village had a little excitement last Wednesday' and Thursday, in the shape of a trial for houseburning. Mr. O. A. Carpenter, late a citizen of monwealth failed to make out a case, and Mr. Carpenter was discharged from custody Thursday morning. It is but just to say that Mr. Carpenter bore a good reputation as a citizen and a man, among his neighbors, while residing in Brookfield. Not having been present at the examination we only present the fact of Mr. Carpenter's arraignment and the result.

BORDER NEWS .- We condense from the Troy Gazette the following items: Mr. Henry Whitman, of Canton, tell from staging on the 23d ult., and broke his arm. A barn owned by M. F. Black, at Canton was burned down on the 22d ult. The fire arose from a heated bearing of a threshing-machine, and spread with such rapidity that the horses were barely rescued. Gossip.—"Let your communications - be yea, yea, and nay, nay," has a deeper signification than at first appears. The obvious teaching is," truth, at all times, and without qualification or concealment." It means more than this, however. It is an exhortation to promptness and square dealing between man and man. On a former occasion we discoursed upon the virtues of punctuality. We are not aware that anybody dissented from the sentiments therein expressed nor that those sentiments, univirsally assented to worked the reform of the world. That, however, was not expected.
