REPUBLICAN MASS MEETINGS.

Hon. Wm. H. ARMSTRONG and Dr. Wm. C. DOANE of Williamsport, Will address the citizens of Tioga County at the following times and places:

Blossburg, Monday, September 7 at 2 o'clock, P. M. Mansfield, Monday, September 7, at 71 P. M. Lawrenceville, Tuesday, September 8, at 2 P. M Oceola, Tucsday evening, September 8, at 8 o'clock. Westfield, Wednesday, September 9, at 2 P. M. DR. WM. C. DOANE. Will address the citizens of. Wellsboro,

Monday evening, September 7, at 8 o'clock. It was found necessary to take up the afternoon Mass Meeting at Mansfield. as announced last week, and give it to Blossburg. Mr. Armstrong will speak at Mansfield Monday evening, therefore. Republicans, let no pains be spared to give wide notice of these meetings and secure a full attendance. Let the Clubs and Leagues in the several localities see to it that Mr. Armstrong has a rousing welcome.

CHURCH MATTERS.—Bishop Stevens will visit the Episcopal churches in Tioga county as follows:

Mansfield, Sunday, Sept. 13. Blossburg, Monday, Sept. 14, at which time the church Edifice will be consecrated. Lawrenceville, Tuesday morning Sept. 15. Tioga, Tuesday evening Sept. 15. Wellsboro Wednesday, at 3 o'clock, P. M. Sept. 16. _

We are pleased to learn that Mr. Charles O. Thompson has been engaged as teacher of drawing and painting in all its branches, in the State Normal School, at Mansfield. He will enter upon the work on the ist of October.

Business.-Van Horn has been adding valuable machinery to his shop on Pearl street, among which we notice a matching machine which grooves and tongues a board at one operation, and very handsomely. This machine will be of great service to builders. Messrs. Truman & Bowen have purchased Bodine's Steam mill property in this borough, and will probably enlarge the concern so as to cover new pranches of business next year. Mr. Fred K. Wright is about to build a new Gothic cottage corner of Walnut and Waln-sts., main building 20 x 32 feet with wing. Mr. Clark Dimmick is the builder.

THE PERILS OF NEW HATS.—The man who has many new hats and wears them alternately, walks the streets unquestioned. But woo to the wight who has but two hats a year; for when he puts the old one off and puts on the new, how can he escape the question -"Where d'ye yet your new hat?" Bowen of No. 1, Union Block, has got us into a bit of a scrape. Passing by the store the other day he coaxed us inside, denuding us of a dilapitated tile replaced it with a milk-white felt worth ever so much more than we can afford, and bade us depart in peace. He didn't even charge it on book. Creditors will take notice. 'We did not buy the hat, so its no extravagance to wear it. Therefore no duns will receive attention.

MANSFIELD.—The Fall term of the State Normal School commences to-day under most encouraging auspices. Miss. E. P. Dar: lington, daughter of the noted botanist of this State will fill the position of Preceptress. Miss. Darlington is an eminent teacher, having had a large and varied experience. Profs. Allen and Verrill occupy their old positions and Prof. Hoyt still presides over the Department of Music. We learn that the school building was nearly filled last week and those intending to enter should lose no time. This school has no superior, and it is said, no equal, among Normal Schools. It ought to be able to accommodate double its present number of students. We hope the Legislature will appropriate enough money to put on the new Mansard roof.

DISTRESSING CASUALTY. -- Saturday, Aug. 29, will long be remembered in Wellsboro annals for a calamity which closed the life histories of two bright and beautiful children, plunging two households into bitter sorrow, and overcasting the neighborhood with gloom. The formal relation of the details of such sudden bereavements is full of sharp thorns which wound the chronicler; yet it is a duty and must be done. At about 3 o'clock in the afternoon the quiet of our village was rudely broken by a vague but alarming rumor that two children, cousins-SADIE WHITE, youngest daughter of Hon. R. G White, and HATTIE CONE, daughter of A. P. Cone, esq., aged 12 years, respectively, had fallen into the deep water of Dickinson's Mill pond a mile below town, and were drowned. The rumor proved too true; and though kind and willing hands, and sympathizing hearts, labored for hours to bring them back to life, all of labor and obliged for many valuable suggestions, sends us sympathy was too little, and the task was reluct- a few Franklinisms, to wit: antly abandoned.
