MARBLE YARD. - Wilcox's Marble Yard, first door below Van Horn's warerooms. went into operation last week.

Notice-The Ladies of the M. E. evening of the present week at the house of Dr. A. B. Eastman on Main Street.

ICE CREAM.-Mr. & Mrs. Mordecai Sears propose to give an Ice Cream entertainment (for the benefit of the M. E. Society) at their Ico Cream rooms, next door above Dr. Eastman's on the evening of the Sociable (Wed-

M. E. CHURCH.—The foundations of the new building are being laid in the most substantial manner. We notice some huge stones on the ground, upon which the superstructure ought to stand rock-solid.

GETTYSBURG.—Our readers will read with interest the history of a day at Gettýsburg, by Rev. Willard P. Gibson, of Illinois, for some weeks a visitor at his father's and brother's in this village. The sketch will be of peculiar interest to the friends of the soldiers who fell upon the bloody field.

Notice.-John I. Mitchell, Esq. chairman of the Young Men's Republican Club, requests us to give notice that a meeting of the Republicans of Wellsboro and vicinity will be held at the club rooms under Bunnel Hall, Friday evening July 10, for the purpose of organization for the campaign. A full attendance is

THE FOURTH AT LIBERTY.—The celchration at Liberty was a fine affair, the gathering numbering about 2000 people. Everything went off without a hitch, and we take pride in reporting that little or no excess marked the day.

In our opinion it is better for the gentleman to follow the lady at a respectful distance, as a footman follows the daughter of the house. He will thus be in a position to discover all approaching danger and to fly to her defence.

The FOURTH AT LIBERTY.—The celthe gentleman to follow that I am an actual, accredited agent of Mr. Harding for the counties of Bradford and Tiogu, as may be easily verified by addressing Wm. W. Harding, Philadelphia. Very Truly yours,

E. B. CASE. THE FOURTH AT LIBERTY.—The celreporting that little or no excess marked the day. We have no reports from other local celebrations in the county.

Wood HANGINGS.-Messrs. Toles & Barker, Union Block, have samples of Hangings made from native woods, backed with stout paper. We hope these hangings will supercede wall paper, as no doubt they will in the better class buildings, soon. The first cost is not much greater than of medium grades of wall paper, and they will last a lifetime.

HEAVY STORM.-Delmar, in and around Stony Fork, was visited by a terrific storm of thunder, lighting, hail and rain, last Wednesday afternoon. The storm commenced at about 5 o'clock P. M., and continued half an hour.-The lightning was vivid, the thunder terrifle, but it must have been serious.

sands of acres upon the rolling prairie present a truly beautiful appearance. Corn is knee high and everything seems to be more forward than in

THE NORMAL SCHOOL.—We have received the annual datalogue and circular of the Mansfield Normal School for the School year ending June, 1868. From its tables we learn that the number of students of all grades registered during the year was 344. Of these 174 were males, aud 170 females. The resident graduates were three, and the Senior, or graduating class numbered 31. This is said to have been the largest class ever graduated in the Schools of the State. The Fall Term begins Sept, 2. The total expenses of a student at this School, for the School year, are $184, and no extra charges. Applications for rooms in the Normal Building should be made early, and addressed to Prof. C. H. Verrill.

THE CROP PROSPECT.—It was never sowed oats trembles in the balance. Unless we have rain soon this crop will fail. Grain sowed in March is a splendid crop, and the drouth can- | character and in despair. Boys, lookout for the not much damage it. Corn is looking well, potatoes ditto, and grass is very heavy. The hop | Be thankful, be prompt and faithful in your emcrop is also promising well. The luxuriance of ployer's business, be manly. So shall you be bethe grass crop has been favorable to the dairymen thus far, though the hill pasture will need good men and women everywhere. rain soon. A slow, soaking rain of 24 hours eral income of the producing interests.

Bunnel Hall by the ladies of the Baptist Society on the 4th, was, we are glad to say, most liberally patronized by citizens and strangers. The room beneath the Hall was neatly fitted up for the occasion and decorated with evergreens. The day was hot, the ice-cream cool and delicious, and the street the street to the control of the con and the strawberries, from Hathaway's Garden at Tioga, were superb. The Concert in the evening was a perfect jam, very many being unable to get in at all. The Band fairly outdid itself in discoursing excellent music, and the vocal music by Messrs. Webb, Jacops, Card, Mrs. Eastman, and others, was capital. We believe everybody was satisfied. The receipts of the day and evening were $156,50, netting the Society about $140. The ladies de sire to-return thanks for this liberal patronage.

MANSFIELD ITEMS .- Our correspondent "Accidental" sent us several interesting items last week, but too late for the last issue. We print herewith the report of a pic-nic held by the "Star of Hope" Society in which the children of the Soldier's Orphans' School participated by invitation. Our correspondent says: "The tables grouned with the weight of nicthings wrought by an hundred fair hands, to make glad the hearts of the children. After all had eaten their fill many baskets of fragments remained. It was a great day for the children and a great sight to see the children of the State and the children of the village, all of whom had resolved to eschew bad habits, mingling together like a common family, engaging in the sports which children love so well, and to think that only a few years will bring them into one common brotherhood of earnest, Christian men and women, wokring zealonely for the common good." gain the whole world and lose his own soul?

OBITUARY .- In Wellsboro, July 4. Mrs. Hetty Murray, aged about 95 years. When, on Sunday morning, the bell of St. Paul's tolled fifty, sixty, seventy, eighty, ninety, and upward, every citizen, every boy and girly knew that it announced the departure of "Aunt Daily Advertiser. HETTY," by many years the "oldest inhabitant' of Wellsboro. With her husband, Mr. Eben Murray, (some years deceased) she accompanied the family of Mr. William Wells to this region in ed from the wildness of nature. Aunt Hetty was a pure-blooded African. Her mother was the ington's inauguration, and half a dozen years ago remembered well many of the historic characters of the republic, and was fond of relating little anecdotes in which those characters figured.

Her love for little children was a ruling passion, and that love was fully reciprocated. None, save her near relatives, will miss Aunt Hetty so much as the little folks. For them she always kept some trifling goodies which took on a treble value when received from her hands. This, and Church will hold their Sociable on Wednesday the devotion which she inspired in the daughter > Gossip.—"You are mistaken about the law of the road, in one respect," said a gentleman to us the other morning. "How is that?" asked we. "A gentleman," returned he, "should never give his right arm to a lady; on the contrary, he should always give the left." We demurred to this that such an arrangement would Binds, Tucks, Embroiders, and works Button subject the lady to annoyance of collisions on the holes at the rate of 100 per hour. Samples and sidewalk, against which the custom of giving the right arm affords protection. "I must insist upon my rendering of the law of the road, however," replied our interlocutor; "and for this reason When a gentleman gives his left arm to the lady, it brings her nearest his heart, and besides, leaves his right arm free in her defence. In his right arm he should carry a cane, or a sword, as the guardian and defender of innocence." We saw the joke, but it was a non-plus. Thinking it over in the cool of the day we concluded that our riend's theory is partly right and partly wrong. If giving the left arm to the lady bringsher near est the heart of the gentleman, it also remove the gentleman farthest from the lady's heart, where he delights to believe he is sole tenant and monarch. We must ask our friend to extricate his theory from the impaling horns of this dilemma. In our opinion it is better for the gentleman where he delights to believe he is sole tenant and In our opinion it is better for the gentleman

From this comes the old saw—"a stich in time saves nine." It may save ninetynine; and the timely stich may save the whole
