[For the Agitator.] THE VOICE OF OCTOBER. Seymour and Blair will surely take care
To stop all this "cussed" vexution;
They hope, do you mind? to soon raise the wind
Bacqualising all our taxation.

Our whisky and malt, tobacco and salt, Our cabbage and also our 'tatoes;
And all that's produced, or in any way used,
If taxed, they swear to abate us. For this is the way, the Democrats say,

To lighten us up on our taxes;

Make everything share, as much as 'twill bear-By jingo! they mean to grind axes! If we turn the crank, 'twill make us feel lank,
And put on each inger a blister;
They'll lessen our taxes if we'll grind their axes—

Mr. Democrat, aint that a twister? The 3d of November you all will remember, (The people are candid and sober; That Seymour & Blair can not have the Chair-

For such is the voice of October.

A Canadian paper relates that the mayor of Brantford, while reading a written motion by one of the counselors, broke out into a loud laugh at seeing canal spelled kannell. The counselor was indignant. The mayor explained that it should be spelled canawl. Other members objected to this, and a general discussion ensued, which was finally ended by a compromise being agreed on. By unanimous vote, it was agreed that kennell is the true root—a fact in etymology apparently unknown by either Webster or Worcester.

FREBERIOR of Prussia, in the hope of securing an army of giants, one day meeting with a remarkably tall young woman, alighted from his horse, and desired her to deliver a letter to the office of his crack regiment. The missive was to the effect that the bearer was to be immediately married to the tallest grenadier in the service The young ladk, being somewhat terrified, was induced to transfer the commission to a diminutive old woman whom she met on the road, and thus escaped the arbitrary destiny.

A very little boy, after giving every-body a good night kirs, kneeled at his mother's side to say his evening prayer. He repeated "Now I lay me down to sleep," etc., and continued, "God bles-papa and mamma, and make them good Christians; God bless little Jimmy and make him a good boy." At this last sentence he was silent. His mother repeated a second and a third time; when he raised his head and said: "Every body but Bob, mamma. Boodid drows my cut to-day."

The Chinese understood the science of Making paper money pass current for during the Ming dynasty the gov ernment notes bore this indorsement "At the petition of the treasury board it is ordered that paper money thu; marked with the imperial seal of the Ming, shall have currency, and be used in all respects as if it were copper mon ey; whoever disobeys will have his head out off."

Men often lose opportunities by wan of self-confidence. Doubts and fears in the minds of some rise up over every event, and they fear to attempt who most probably will be successful through mere timorousness, while a courageous active man will, with perhaps half the ability, carry an enterprise to a properous to mination.

A young gentleman, five years of age was approached with childish endear ments by an infant of eighteen month-"Don't you see," said the mother, "the the baby wants to kiss you?" "Yes," replied young maturity, indignantly "that's because it takes me for his papa.

In an eight-cornered, catty-cornered room, a cat sits in each corner; sever cats are before each cat, and a cat sit on every cat's tail. How many cat are there in the room?

The American Cooking Stove.

A FTER twenty years experience in the manufacture of stoves, we became convinced, some six years since, that a vast amount of money was being expedded by the people of this country, in unying cheap and worthless stoves, a large portion of which was wasted; and that true economy consisted in buying the best stoves that early he wade next that anylong the price.

that could be made, notwithstanding the price was higher. With this view we proceeded to this manner we do not hesitate to say, we have brought it to a higher state of perfection than has heretofore been attained in cooking stoves. The recent improvements in this stove has added largely to its convenience and effective ness. In all the varieties of stoves we manu facture, we study usefulness, durability, convenience and economy in operation, rather than cheapness in price, and in so doing we are satis fied we study the interest of those purchusing our stoves. SHEAR, PACKARD, & CO.,

To the Farmers of Tioga County.

I AM now building at my manufactory, in Lawrence ville, a superior

FANNING MILL,

which possesses the following advantages over allother

which possesses the tolowing advantages over all other mills:

1. It separates outs, rat litter, and foul seeds, and chess and cockle, from wheat.

2. It cleans flax seed, takes out yellow seed, and all other seeds, perfectly.

3. It cleans timothy seed.

4. It does all other separating required of a mill.

This mill is built of the best and most durable timber, in good style, and is sold cheap for cash, or produce.

duce.

I will fit a patent slove, for separating oats from wheat, to other mills, on reasonable terms.

OF THE WAR,

Its Causes, Character, Conduct and

By HON. ALEXANDER H. STEVENS.

A Book for all Sections and all Parties.

This great work presents the only complete and impartial analysis of the causes of the War-yet.published, and gives those interior lights and shadows of the great conflict only known to those high officers who watched the flood-tide of revolution from its fountain springs, and which were so accessible to Mr. Stephens from his position as second officer of the Confederacy.

To a public that has been surfaited with AP-PARENTLY SIMILAR PRODUCTIONS, we justice so urgently demand. The intense desire every where manitested to lished.
