa- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Methoro, October 10, 1866-tt E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. O PERATES successfully, for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tomors, liare Lip, Varicese Veins, Club Feet, &c. 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sonable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Oild, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions. Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Flax Seed. Lawrenceville, May 8, 1867. Gien's Falls Insurance Company. 	ten or by pipesa. I can certify this from my especieure of it "Young with respect, "Young Kith respect, "Young Row, JAMES THOMPSON." D.D., Press T. all Paptist Church, Philadelphia. Dy ar Sir: I have been frequently to a sir to a south of my at the sire of the second part to a sire to a south of the usefut are once to a sire to a south of the special for once to a sire to a south of the special for once to a sire to a south of the special for and to a sire to a south of the special for and to a sire to a south of the special for a south of the sire of the source of the special for a south to a sire to a south of the special for a south of the sire of the source of the special for the sire of the special for the source of the special for the sire of the special for the special for the sire of the special for the special for the special for the sire of the special for the special for the special for the sire of the special for the sp	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it— Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class filiot in the whole course of my life.— What's the matter with you, anyhow !"	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post.	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large hody of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Bulfdlo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the organization, at the dic-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard fou- man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and jude achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of leg- brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the jurics of the county ed for cloouence and em
 Jerms moderaté. [jau 8, 1868-15] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers two were in service March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have lost a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Weitsbore, October 10, 1866-tt E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. O PERATES successfully, for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tumors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the Bye and General Surgery. 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sonable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Oild, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions. Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Flax Seed. Lawrenceville, May 8, 1867. Gien's Falls Insurance Company. 	Lean on The property of the from my expectitive of it of the second state of the se	to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it— Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life.— What's the matter with you, anyhow!" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peeb- les, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not beunknown that you prosecute	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always	soverbignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarchy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr.	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equal arguing the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and ean his arguments apon q
 Jerms moderate. [jan 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send to your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers the well is service March 3, 1865. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have lost a limb and who have been perma- bourly and totally disabled. Meilsbore, October 10, 1866-tt E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. O PERATES successfully, for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tomors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the Eye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free, 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sbaable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Ott, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Plax Seed. Lawrenceville, May 8, 1867. GIEN'S FALLS, N. Y. 	Lean on The property. I can certify this from my especiation of it of the provident of t	 or a lobely man, 1, have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class fidiot in the whole course of my life,—What's the matter with you, anyhow !" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not be unknown that you prosecut-ed a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedbek for some a more first-class is of good for a sufficient who is not good for a commercial period of bewilderment, "it may not be unknown that you prosecut-ed a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedbek for some a manercial period of wedbek for some a manercial period of wedbek for some a source and the source and the source and so the source and source and the source and source and the source and source and the source and the	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the payement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarchy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offerdd to	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable in his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and ean his arguments upon q were able and juck haust bench, he disarined the focs by his infpartiality
