ROBINS HAVE COME BACK AGAIN. There's a call upon the housetop, an answer from the plain; There's a warble in the sunshine, a twitter in the And through my heart, at sound of these, There comes a nameless thrill, As sweet as odor to the rose, Or verdure to the bill; And all these joyous mornings

My heart pours forth this strain;
"God bless the dear-old robins,
Who have come back again," For they bring a thought of Summer, of dreamy Of king-cups in the meadow, making a golden A longing for the clover blooms;

For roses all aglow, ... For fragrant orchards where the bes With droning murmurs go; I dream of all the beauties Of Summer's golden reign, And sing: "God keep the robins, Who have come back again."

EXTRAORDINARY WIEL.-Mrs. Margret Thompson, who died in England, we have enough to do all the coaking and warmin 1776, made an extraordinary will. It ing to Tioga County. In fact, we have Stoves rau as follows: ran as follows:
"I desire that all my handkerchiefs that I may have unwashed at the time of my decease, after they have been got together by my old and trusty servant, Sarah Stuart, be nut by her, and by her alone, at the bottom of my coffin, which I desire may be made large enough for that purpose, together with such a quantity of the best Scotch suuff (in which she knoweth I always had the greatest delight) as will cover my de-ceased body; and this I desire the more especially as it is usual to put flowers into the coinns of departed friends, and nothing can be so fragrant and refreshing to me as that precarious powder.

But I strictly charge that no man be suffered to approach my body till the coffin is closed, and it is necessary to carry me to my burial; which I order in the following manner: Six men to be my bearers, who are known to be the greatest snuff takers in the parish of St. James, Westminister; instead of mourning, each divers a snuff-colored beaver hat, which I desire may be bought for that purpose and given to them. Six maidens of my acquaint-ance-viz—etc:—to bear my pall, each to bear a proper hood, and to carry a box filled with the best Scotch snuff to take for their refreshment as they go, along. Before my corpse I desire the minister may be invited to walk and take a certain control of the said care. tain quantity of the said snuff, not exceeding one pound, to whom also I bequeath five guineas on condition of his oing so. And I also desire my old and faithful servant, Sarah Stuart, to walk before the corpse, to distribute every twenty yards a large handful of Scotch snuff on the ground and upon the crowd

WHAT EVERY YOUNG MAN SHOULD Do.-1. Every young man should make the most of himself, intellectually, morally, socially and physically.
2. He should depend upon his own efforts to accomplish these results. 3. He should be willing to take advice from those competent to give it, and to follow such advice, unless his own indement or convictions, properly founded, should otherwise direct. 4. If he is unfortunate enough to have a rich and indulgent father, he must do the best he can under the circumstances, which will be to conduct himself very much as though he had not those obstacles to overcome.

ed a tool from a neighbor, promising to return it at night. Before evening he was sent away on an errand, and did not reach home until late; but, ere he started, he was told that his brothers should see the tool returned. After he had come back and gone up to bed, he inquired, and found that it had not been carried to the owne. He was much distressed to think that his promise should not have been fulfilled, but was finally persuaded to go to sleep, so that 4 he might rise early and carry the borrowed article home. By daylight he was up; but nowhere was it to be found! After a long and fruitless search for it he set off for his neighbor's workshop in great distress to acknowledge his fault But how great his surprise to find it on the doorstep! At length it appeared, from the prints of little bare feet in the mud, the lad had got up in his sleep and carried the tool home, and then gone to PATENT BARNDOOR HANGINGS bed again, waking quite unconscious of what had occurred. Of course, a boy thus prompt in his sleep was prompt when awake. He lived respected, won the confidence of his neighbors and was of Hardware. placed in many offices of trust and re sponsibility.

This boy took the best course to succeed in life, though perhaps he did not know it. Whatever we have to do, we should do it with our might, and do it promptly. Especially should we be anxious to keep our promises, strictly and faithfully. If we are careless in discharging these and similar duties, we shall suffer for it.

A story is told of a favorite janitor in a neighboring city who was accustom-ed to have certain matters in charge at various public entertainments. A short time since during a lecture a lady faint-cd. He was always ready for an emer-gency of this kind, and had all the necessary restoratives close at hand for use She was borne into an ante-room, and our friend rushed for his bottle of camphor, and proceeded to rub her face and forchead, applying it to her nose for her to smell of. After a while she revived, and he then became consious that there was something wrong about the cam-phor. He smelt of it, and found that all of its virtue had evaporated; he applied his tongue to it, and found, to his dismay, that he had been bathing his patient liberally with mucilage! was so stuck up by the attention that she had to be sent home in a carriage.

A nobleman and his lady walking through a magnificent avenue in one of the finest parts of London, were accested by a poor woman as follows: "The Lord bless your noble lordship and gra-

ALTBONA, PA. 15 Dec., 1866. GENTLEMEN: The watches manufactured b ou have been in use on this railroad for several years by our enginemen, to whom we fornish watches as part at our equipment. There are now some three hundred of them carried on our line; and we consider them good and reliable imo-keepers. Indeed, I have great satisfaction in saying your watches give us less trouble, and have worn, and do wear much longer without repairs than any watches we have ever had in use on this road. As you are aware, we formerly trusted to those of English manufacture, of acknowledged good reputation; but us a class they never keep time as correctly, nor have they done In these statements I had sustained by my producessor, Mr. Lowis, whose experience exended over a cories of years. Respectfully, EDWARD H. WILLIAMS, General Superintendent American Watch Co., Waltham. We make now five different grades of watches amed respectively as follows: Appleton, Tracy & Co., Waltham, Mass. Waltham Watch Company. Waltham, Moss. Waltham, Mage. P. S. Bartlett, . Wm. Ellery, Home Watch Company, Boston, Muss. Boston, Mass. All of these, with the exception of the Home Watch Company, are warranted by the Ameridan Watch Company to be of the best material, of the most approved principle, and to possess every requisite for a reliable timekeeper. Every deple selling these Watches is provided with the Company's printed card of guarantee, which should accompany each Watch sold, so that buyers may fool sure they are purchasing the genuine article.
