Republican Meetings.

KEENEYVILLE.—The Middlebury Grant & Colfax Club will hold its next meeting at Keeneyville, Saturday evening, 15th inst. J. B. Niles & John I. Mitchell will address the Club.

The Charleston Club will hold its next meeting at the Dartt Settlement School House, Saturday evening, Aug. 15. Speakers will be present.

The Wellsboro Grant & Colfax Club will hold a public meeting in the Court House, FRIDAY EVENING, 14th inst. Hons. L. P. Williston and S. F. Wilson are expected to address the meeting. Music by the Band.

SOCIABLE.—The Ladies of the Presbyterian Church will hold their Sociable at the house of Mr. C. L. Wilcox, Thursday evening, 13th inst.

DEDICATION.—The M. E. Church at Knoxville, will be dedicated to the service of Almighty God, Tuesday Aug. 18, inst., at 10½ A. M. Rev. William Searles, of Auburn, N. J., will preach the dedicating sermon.

THE CIRCUS.—Gardner & Kenyon's Consolidated Circus, of which the newspapers speak in terms of praise, will be in Wellsboro next Monday, 17th inst. To urge people to go to a circus is like urging a hungry man to eat his dinner. See advertisement in another place.

HOP AT TIOGA.—A "Hop" for the Benefit of the Tioga Cornet Band will come off at Farr's Hotel, Friday evening Aug. 14. A general good time is promised.

PERSONAL.—J. N. Bache, Esq., of this village, reached home on Friday, on his return trip from the Rocky Mountains, via the Pacific Railroad. We are obliged to him for an Indian pipe, wrought out of a beautiful specimen of pipe-stone, and weighing about half a pound.

A VILLAIN!—Look out for a short, thickset, dark mulatto man, who is traveling the country with obscene pictures which he sells to boys. He has been in Wellsboro and done considerable toward ruining the boys of this village. A warrant for his arrest was issued, but he got away. Catch him, and put him through.

TIOGA BAPTIST ASSOCIATION.—The 20th Annual Meeting of the Tioga Baptist Association, will be held with the Tioga Church on Wednesday and Thursday, the 26th and 27th inst., commencing at 10 o'clock A. M.—Rev. N. L. Reynolds preaching the opening sermon.

HONOR TO WHOM HONOR.—The Borough Fathers are entitled to the thanks of the citizens of Wellsboro and surrounding country for graveling Main Street. From a mudhole it has raised to the excellence of a gravel road-bed, by far the finest improvement of the last ten years.

DEATH OF A TIOGA COUNTY MAN.—The Steuben Courier of the 5th has the following:

"Mr. Isaac Baker an esteemed citizen of Oceola, Pa. while on a visit to his relatives and friends at Elmira last week, met his death in a singular manner. He was stopping for the night at Wilcox's Hotel, and having occasion to get up, left his room to go out of the house. Mistaking his way, he walked off from the front balcony, falling some fifteen feet to the ground, his head striking the ground so hard as to kill him instantly. Mr. Baker was upwards of sixty years of age."

MANSFIELD.—The Furnace resumed blast on the 4st inst., with a set of workmen who can be depended upon, and who thoroughly understand the business. Mr. Lutz is still in charge.

The "Star of Hope" Society had a festival on the evening of the 4th inst., which passed off very pleasantly. The Society numbers over 100 members.

Letters from Prof. Streit bring the gratifying intelligence of his improvement in health.

A GOOD BED.—Sometime ago we purchased a bed made of birch splints, made by Mr. Elisha Graves, of Richmond. Its perfect cleanliness and its elasticity commended the bed to our judgment from the first. Use only confirms us in the estimate of its excellence then formed. Better than straw or husks, and absolutely indestructible, we prefer it to the best hair mattress ever made. Its price is within the reach of the poorest. As we paid cash for this bed this is not a puff for a consideration. Mr. Graves often brings these beds to town, and we commend them to everybody.

HAIL-STORM IN LIBERTY.—Mr. Geo. R. Sheffer, writes us from Liberty, Aug. 5, concerning a destructive hail-storm which ravaged a portion of that township, as follows:

"On Wednesday, 5th inst., our township was visited by the most destructive hail-storm ever experienced in this region. The storm appeared to gather in the southwest corner of the township, and moved with great rapidity in a northeasterly track, passing over the northern portion of Jackson, Lycoming county, and the southern half of our township. The storm was preceded by a terrible gale which prostrated the crops, and the hail, which was all the way from the size of a pea to that of a walnut, literally cut everything in pieces. Fruit, corn, oats, buckwheat, wheat, and the uncut grass, in the track of the storm, are nearly a dead loss. The destruction of gluss was very great."

This storm gathered on the Marsh Creek mountains, and passing south of Wellsboro, was visible in the direction of Liberty for an hour.