 Jerms moderate. [jau 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' solidiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where in service March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have lost a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Weitshore, October 10, 1866-tt E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. O PERATES successfully, for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tumors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the Eye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free. References given to operations' recently per- formed. 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoce, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oysters in overy style at all sea- shable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Olf, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Flax Seed. Lawrenceville, May S, 1867. GIEN'S FALLS, N. Y. Capital and Surplus $373,637,66. 	Lean on The property. I can certify this from my especiation of it of the property of the p	 of a lobely man, I. have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—"" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Prebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a sinckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life,— What's the matter with you, anyhow!" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not beunknown that you prosecuted a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—"." 	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the payement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or the gatter, and	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large hody of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buffalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarchy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offered to give way for any person who would kep-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable in his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and ean his arguments, upon q were able and exhaust bench, he disarmed the foces by his impartiality The peculiar qualities
 Jerms moderate. [jau 8, 1868-15] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. Title New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers astra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers the weite in service March 3, 1865. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have loss a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Weitsbore, October 10, 1866-tit E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully, for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tamors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attertion paid to diseases of the Eye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free. References given to operations' recently per- formed. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sbaable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Ott, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Plax Seed. Cash paid for Plax Seed. Lawrenceville, May 8, 1867. GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y. Capital and Surplus $373,637,66. FARM RISKS, only, taken. Ne Premium Notes required 	Lean on Trypic pain. I can certify this from my experime of it of young, with respect, "Young with respect," Young with respect, "Young Row, Joseph H. Kennard, D.D., "It is the trypical church, Philadelphia. Press of T. all Implies Church, Philadelphia. Press of the trypical implies and the analy of medicines, but, respectively. Press of the trypical implies and the analy of the section of the section. Press of the trypical implies and the section of the section of the section of the section of the section. Press of the trypical implies and the section. Press of the trypical implies. Press of the trypical impl	 for a lobely man, 1, have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life., What's the matter with you, anyhow!" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not beunknown that you prosecuted a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—" "See here, Mr. Peebles, you're drunk, and if you. can't behave bettor then." "See here, Mr. Peebles, you're drunk, and if you. can't behave bettor then." "See here, Mr. Peebles, you're drunk, and if you. can't behave bettor then." "See here, Mr. Peebles, you're drunk, and if you. can't behave bettor then." "See here druge bettor th	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the pavement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or the gatter, and an observance of this common sense who would about the run and the sense	soverbignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buffilo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarchy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offered to give way for any person who would rep- resent the principle for which he was contending. Hon, Galusha A. Grow	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equal arrive the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and ean his arguments apon q were able and jexhanst bench, he disarined the focs by his impartiality The peculiar qualities found full play, in dec
 Jerms moderate. [jau 8, 1868-15] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, given two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFFICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where it a service March 3, 1865. DENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have lost a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Weitsboro, October 10, 1866-tt E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OFERATES successfully for Cataract, Stra hismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tumors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the Eye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free. References given to operations' recently per- formed. Offices a this residence, Mansfield, Tioga County, Pa. MORMAN STRAIT. 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoce, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oysters in overy style at all sea- shable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Olf, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions. Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Flax Seed. Lawrenceville, May S, 1867. Glen's Falls Insurance Company, GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y. Capital and Surplus $373,637,66. FARM RISKS, only, taken. No Premium Notes required. It is bIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensnes or not 	Lean on Try pipesa. I can certify this from my experimentation of the second state	 of a lobely man, 1, have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a speckass. I never seen a more first-class fidiot in the whole course of my life." What's the matter with you; anyhow !? "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not beunknown that you prosecuted a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—?" 	