HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA. The greatest known remedies for Liver Complaint. DYSPEPSIA, Nervous Debility.

JAUNDICE. Diseases of the Kidneys; ERUPTIONS of the SKIN, and all Diseases arising from a Dis IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Read the following symptoms, and if you find that your system is affected by drig of them, you may rest desured that disease has commenced its allace on the most important organs of your body, and unless soon checked by the use of powerful remains, a miscrable life, soon terminating in death, will be the result.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Files, of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Florid, Fulness or Weight in the stomach, Sunking or Fluttering at the Fit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Sufficiality Bensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight olivers of the Breathing for the Head, Full Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain, in the Sider, Eyes, Pain, in the Side Unset Limbs letters with the Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flush, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits. All these indicate disease of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

Hoofland's German Bitters is entirely vegetable, and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts: The Roots, Horbs, and Barks from which these extracts are indequate gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtues are extracted from them by a scientific chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this equitry to be used expressly for the himufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters. is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable. REPAIRING AND TURNING DONE

Gootland's German Conic is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitlers, with PURE Eanta trut Rund; Grange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitlers, in cases where some pure alcoholte stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cute of the discussion named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are more decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever officeed to the public. Its laste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhibitrating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known us the greatest of all tonics.

CONSUMPTION. Thousands of cases, which the patient supposed he was afflicted with this terrible disease, have been cured by the use of these remedles. Extreme emaciation, debility, and cough are the usual attendants upon severe cases of dyspepsia of disease of the disease of the granist Even in some soft genuine Consumption, these remedies will be found of the greatest benefit, averagithening and invigorating.

DEDITORY. There is no medicine equal to Honfaut's German Bilters or Tonio'in cases of Dibility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, cradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the checks, and change the patient from a thory brightfulful, twaciated, 'souk, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children nee made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered, with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.