GOSSIP.—Is there a man or a woman of memory so poor, that "he or she, as the case may be," does not remember how sometimes in his or her childhood, he or she awoke in the morning, each nerve projecting (seemingly) above the surface, peevish, fretful, unhappy? Not a rag of clothing fitting comfortably; if a boy,—buttons and button-holes contrary, boots hard, stiff, and uncompromising; boot-straps broken, and everything at sixes and sevens; if a girl,—hooks and eyes, pins, pinafores,—all missing, or bent, or out of sorts; a stocking gone, shoe-strings in a hard knot, and a feeling of indescribable "unpleasantness" prevading the body and soul? If you remember such an experience, do you not also remember how, as your peevishness developed itself, your mother recommended you to "go to bed and get up right end foremost"! Our mothers were skilfull interpreters of childish inconsistencies and irregularities. They had good set terms in which to express themselves. "You got out of bed wrong end foremost"—exactly describes the "situation" which commands childhood often, and which we have faintly depicted in the outset of this gossip. Everybody remembers that on such occasions the trouble seldom departed with the morning hours, but commonly followed on like a shadow all day long. We pounded our fingers, we stepped on rusty nails, we "stubbed" our toes, we tore our new trowsers, and got spanked; and all day long mishap followed upon the swift feet of misfortune.

—Which brings us to out "mutton," and permits us to point the moral involved. That is to say: A young man may get himself up wrong end foremost in starting out in the battle of life as often as the child gets out of bed in the same reversed order. when a young man listens to the siren tongue of falsehood and folly, rejecting the counsels of men of solid character because it involves sacrifice to do right, he sets out wrong end foremost, and invites a lifetime of mishaps and misfortune. When a young man turns squarely about, and lays a big flat stone upon conscience, he sets out wrong end foremost. When a young man chooses to renounce his allegiance to principle, and espouses the wrong because it promises a pecuniary reward, he sets out wrong end foremost; and if he ally himself with men of questionable morals and more questionable enterprise, he insults the Providence which waited for him at the twenty-first milestone on the journey of life, and which will stand before him to warn and invite from evil courses, until by continued insult conscience shall shake the dust from its feet and depart from his bosom-fold forever. Ah, young man, how much easier it appears to be for you to listen to the evil whisperings of men who care nothing for you except to make you fetch and carry for their selfish aggrandizement, than it is to give heed to the counsel of men who would make you fit inheritors of the responsible trusts of human welfare; Who would shape your future so that the world would be proud of you in life, and regret you in death! We have known young men who kept the impressible side of their natures always turned to the shadow of evil counsel, and to the sun of truth and honor turned always the husk side; and not one of them has yet earned the respect of men whose respect has a value above dollars and cents.

—Again: The man who deliberately approaches a young man though his defects and weakness, is always a scoundrel; and the man who makes human weakness and miseducation his opportunity, is a murderer. Is it not written "Fear not those who kill the body, but rather those who kill the soul"?—and shall the man who deliberately ruins a soul, be less condemned than the man who cuts a throat? We say "no"; a thousand times "no"! And we say it boldly, without fear of successful contradiction and without apology now or hereafter, that the man who puts another man to his selfish uses, as a citizen or as a servant, is worse than the man who cuts a throat or picks a pocket. Because a man may survive loss of life, but never a loss of his honor and independence. The young man who parts with his money foolishly is to be pitied; but a young man who suffers himself to be flattered and cajoled out of his independence must become the scorn of all substantial men, and the puppet of the vicious.

—Again: Young man of weak will and miseducated minds often are imposed upon by the ostentation of respectable scoundrelism. Perhaps you may take exception to the adjective, young man. It is the right word, however. A respectable scoundrel, and a respectable thief, are both facts. The man who makes man's extremity his opportunity, and waxes rich in that way, is a respectable thief. And the man who presumes upon his social standing to deceive a young man to his moral damage, is a respectable villain.—Such men flourish for a season and the superficial are glad to bow at his bidding. But there comes a day when his life putrefies, and becomes a stench in the nostrils of good men. Soon or late God avenges such outrages. Soon or late the victims of such men awake to see themselves as others see them, and to be broken on the wheel of public contempt.

CORNER-STONE LAYING.—IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES.—The Corner-Stone of the new M. E. Church edifice in this village was laid with appropriate and impressive ceremonies Wednesday afternoon, 5th inst., at 2 o'clock. The attendance was large, including many persons from a distance. The day, which opened with fine promise, toward noon became clouded, and the occasional muttering of thunder in the west caused apprehension of interruption. The exercises commenced by singing the 961st hymn, followed by the Dedicatory Prayer by the pastor, Rev. O. L. Gibson. A box, hermetically sealed, was then deposited in the Corner-Stone by the pastor, who reported the contents as follows:

A Copy of the Holy Bible.
Copy of the Methodist Discipline.
Copy of the last annual Reports of the Church benevolent societies.
The Methodist Almanac for 1868.
Register of the East Genessee Conference for 1867.
Copies of the Christian Advocate," "Northern Christian Advocate," "Methodist," Tioga County Agitator," "Wellsboro Democrat," "New York Tribune," and "The World."
A historical account of the Society since its foundation in 1820, including a list of its ministers.
The Corner-Stone was laid by Rev. Wesley Cochran, Presiding Elder, who concluded the ceremony with prayer.