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the pavement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or the gatter, and an observance of this common sense rule, would obviate much unpleasant "serouging" by over gallant gentle-	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large hody of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarchy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offerdd to give why for any person who would rep- resent the principle for which he was contending. Hon. Galusha A. Grow was named by Mr. Wilmot as an ac- ceptable person, and accepted and elect-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judg achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail the labor and dry detail much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and ean his arguments/hypon q were able and jexhaust bench, he disarined the foes by his impartiality Tho peculiar qualities found full play, in dec which arose, und his
 Jerms moderate. [jau 8, 1868-15] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. Title NEW BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years's oldiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers two were in service March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have loss a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Weitsbore, October 10, 1866-tt E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OPERATES successfully, for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tumors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular atternition paid to diseases of the Eye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free. References given to operations' recently per- formed. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga County, Pa. MORMAN STRAIF, GENT for the National Series of standard School Books: multibactive A Spress particular discussions of the three bases on bible states of standard School Books: multibactive A Spress particular discussions of the three bases on bible at the A Spress particular discussion of the county, Pa. 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sbaable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Olf, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Plax Seed. Cash paid for Play Star Soft. 	<pre>ten on Property 1 can certify this from my especiation of h</pre>	 10 a lobely man, 1. have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—"" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Prebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life,— What's the matter with you, anyhow!" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not beunknown that you prosecuted a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—"." "See here, Mr. Peebles, you're drunk, and if you, can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't l'll chuck you out, or I'm adutchman." 	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the payement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or the gatter, and an observance of this common sense rule, would obviate much unpleasant "scrouging" by over gailant gentle- men who persistently crowd for the out- side of the walk. Another common	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large hody of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buffilo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarchy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offered to give way for any person who would rep- resent the principle for which he was contending. Hon. Galusha A. Grow was named by Mr. Wilmot as an ac- ceptable person, and accepted and elect- ed. The cause of freedom never suffer- ed at the hands of Mr. Wilmot's succes-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equal arrive the voters was rebaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard for man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county the juries of the county were able and jexhaust bench, he disarined the focus by his impartiality Tho peculiar qualities found full play, in dec which arose, and his greatly respected, and y ruled by the Supreme C
 Jerms moderaté. [jau 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' soldiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFFICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers where it is service March 3, 1865. DENSIONS INCREASED. To all who have lost a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally dischled. All other Government claims prosecuted. Weitsboro, October 10, 1866-tt E. SMITH, M. D. SURGEON. OFERATES successfully, for Cataract, Stra hismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tomors, like Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the Eye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free. References given to operations' recently per- formed. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office hours from 12 M. to 3 P. M. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga County, Pa. MORMAN STRAIT, GENT for the National Surgery for the National Strikes of Standard School Beoks; published by A. S. Barnes & Co. 111 & 113 Willing, corner of John Street, N. Y., keeps constantly stall singled, All orders promptly filled. Cold on or 	 public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoce, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oysters in overy style at all sea- sbaable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Olls, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions. Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Flax Seed. Lawrenceville, May S, 1867. Glen's Falls Insurance Company, GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y. Capital and Surplus $373,637,66. FARM RISKS, only, taken. No Prenium Notes required. It is BIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for live stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of qual responsibility. I. C. PRICE. Agent. 	