THE GAMBLER'S LAST CARD - Horatio Seymour takes the stump. Sermour took the stump last week let us tree him next week Tuesday.

If the Republicans do their whole duty next Tuesday Grant and Colfax will carry every northern State; We regard | the talk of a madman. New York sure for Grant, in spite of Democracy. Nasby & Pogram forever! rest, with our opponents. Bear and forbest like men intent upon the discharge of a solemn duty; so shall the 8d of November be a day of comparative

If it be possible to close all places where liquors are sold, so that none be sold or furnished on election day, it is best to do it. Without whisky a fight is not easy to raise. But what is most needed is a law prohibiting the sale of whisky within three miles of polling places on election days.

FREEMEN, the hour for long arguments is past; the time for action is at hand. Not for an instant should any Republican believe that the Democracy have abandoned the field. They will never give over their attempt to grasp the reins of power until compelled to do so by the overwhelming reprobation of their baseness by freemen through the ballot box. A bare majority will elect Grant; but a bare majority is not sufficient for the salutary effect desirable to be produced. Red-handed Murder stalks the South like a destroying demon, rendering the tenure of life insecure and threatening to blot out civil law and order in eieven States. An overwhelming majority for Grapt would tend to arrest that red hand in its devilish work. For this, Republicans, we must labor. Every vote for the Grant electors is a rebuke to,rampant, heaven-defying crime. It is for the loyal men of the North to arrest the career of Murder and lesser violence throughout the land. If it be not done history will hold them responsible.

That our opponents are in the last stages of desperation is apparent. For the second time in the history of the nation a candidate for the Presidency takes the stump in his own behalf. In the former intance the act was the precursor of overwhelming defeat. In the présent instance Mr. Seymour pronounces his own political funeral oration a few days ahead of his political sepulture. "Down with the traitor, up with the Stars !"

Better for this and generations to come, that the most implacable open rebel should take the reins of power than that they should fall into the hold creatures is a moral coward. Freemen, we must send the rebel candidates to the rear of the Grand Army of the Union next Tuesday, under guard, captive by lawful subjugation, but not to be starved and poisoned as their rebel backers starved and poisoned our boys at Belle Isle, Andersonville, and Salis-

Bring forward every loyal voter next Tuesday. We are not working for bare majorities, but for overwhelming majorities. Every ballot for Grant and Colfax is a BULLET SENT STRAIT TO THE HEART OF MURDER! Every vote for Grent is A REBUKE TO VIOLENCE AND ASSASSINA-

ST. Louis, Oct. 17.—Gen. Frank P. Blair, jr., arrived here yesterday from Cincinnati, and last evening addressed some 3,000 people for half an hour from the plazza of his residence. He thanked them for the ovation extended to him by his old friends. He came before them not dismayed or discouraged. Al-luding to the recent Radical victories, ne regarded them as precursors of the lefent of that party. Democracy would win. They had everything at stake in this struggle, and if they failed the Republic would fail with them; military literary the struggle of th lictatorship would be established. Grant would never leave the Presidential mansion alive. He announced that he now expected to continue to be the candidate for Vice-President, and was ready to make any sacringe, if the people demanded it. The audience greeted him with enthusiasm.

Probably Mr. Blair was intoxicated when he gave utterance to that infamous and atrocious sentiment. But it s high time that the better disposed classes of the American people set about making these threats of assassination penal crimes. We have no hesitation in saying that the man who uses such language should be arrested and im- Potter, prisoned, without privilege of bail, until such time as the magistrate taking cognizance of the offence shall deem the offender a fit person to mingle in civlized society. Mr. Blair is mistaken. The failure o the Democratic party is not the failure of the republic. On the contrary, the failure of that party will aid to save the republic. Nor will there be a military Dictatorship in case of the failure of Seymour & Blair. Mr. Blair may not be lismayed and discouraged but he is maddened by the certainity of defeat.-The true men of the nation will not be deterred from doing their whole duty

The American people must learn to regard these atrocious threats by vioence as indicative of a spirit which must be exercised. This is an age of worse instead of better. Any word | Tickets! savoring of license to such men must be rebuked. Francis P. Blair is not heaven and its hosts. Actually, the friends of Grant & Colfax are required to put forth new efforts, to exercise increased vigilance. Evil walks while men sleep. If indolence or apathy leaves a bar down the enemy will surely find the gap and enter. To work, every man, and let there be no relaxation of effort until the votes are all polled next Tuesday.

Tioga County owes Grant, the Preserve er of the nation under Providence, a majority of 3600. Shall we pay our debts next Tuesday?

We pronounce for paying every vote of that majority. The day is coming when men will be as proud to say—"I voted for Grant!" as the old men are who say "I voted for Washington!" Forward, then, to harvest the fruits of the splendid victory of Oct. 13. In fact-it is for the Republicans to say triumphantly closed in November.-Work! Down fluttered the Seymour & Blair

The withdrawal of Seymour & Blair and the nomination of somebody—nobody that great sacrifice to have been in knows who-in their places, was talked about in high places; and the "greatest statesman," Seymour, said that any change made must include his withdrawal from the field. No use, gentlemen; your ticket is better than your principles. Chase could not have led