At this stage of the proceedings the promise of rain was so much increased that the audience adjourned to the Court House. The Court Room was densely crowded, many being unable to get seats. Here, after singing the hymn commencing—

"On this stone now laid with prayer.
Let thy Church rise strong and fair,"

Prayer was offered by Rev. J. J. Turton, of Lawrenceville. Rev. Dr. D. W. C. Huntington, of Rochester, was then introduced by the pastor, and preached from Acts 8: 3—"Therefore, they that were scattered abroad went everywhere preaching the word."

Of this discourse we find it very difficult to speak as it deserves. As an unstudied, unostentatious, extemporaneous effort, one will go far, and hear a thousand greatly inferior to one at all its equal. It evinced rare command of thought and grace of diction, and proceeded to the elucidation of the subject by the most direct modes known to logic. The teaching of the discourse was the function of man in the government of the moral universe, and illustrative of the cumulative forces of Christianity in the expansion of the system through nineteen centuries of time. We suppose no man or woman heard that sermon and did not recognize in the speaker, a pure, true, good man.

Rev. O. L. Gibson, the pastor, followed with a brief of the history of the church since its organization in 1820, a subject pleasantly presented and highly interesting to all. He was followed by Henry Sherwood, Esq., in a brief but appropriate address, in which the importance of Church enterprise in connection with temporal affairs was urged with point and vigor, closing with an appeal to the generosity of the public in support of this enterprise.

A description of the Church building as it is to be will be of interest, and we present the following particulars:

Style, cruciform.

Size on the ground, 107 feet from front on Main. st., to rear wall of Lecture room, and 56 feet front.

Dimensions of nave	56x80½ feet.
Of transept	26½x58 feet.
Height of walls	22½ feet.
Of towers	120x78 feet.
Size of towers	12x16 feet.

The towers will form the vestibules of the building.

The order of architecture resembles the Norman-Gothic.

The windows will be mullioned and stained. The audience room will be finished with chestnut, and the ceiling open roof, with dressed rafters and hammer-beams.

The architect is Mr. Cyrus K. Porter, of Buffalo. Builder, Mr. Ruel Taylor, of Newark, N. Y. Mason, Mr. E. A. Lloyd, of New York.

The contracts are let separately, and the Trustees furnish the materials. The estimated cost is $12 000, exclusive of the lumber, which is a gift to the Society. When completed the edifice will be the most notable object in our village. About 400,000 brick will be used in the towers, walls, and buttresses. The water tables, and window sills, are of hammer dressed sandstone. The work is going forward with energy and the edifice will be a monument to the enterprise of the Society and a credit to the generosity of the people of this region. Every beautiful structure is an educator, wrought for the convenience of the present, but a substantial testimonial of the taste and liberality of the builders, speaking for this in the presence of coming generations.

At the close of the exercises the pastor stated that the plans of the edifice had cost about $200, which sum was subscribed by the audience. The congregation was dismissed by Rev. W. A. Smith, pastor of the Baptist Church.

Rev. Dr. Huntington preached in the evening to a large audience, and we hear the effort spoken of in terms of high praise.

LECTURES.—Dr. Wilson & Co., of the Oweo Infirmary, are giving an interesting course of lectures, in Bunnel Hall, this village. These lectures, being intended to enlighten the public in the matter of the laws of life and health, are of great value. The Doctors likewise treat those afflicted with chronic diseases, effecting surprising cures of cases given up to die. Drs. Wilson & Co., appear to be possessed of peculiar qualifications, natural and acquired, for divining the seat of disease and for adapting remedies to its cure. In short they are masters of their profession, and none should neglect the opportunity of hearing the lectures and consulting the Doctors.

"BEE-HIVE EXCHANGE!"

I sing, I sing of a curious thing,
Almost as strange as Boggs upon Tyng;
I've swung 'round a circle as round as a ring,
And while on the down east part of my swing,
I stopped at the city and took on the Spring

STYLES OF GROCERIES

The fashions for

SUGARS ARE LOW IN THE NECK,

And more astonishing still,

Molasses & Syrups

have a freer run downward, with a funnel-shaped trail.

Mackerel,

however, are cut from the neck downward, and the style is blue and silver with stripes.

TEA——TEA——TEA——TEA!

will be prepared from a drawing furnished to every customer who buys a pound. Of the styles to suit complexions, &c., I may mention that you can have if you long for it. I cannot get time to look up all the hard words which the use to startle the innocent people about the country; but you can depend upon finding the very best of Teas at the

Black Tea

GREAT AMERICAN TEA COMPANY

BEE-HIVE EXCHANGE?

As to

Coffee,

the styles are various. You can have the latest styles from the following fashionable foreign ports, to wit:

MOCHA. JAVA, RIO, LAGUYRA JAMAICA, &C.

In the matter of

PROVISIONS!

Flour still wears hoops over all, and dispenses with trails as unprofitable. I have all grades eatable. Also,

PORK, DRIED BEEF AND HAMS,

together with a full assortment of light groceries and canned delicacies. As over