Lean on Property and Property of the from my experiment of all and respect, "Provide with respect," "Provide Row, Joseph H. Kennard, D.D., " Free Contraction of the transformer of the transform	 for a lobely man, 1, have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life.,—What's the matter with you, anyhow!" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not be unknown that you prosecuted a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—" "See here, Mr. Peebles, you're drunk, and if you, can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't I'll chuck you out, or I'm a dutchman." "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, frantic with dispair, "i t may not be unknown to you that my carthly possessions are engaged to enter weather, sir," said Peebles, frantic with dispair, "i tany not be unknown to you that my carthly possessions are engaged to enter weather, sir," said Peebles, frantic with dispair, "i tany not be unknown to you that my carthly possessions are engaged to enter weather weather, sir," said Peebles, frantic with dispair, "i tany not be unknown to you that my carthly possessions are engaged to enter weather weathe	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the pavement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or the gatter, and an observance of this common sense rule, would obviate much unpleasant "scrouging" by over gallant gentle- men who persistently crowd for the out- side of the walk. Another common custom, not required even by fashiona- ble etiquette, and one which is nearly	soversignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarchy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offered to give why for any person who would rep- resent the principle for which he was contending. Hon. Galusha A. Grow was named by Mr. Wilmot as an ac- ceptable person, and accepted and elect- ed. The cause of freedom never suffer- ed at the hands of Mr. Wilmot's succes- sor, and the people of the district re-	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was refaile by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legi- brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and em his arguments upon q were able and extants bench, he disarined the focus by his infpartiality The peculiar qualities found full play, in dec which arose, and his greatly respected, and y ruled by the Supreme C A man of strong c
 Jerms moderate. [jau 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' solidiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers wate in service March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who havelost a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. JEROME B. NILES. Weitshore, October 10, 1866-11 C. SMITTH, M. D. SURGEON. C. SMITTH, M. D. SURGEON. O PERATES successfully for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tumors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the Eye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free. References given to operations' recently per- formed. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga County, Pa. MORMAN STRAIT, GENT for the National Series of Standard School Beske; published by A. S. Barnes & Co. 11 & 113 Willing, corner of John Street, N. Y., keeps constantly statistically. All orders promptly filled. Call on or allowed. North Streat promptly filled. Call on or allowed. North Streat promptly filled. Call on or allowed. The part promptly filled. Call on or allowed. Pa., June 19, 1897-17. 	 Typublic that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oystors in overy style at all sea- sbaable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Oild, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Flax Seed. Lawrencoville, May 8, 1867. GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y. Capital and Surplus $373,637,66. FARM RISKS, only, taken. No Premium Notes required. It is bIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for live stock killed by Lightning, in barus or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of 	<pre>ten on Property I can certify this from my especiation of the important of the important of the important of the important of the import of the import</pre>	 for a lobely man, 1. have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Peebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a sinckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life,—What's the matter with you, anyhow!" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not beunknown that you prosecute da lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—" "See here, Mr. Peebles, you're drunk, and if you, can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't I'll chuck you out, or I'm a dutchman." 	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janciro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the payement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or the gatter, and an observance of this common sense rule, would obviate much unpleasant "scrouging" by over gallant gentle- men who persistently crowd for the out- side of the walk. Another common custom, not required even by fashionat- ble etiquette, and one which is nearly as inexplainable and absurd is the prac-	sovereignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large hody of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buffilo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the organization, at the dic- tation of the slave oligareny, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offered to give why for any person who would rep- resent the principle for which he was contending. Hon. Galusha A. Grow was named by Mr. Wilmot as an ac- ceptable person, and accepted and elect- ed. The cause of freedom never suffer- ed at the hands of Mr. Wilmot's succes- sor, and the people of the district re- turned him at every succeeding election, until auctor apportion mant espaced	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was repaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judg achieved considerable his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail the labor and dry detail much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legs brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and ear his arguments hypon q were able and jexhaust bench, he disarined that focus by his impartiality Tho peculiar qualities found full play, in dec which arose, und his greatly respected, and very two and strong, c tive, abrupt, outspoken, versary not to be lighth The love of Truth was
