Register's Notice—D. L. Donne.

Assignee's Sale—C. II Seymonr.

Assignee's Notice—J. Harrison. The trial of the President will probably close this week. The verdict when it comes will, we think, be that of "Guilty."

INFORMATION WANTED .- Win. H. Abbey, who information wanted.—vin. it. Aquey, who left Corning, N. Y., about four years ago, and when last heard of was in Texas. Any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received by his wife Mary Abbey, Blossburg, Tioga

IMPROVEMENTS .- Hugh Young, Esq., has repainted his dwelling on State-st;, and has broken in upon the dead-white sameness of our village. The body color is Caen stone, and the trimmings freestone. A decided improvement.

SPRING OPENING.-The Opening of Spring Millinery at Mrs. Sofield's Rooms, Wednesday and Thursday, April 29 & 30, proved a decided success. The crowd of visitors was large. She has a fine stock of Millinery and Fancy APOLOGETIC.—Owing to the influx of legal and other advertising, we are unable to get several articles of local interest. Several advertisements came too late for this, issue, also .-We again state that advortisements covering a page or two of cap paper should reach us by Saturday noon, at latest, to ensure publication in next issue of the paper.

Business .- Bodine's Steam Mill is cutting 11,000 fect of lumber per run of nine hours, with a single saw. The mill has a capacity for 15,000 in ten hours. Unward of 4000 lath are bolted and cut each day, and pickets are kept constantly on hand. The stock of this mill is estimated from a million and a half to two mil-

PERSONAL.-Mr. C. D. Chapman, formerly of Sullivan, has just returned from the West, on a visit to his friends. Mr. Chapman has purchased a farm in Southern Iowa. He is quite enthusiastip touching the West. Mr. Chapman promises to furnish us with some facts about the country where he has cast in his lot.

MAKE YOUR OWN BROOMS .- Mr. E. C. Jennings, of Charleston is the agent for the sale of Silver's Patent Excelsior Broom in Tioga county. The arrangement of the handle and holder seems to us to be admirable, and whoever , raises broom-corn can make his own brooms, better than the ordinary sort, for less than five cents each. It is a good thing, and the farmers will see it.

SAWING AS A FINE ART.—We have seen a specimen of a lot of lumber cut at Rodine's Mill, for backing pictures, which shows to what rigid exactness large machinery has been brought to operate. The lumber is basswood. 16 feet long, from 12 to 18 inches wide, and 3-16 called a board,) from one end to the other. Don't believe it can be beaten.

THE SATURDAY NEWS .- This is the title of a weekly paper just started at Bath, N. Y., by E. W. Barnes, late of the Courier of that place. by E. W. Barnes, late of the Courier of that place. It is a seven column paper, neatly printed, has a "live" local department, sound Republican, and talks out the "true blue." We apprehend no danger in the contest between Barnes, Hull and the Poeter, unless Bourbonia is brought in question. So pitch in gontlemen!

THE PRISONER MOTT.-Mott, who es aped from custody of Sheriff Potter on the cars between Williamsport and Sunbury, and was supposed to be dead, is alive and well. Sheriff Potter los a note from a gentleman living at Unadifin, stating that Mott jumped from the our window bet foremost, striking on his head and shoulders in the snow. This made him a little dizzy, but he soon recovered and set about getting rid of his shackles. He obtained a file and cut them off and then set off for Unadilla, working his pas sage. The writer says that Mott preferred death to the Penlientiary, and took the risk of jumping from the train. As the offence was not flagrant, and the young man-had borne a good reputation previously, the ends of justice do not seem to require his reclamation under requisition. The boy will do well enough if let alone.

These are lithographs trained of the five for th lithographs, typical of the faces of American women, and represent their charities, devotion, sympathies, attachments and heroism. They were lithographed in France by the most celebrated artists. They have already won the highest commendation among the American residents

IN MEMORIAM.—The Warren Mail of the 25th of April bears tidings of the death of Mrs. Cowan, wife of the Editor. . It was our good fortune to enjoy the acquaintance of this estimable woman at one period, and it is with unaffected sorrow that he hear of her departure for the Beautiful Land over the River. A gentle, unselfish unassuming woman, a true wife, and an ever thhughtful, devoted mother, she was the exemplification of all that is beautiful and attractive in home life; the social circle in which she moved has lost one of its most valued members; but nowhere will the void of her absence be so great, so oppressive, and so irreparable, as in that circle of which she was the center-the family circle. Mrs. Cowan lived for her husband and children, bequeathing her example as a priceless legacy to the world in which she moved. It is saying a great deal to say that Mr. and Mrs. Cowan fully appreciated each other. Though the blow was not unlooked for it falls crushingly upon the husband. We do not recalled to have seen a more feeling tribute to departed worth, or a more graphic picture of "the night after the funeral," than our friend gives in the following 20. extract from his notice of her passage, "over the
