

Address from the Chairman of the State Central Committee.

PHILADELPHIA, May 27, 1868. To the Voters of Pennsylvania: The National Convention of the Republican party, with a unanimity and enthusiasm unprecedented, has nominated candidates for President and Vice President and announced the principles upon which they appeal to the people for support.

No matter who the candidates in opposition may be, they must represent an organization that was faithful to the country in the hour of its direst peril and false to liberty and the rights of man.

For four years the Republic shook with the tremor of armed struggle to determine whether the majority constitutionally elected should be the law of the land till thousands in the midst of peace were slain.

In that struggle three thousand millions of treasure were wasted—three hundred thousand hero-martyrs found in our common soil their graves, and sorrow sits to-day at almost every fireside, mourning the loss of an unreturning brave.

This waste of treasure and legacy of woe was caused by the minority in a fair election, refusing to submit to the will of the majority. The majority expressed, suspended on the issue, the life of the Republic and the hopes of mankind.

The only political organization to give aid, sympathy, and encouragement to that minority in its attempt to dismember the Republic, to destroy our liberties was the party calling itself Democratic. At its last National Convention while a half-million of men were in the ranks of the Government, it declared the war for the Union a failure, and demanded an immediate cessation of hostilities.

Had the policy of the Democratic party been successful, the partial history would have written on the tombstone of the present generation an epitaph of infidelity and infamy and disgrace that would have been the Republic should die rather than endure the sacrifices necessary for it to live.

True as the book, New York is the refuge for Southern rebels. It also gives 50,000 Copperhead majority. No wonder that crime, in the garb of respectability, strikes at the security of social organization.

Republishers of the Keystone State, efficient organization secures certain victory. Your party in its infancy saved the Territory from the blight and curse of human bondage, and consecrated them forever in free homes for free men.

With truth and justice for weapons, and the hearts of the people for a work, if true to yourselves, a certain and glorious victory awaits you.

GEARY ON GRANT.—At a ratification meeting of the Union club of Philadelphia, held last week, Governor Geary spoke as follows: General Grant has been placed on the pedestal of the American people, and he is well deserving of it.

It has been my province to kinder him for twenty-one years. We were both young men together in the Mexican war. He was the same enduring hero then as he is now.

On a certain occasion, when dining with Grant at Chattanooga, after the blood had been removed he turned to me, and said: "Sir, you and your division have been the best of the best."

On an election took place in Oregon last week, when the Copperheads elected a Member of Congress and the State Legislature. A mistaken opinion has prevailed that upon the slightest pretext the duty of electing U. S. Senator.

Rev. L. W. Gibson, formerly rector of St. Matthew's (Episcopal) Church, last Tuesday, April 27th, was elected pastor of the Episcopal Church at Austin, Mower county, Minnesota, to which State he removed a few days since.

The ocean telegraph brings warlike rumors from Europe, France and Prussia being the combatants.

The rumor will be to the effect that Napoleon and Bismarck have shaken hands and "settled the hash" for a week or two.

Society in New York is in a dreadful condition if we dare believe the daily reports in the journals of that city.

True as the book, New York is the refuge for Southern rebels.