 Jerms moderate. [jau 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' solidiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers wate in service March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. Tabil who bavelost a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. JEROME B. NILES. Weitshore, October 10, 1566-tt E. SMITTH, M. D. SURGEON. OFERATES successfully, for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tomors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the Bye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free. References given to operations' recently per- formed. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga County, Pa. MORMAN STRAIT, VENT for the National Series of Standard School Beoks: publishod by A. S. Barnes & Co. 114 a 112 Willien, corner of John Street, N. Y., keeps constantly statispiply. All orders promptly filled. Callou or dires of and orders promptly filled. Callou or dires of mail. NERAIT. B. KE LL'Y , 	 Public that he has a desirable stock of Groceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoes, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first-class stock. Oystors in overy style at all seasonable hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, Oild, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Plax Seed. C. P. LEONARD. Lawrenceville, May 8, 1867. GIEN'S FALLS, N. Y. Capital and Surplus $373,637,66. FARM RISKS, only, taken. No Premium Notes required. It is bIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for live stock killed by Lightning, in barns or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmingtion Centre, Tiega Co. Pa. May 29. 1867-13.⁴ 	Lean on The pipe pain. I can certify this from my experiments of it (JAMES THOMPSON.") JAMES THOMPSON." From The Provide Courter, Philadelphia. D.D., Product The	 10 a lobely man, 1. have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—"" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Prebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life,—What's the matter with you, anyhow!" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not beunknown that you prosecuted a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, you're drunk, and if you, can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't l'll chuck you out, or I'm adutchman." "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, frantie with dispair, "it may not be unknown that you prosecuted a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—" 	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the payement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or the gatter, and an observance of this common sense rule, would obviate much unpleasant "scrouging" by over gailant gentle- men who persistently crowd for the out- side of the walk. Another common custom, not required even by fishiona- ble etiquette, and one which is nearly as inexplainable and absurd is the prac- tice of a whole string of men filing out of a church pew, making themselves as	soversignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buifalo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarchy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offered to give why for any person who would rep- resent the principle for which he was contending. Hon. Galusha A. Grow was named by Mr. Wilmot as an ac- ceptable person, and accepted and elect- ed. The cause of freedom never suffer- ed at the hands of Mr. Wilmot District." '' Inder the provisions of the mand.	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equalation the voters was rebaid by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable in his tastes and habits w the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the m sideration of political to the discussion of legi- brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and em his arguments upon q were able and jexhaust bench, he disarined the focus by his impartiality The peculiar qualities found full play, in dec which arose, and his greatly respected, and y ruled by the Supreme C A man of strong c tive, abrupt, putspoken versary not to be lighth The love of Trith was dominant characteristic a sham, and hated fals
 Jerms moderate. [jau 8, 1868-13] U. S. CLAIM AGENCY, For the Collection of Army and Navy Claims and Pensions. This New BOUNTY LAW passed July 28, 1866, gives two and three years' solidiers extra bounty. Send in your discharges. OFF/ICERS' EXTRA PAY. Three months' extra pay proper to volunteer officers wate in service March 3, 1866. PENSIONS INCREASED. To all who havelost a limb and who have been perma- bently and totally disabled. All other Government claims prosecuted. JEROME B. NILES. Weitshore, October 10, 1866-11 C. SMITTH, M. D. SURGEON. C. SMITTH, M. D. SURGEON. O PERATES successfully for Cataract, Stra bismus, (cross eye) Removal of Tumors, liare Lip, Varicose Veins, Club Feet, &c. Particular attention paid to diseases of the Eye and General Surgery. Con-ultation at office free. References given to operations' recently per- formed. Office at his residence, Mansfield, Tioga County, Pa. MORMAN STRAIT, GENT for the National Series of Standard School Beske; published by A. S. Barnes & Co. 11 & 113 Willing, corner of John Street, N. Y., keeps constantly statistically. All orders promptly filled. Call on or allowed. North Streat promptly filled. Call on or allowed. North Streat promptly filled. Call on or allowed. The part promptly filled. Call on or allowed. Pa., June 19, 1897-17. 	 