

HOME MATTERS.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1868.
New Advertisements.
Wellborn's Insurance Agency—W. H. Smith, New York Office—De Lano & Co. Agents.

Mrs. Bush will open a school for the children in the borough school house, Monday, May 4.
FIRE IN KEENEVILLE.—Early on the morning of Saturday, Apr. 25, fire broke out in the dwelling of Mr. Heber Hall, Wagonmaker.

GEN. GRANT.—Dr. Chas. K. Thompson is agent for Richardson's Life of Gen. Grant, in Charleston, Delmar, and Wellsboro. The book is written in the attractive style for which Richardson is noted.

BUSINESS.—Messrs. Urban Fisher and James Barthol have purchased the Grocery of Mr. C. H. Goldsmith, and will hereafter carry on the business.

MR. E. H. HASTINGS has opened a Grocery, Crockery and Glassware store in the rooms lately occupied by N. C. Grant's Furnishing Store.

A NEW WRENCH.—Mr. E. A. Smead, of Tioga, has obtained a patent for a new wrench, designed, we apprehend, to supersede the ordinary screw wrench.

YOUTH'S REFORM SOCIETY.—We have heard something of a society of this kind at Masoufield, the fruit of the philanthropy of several persons, among whom Mrs. Lyman Reynolds is prominent.

MR. SHEARER is creating a neat fence in front of his premises, Main-st.
MR. BEN. SEELY is finishing up the cellar of his new dwelling, and the removal of the old building reveals the fact that this is to be the finest improvement made on Main-st. for many a day.

MR. CHAS. FISHER has added a story to his dwelling on State-st.
Messrs. Toles & Barker are about to build a large barn in the rear of their store, near Pearl-st.

MR. A. GARDNER will put up a storehouse in the rear of his Grocery and Provision store on the present location.
The Borough authorities are rebuilding the bridge at the intersection of Queen and State Streets.

THE GALE.—The high winds of Friday week, mentioned briefly in our last week's issue, inflicted considerable damage upon the forest of upland farms.

MANSFIELD ITEMS.—Our correspondent writes to correct an error in last week's issue. Mr. Noah Wheeler, instead of Wheeler Meach, has been the agent of the Millinery Store.

MR. WM. ADAMS has associated Mr. G. W. Vincent with him in the mercantile business.
MR. A. J. DRAGO has purchased and occupied the former Maine farm. Mr. Maine has gone to Vinland, leaving with him the best wishes of all neighbors.

MR. JOHN COLE has bought, and occupies the lot of Hon. D. L. Sherwood.
DR. A. J. COLE has opened an office at his residence on Baptist-St. He comes well recommended.

MR. J. THOMPSON has taken the blacksmith shop, lately occupied by Mr. Ide.
MR. JOHN MURDOGH is putting up a neat picket fence around his lot—an improvement which our correspondent hopes may become epidemic in Mansfield.

A new sidewalk is in progress on Academy St. to the depot.
Tuesday evening, April 21, Dayton Blackwell, son of Enoch Blackwell, while standing upon a single machine in Bailey's Mill, was caught by the saw and had his arm so mangled as to necessitate amputation.

FIRE IN LAWRENCEVILLE.—Messrs. J. T. Burton, C. P. Leonard, and J. H. Mather, a Committee appointed to report the facts of the late fire in Lawrenceville, sends us the following statement:
"Last Tuesday night the 21st inst., at about midnight the inhabitants of Lawrenceville were roused by the alarm of fire. When first we awoke, the fire was raging in the cellar of the furniture store owned by Mr. E. D. Wells, and owned by him and Philander Hurd, Esq. Debris of the alarm could be given, and help obtained, the furniture store above was all in flames, rendering it impossible to save any of the furniture.

PUTNAM PUTS HIS WARE IN MARKET.—A head of all competitors for May. The number counts articles of great merit, among which we mention "Instant Democrat," "Young Abraham" by Tackerson, "Life in San Francisco," by Elliott, "The Mercantile Review," by Niles, "Woman and Work," by Mr. Lander, a fine article by L. E. Chittenden on the National Finance, and another on the National Budget by V. B. Douglas.

THE MARCH FOR MISSOURIANS.—There is a march for Missourians, and we are glad to see it. It is a march for the benefit of the Missourians who are suffering from the effects of the late war. It is a march for the benefit of the Missourians who are suffering from the effects of the late war.

WELL'S DECLARATION.—Mr. Wells thought, and did not everybody we ever talked with about it, that when an eye was injured, and replaced by an artificial eye, the eye had to be gouged out.

THE AMERICAN COOKING STOVE.
BUTTS, Sept. 6, 1866.
Messrs. SHEAR, PARSONS & Co. Gentlemen: Enclosed find draft for amount of my bill for the American Cooking Stove, which I have used with great success, and I am pleased to say that it is a most economical, convenient, well arranged and durable stove, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are in want of a stove of this kind.

WILCOX & Gibbs Sewing Machine.
"Is seen stronger and less liable to rip in the neck or wear than the Lock-Stitch Sewing Machine. It is a most economical, convenient, well arranged and durable machine, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are in want of a sewing machine of this kind."

COLGATE & CO'S GERMAN ERASIVE SOAP.
It is manufactured from PURE MATERIALS and may be used for all purposes. For sale by all Grocers and Dealers.

SIMILIA SIMILIBUS CURANTUR.
HOMOPATHIC SPECIFICS.
A. W. WILSON, M.D., has prepared a list of Homopathic Specifics, which he has used with great success, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are in want of a list of Homopathic Specifics of this kind.

ON THE WING.—A story for the Children by Mrs. M. B. Brewster, author of "Sunny Hours," "Chimpanzee," etc. This is one of a series of delightful stories for children, fast attaining popularity under the name of "Sunny Hours Stories." The author, a lady of Harrisburg, possesses great versatility of talent, is a noted lover of little children, comprehends their habits of thought, their needs, and the vital importance of cultivating the sunny side of their nature. In doing this, she has written a story which is both interesting and instructive.

THE "SUNNY HOURS" SERIES is beautifully printed and neatly bound. Ashland, 724 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, is the publisher, of whom the books may be ordered.

Putnam puts his wares in market.—A head of all competitors for May.
