der McClellan was a dead loss, or a loss without a single fruitful victory. "Will some of the conundrumites put in another question?

when the vile creatures whose votes control the city of New York, 'crazed with passion, kindled destructive conflagrations, shot, stabbed, and beat inas well as by a government."

The animus of this appeal and concluding declaration was denounced by the press of the city at the time as inciting to mob violence. I was a threat of mob violence; and ten days from that day, the seed so recklessly sowed by Horatio Seymour in a genial soil. sprang up, throve, and ripened into the perhead nominee for Governor of New York. Fenton laid him out handsomeshyster party in Missouri, for Cougress. He was handsomely laid out also. Seymour has been five times a candidate for Governor of New York, and twice successful,""Blair got into the 37th Con-timore, was a 'Republican delegate to Chicago one month ago ; H. L. Cake, who printed a Douglas paper at Potts-ville in 1860, is now the able Republican Congressman from Schuylkill and Lebanon ; Gen. Tilly, who led the Doug-tas Democracy of the Tenth Legion in the same year, was a Republican' delegate to Chicago in May; Gen. John W. Geary, who carried out the Douglas doctrine as Governor of Kansas, after Reeder was betrayed, is now the Republican Governor of Pennsylvania."

The Journal of Commerce says of the Democratic platform : "This is outthe Democratic platform; "This is out-ind-out repudiation of a solemn obliga-tion, as we understand it, to pay all the bonded debt in gold." That on the question of repudiation: "the Demo-crats are boldly committed to the baser alternative, and will reap the main advantage where this heresy is fondly cherished. There is no excuse for such a proposition. It is both wicked and disgraceful. The authors know very well that the money was borrowed with the express understanding that it was to be repaid in coin, and that anything cheer up, Horatio, We' cannot spare short of this is repudiation of a solemn covenant.". The same leading Demo-cratic paper says of the candidate: "Goy. Seymour has always warmly in-sisted on the obligation to pay the bonds in gold. The platform is thus the very opposite of his well-known views.--How the two are to be reconciled it is not for us to decide."

The Columbus (Ohio) Journal gives the following sweet specimen of Demo-cratic retrenchment in Ohio: "A leg-islative session of 134 days, at $5 per day—the longest session ever held in Ohio the backet nor dimension and Ohio at the highest per diem ever paid Laws which will interfere with the a State Legislature. An adjournment to the 1st of November, with probability of a six months' session next. Near $100,000 excess of Legislative salaries wasted-the idiots, insane and other not amount to a row of pins. The Legunfortunates left with an insufficient appropriation, for the purpose of mak-ing a show of retrenchment. Tax-pay-ers, how do you like it? The expenses of the last session of the Democratic Legislature were $166,000-at least $100,-000 in excess of what they should have. been. The adjourned session will com- ery forger and utterer of naturalization mence on the 28d of November next, and will swell the whole expense of legislation for the year to $215,000. The entire expenses of the Republican Legislature last year were $93,843. Such is Democratic retrenchment."

The Louisville Journal (Dem.) of the 8th discovered a cat in the meal bag of 'man read this report and judge for him-the Tammany National Convention,— It says, of Seymour: "Yes, he "desired that the New-York delegation would not present his name to the Con- of Government. We regret to say that vention," but he expressed no such desire concerning any other delegation; on the contrary, when asked whether, if other delegations should present his name, he would still feel bound to refuse, he replied that the question pre-sented a different state of affairs from what he had, contemplated in laying his injunction on his own delegation.— This reply discloses the attitude which Seymour wishes to be understood as occupying; the attitude, that is to say ,of one who does not seek the nomination, either directly, through his own efforts, Do these scoundrels see that they are or indirectly, through the efforts of his immediato friends, but who neverthe-less stands ready to accept it, if never-theless it shall be tendered to him.— This is in fact all that he has meant or at least all that he has wished to be unamong the people? derstood as meaning at any, time. The attitude in reality is that of a wary, proud, and consciously deserving man, who wants the nomination very much, who strongly fears that he cannot get

NATIONAL BANKS AND TAXATION.— The impression that the National Banks carry on a vast and profitable business without sustaining any of the burdens of taxation, is shown to be a mistake by Mr. Allison in his recent speech on the Tax Bil. Mr. Allison ha; been at pains to prepare a table, by States, of the capital of the banks, the amount of taxes paid to the United States, and the amount paid to and ass-essed by State authorities. It is not this exhibit. The totals show that the capital employed in the National Banks of the United Stotes is 6209 and on the capital employed in the National Banks business and the amount paid to and ass-capital employed in the National Banks of the United Stotes is 6209 and on the capital employed in the National Banks of the United Stotes is 6209 and on the States of the totals show that the capital employed in the National Banks of the United Stotes is 6209 and on the capital employed in the National Banks of the United Stotes is 6209 and on the capital employed in the show that the capital emplo capital employed in the National Banks of the United States is $423,304,861; the