public that he has a desirable stock of Gro- ceries, comprising, Teas, Coffoce, Spices, Sugars, Molasses, Syrups, and all that constitutes a first- class stock. Oysters in overy style at all sea- sbanble hours. Wellsboro, Jan. 2, 1867-tf. THE PLACE TO BUY DRUGS. A T the Lawrenceville Drug Store, where you will find every thing properly belonging to the Drug Trade CHEAP, CHEAPER, CHEAPEST, and of the best quality for Cash. Also, Paints, OII, Varnishes, Lamps, Fancy Notions, Violin Strings, Fishing Tackle, Window Glass, &c. Cash paid for Flax Seed. Lawrenceville, May 8, 1867. Glen's Falls Insurance Company, GLEN'S FALLS, N. Y. Capital and Surplus $373,637,66. FARM RISKS, only, taken. No Premium Notes required. It is bIBERAL. It pays damages by Light ning, whether Fire ensues or not. It pays for live stock killed by Lightning, in barms or in the field. Its rates are lower than other Companies of equal responsibility. I. C. PRICE, Agent, Farmington Centre, Tiegd Co. Pa. 	<pre>ten on Property and the respect,</pre>	 for a lobely man, 1. have been engaged to enter wedlock, and bestowed, all my commercial enterprise on one whom I could procure a determination to be good for a sufficient possessions—no, I mean—that is—that Mr. Merriweather, sir, it may not be unknown—" "And then again it may. Look here, Peebles, you'd better lay down and take something warm; you ain't well." Prebles, sweating like a four-year-old colt, went in again. "Mr. Merriweather, sir; It may not be lonely to you to prosecute me whom you can_call a friend for commercial maintenance, but—but—eh, dang it—Mr. Merriweather; sir—it—." "Oh, Peebles, you talk as wildly as a inckass. I never seen a more first-class idiot in the whole course of my life.,—What's the matter with you, anyhow!" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, in an agony of bewilderment, "it may not beunknown that you prosecuted a lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—" "See here, Mr. Peebles, you're drunk, and if you, can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't l'll chuck you out, or I'm adutchman." "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, if may not be with a sufficiently lonely man who is not good for a commercial period of wedlock for some five years, but—" "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, you're drunk, and if you can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't l'll chuck you out, or I'm adutchman." "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, if you don't l'u chuck you out, or I'm adutchman." "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, sou're drunk, and if you can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't l'u chuck you out, or I'm adutchman." "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, sou're drunk, and if you can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't l'u chuck you out, or I'm adutchman." "Mr. Merriweather, sir," said Peebles, you're drunk, and if you can't behave better than that you'd better leave; if you don't l'u chuck yo	endent a manner that the general health is invariably preserved. Under this system the colonist is helped at every step, and yet left to de- pend upon himself. He receives no alms. Loans are made to him out of the common fund, which he is to repay whenever he becomes able. His suc- cess depends upon his diligence and economy. Nearly all who have joined the colony have possessed these proper- ties, and are now thrifty farmers own- ing their own land. A few have proved lazy or vicious. These exceptional drones have nothing to expect from the colony. They sell their, titles, live awhile on day wages, and leave some fine morning for Rio de Janeiro.—New York Post. SIDEWALK ETIQUETTE.—Only villa- gers, or persons with rural ideas, any longer contend that ladies shall always be given the inside of the pavement in passing. The rule adopted in all cit- ics is to turn to the right, whether the right leads to the wall or the gatter, and an observance of this common sense rule, would obviate much unpleasant "scrouging" by over gallant gentle- men who persistently crowd for the out- side of the walk. Another common custom, not required even by fashiona- ble etiquette, and one which is nearly as inexplainable and absurd is the prac- tice of a whole string of men filing out of a church pew, making themselves as ridiculous as an "awkward squad," practicing at "catch step." in order to even the intermed even by further the	soversignty, gained him the nomina- tion. A large body of Northern Demo- crats, refused to support him, and as the Whig nominee, Gen. Taylor, was not acceptable, Martin VanBuren was nominated by the Free Soil Convention, at Buffilo, receiving throughout the canvass the earnest support of Mr. Wil- mot. Mr. W., however, received the unanimous nomination of the party for Congress, and although an attempt was made to draw of Democratic votes for the reason of his support of Mr. Van- Buren, he was sustained by the people and re-elected by a large majority—Hen- ry W. Tracy, of this County, and Jonah Brewster, of Tioga, being his competi- tors. Having received the nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the District, in 1850, the pro-slavery branch of the slave oligarehy, set about defeating his return to Congress. Mr. Wilmot, who disclaimed any personal or mercenary motive, at once offered to give way for any person who would rep- resent the principle for which he was contending. Hon. Galusha A. Grow was named by Mr. Wilmot as an ac- ceptable person, and accepted and elect- ed. The cause of freedom never suffer- ed at the hands of Mr. Wilmot's succes- sor, and the people of the district re- turned him at every succeeding election, until another apportionment separated the counties of the "Wilmot District."	tacked, he went boldly to the people, in set churches, and plead his the cause of equal tripin the voters was rebail by and regard they had for ed by many a hard four man was ever so firmly the hearts of our people Mor. As a lawyer and judy achieved considerable in his tastes and habits with the labor and dry detail of his profession, and much absorbed in the misideration of political to the discussion of legg brought that great, in which at once probed a very depths. Many of the juries of the county ed for eloquence and ear his arguments apon q were able and jexhaust bench, he disarmed the foces by his impartiality The peculiar qualities found full play, in dec which arose, and his greatly respected, and ver uled by the Supreme C A man of strong co tive, abrupt, putspoken, versary not to be light The love of Truth was dominant characteristic a sham, and hated fals pression he every shap thies were kindly and g

yellow dogs of Damascus are not per-mitted to enter the place. They would ereep out and in; but the illogical Moslem fatalist says that they might carry infection. So you cry, after the Eastern fashion. "In the name of God, as almost impossible for him to the routine of his Senatos. He served two years in the n the Committees on Foreign Jaims and Pensions, and was d in 1863, by Mr. Buckalew. blinking into the glare those who make Claims and Pensions, and was Claims and Pensions, and was od in 1863, by Mr. Buckalew. conclusion of his Senatorial was appointed by President a Judge of the Court of Claims. ffice he held up to his death. a strong heart sick with pity and astonishment to see the ravage which the house of the soul can bear before Death sets it free. Decorum forbids that we should here minutely describe those public men have achieved should here innutery describe those enviable and wide-spread rep-victims of the antique and awful mala-victims of the antique and awful mala-dy of the East. Suffice it that these sad outlaws of health seem as if each of them lived in a dead body ; they look, but more to the man himself.— I of a commanding exterior, a on whoif she atter phenomenon of disd of a commanding exterior, a address, and an cloquence and ess which never failed to com-tention and strike conviction to arer, was combined abilities but urer, was combined abilities of linger-joints dropping away; there are highest order. Mr. WILMOI others whose faces present only an un-healthy red or deadly white; and someofound thinker-his mind was t comprehensive. He may be times among the throng of doomed times among the throng of doomed times among the throng of doomed voice of ereatures, whom the unworted voice of compassion, and fearlessness calls to gether, there is a young and pretty Syrian girl with her brown baby, You at other men acquire by pains-nd student life came to him labor, and apparently without is peculiar formation of mind him at once to grasp a subject him at once to grasp a subject s branches and details. He de stantly, all that was false and bin a proposition. The ease itch he mastered subjects pre-tich he mastered subjects pre-bis consideration, made him is multiment to concentrate him ask why she is there? She rolls the unwilling to encounter that it which is necessary in all outlaws, these living dead, anxious not l which is necessary in all to compromise you by coming too close; graterial and astonished and softened n, who wish to reach the pinseem paradoxical in us to say when you go up to them and give your little alms into their poor hands, and WILMOT was not a politician look as it you did not hate or dread them for being so miserable. So much so, findeed, that when you leave, lookdinary and vulgar acceptation rm. We know that such is not eral reputation he bore, but ing around to see that nobody observes o knew him intimately, will you, and tells about it in the city, it vitness when we say that of all sounds quite valuable to have said be-nind you the "Fa am amani illah"—the "Go, in the peace of God!" The prayer ary intrigues of party leaders, novements of party machined a great contempt, and was of duse whom Allah has such good rea-son to hear, seems something like an ly ignorant. In the principles ng political organizations, he excellent bargain to get for only a pinch or two of plastres. is own campaigns his friends istomed to manage and con-despised the tricks of craffy A FIGHTING MAN .- One of the genschemers, and instead of form-imations he relied upon the erals of the "Lost Cause" says that at schemers, and instead of form-inputions he relied upon the and intelligence of the people. Fillow the confederates had converted a really the great secret of his ith the people. Honest and nimself, he believed that the strange canally so and when at strange on the "Lost Cause" says that at about the time of the attactk upon Fort d Mississippi boat into a cotton-clad, the mate of which was a big, double-fisted sample of a river bully, "full of strange on the " the went boldly and confidently bis orders by knocking men about the people, in school-houses and head, and adds: IJust before we went into the fight he came swaggering up e of equal arguits. His trust in rs was rebaid by the confidence "Waai, generard they had for him, as evinc-side or fother's i rs was repaid by the confidence "Waal, general. I suppose when one rd they had for him, as evinc-iny a hard fought battle. Xo quit and shake hands?" t ever so firmly on revealed Xo ever so firmly entrenched in

"Yes, Jim," said I, "when the fightof our people as DAVID WIL- | ing is over I expect every man to go awyer and judge, Mr. WILMOT acconsiderable reputation. All and dry details of the practice profession, and his mind was baserbed in the more favorite con-on of political questions. But of the hoat intermuted any thether souscion of political questions. But scussion of legal questions, he that great, intuitive acumen once probed a subject to the ths. Many of his appeals to so f the county were unsurpass of the county were unsurpass. ths. Many of his appeals to I should think there were a numerica s of the county were unsurpass-guence and earnestness, whilst broadside so near that the flash of their broadside so near that the flash of their out cotton hales on fire. Our and the entries of law guns set out cotton bales on fire. Our gand texhaustive. Upon the people fought well, but the other side e disarined the entrity of his were too strong for us, and we had to is impartiality and ability.— drop down the river. During the ac-uliar qualities of his mind thor, while cannon were roaring, boats Il play, in deciding questions sinking shells shricking and bursting rose, and his decisions were all around, and the air filled with fiame and smoke, I quite lost sight of Jim; specified, and very seldom over-the Supreme Court. I of strong. convictions, posi-pt, putspoken, he was an ad-ot to be lightly encountéred.— but y repairing damages, that valiant hero crept out from behind a cotton of Truth was with him a pre-of Truth was with him a pre-tic characteristic. He despised and hated falsehood and op-in every shape. His sympa-ro kindly and generous, his de-modest and unassuming. His won the confidence on draining the state of the

11 0

