No great good is ever achieved without effort or without cost. Four years of patriotic struggle and sacrifice, Half a Million of men slain in battle or dy ing of the privations and exposure War, Millions of bereaved ones, Five Billions of property destroyed, and nearly Three Billions of Debt incurred, attest the magnitude of the contest and the unyielding valor of the combatants. At length, the smoke rises from the once see that the approaching townhard-won field, showing that the last ship elections are of great importance. It was laid by until the very last hours election of Grant and Colfax gives assurance that the storm is over—that the Bow of Promise arches the sky. There are still obstacles to surmount, perils to avert, noble ends to be achieved; but the nands of Republicans with some the ship of State, has ridden out the There must be no unreliable men plactempest and has her haven full in view. has continued to circulate a greater number of copies than any other newspaper in the country. We appreciate this confidence, and shall labor to retain it. Its previous attractions will be continued and increased. The main features of our Weekly will be agriculture, literature, politics, and the markdaily news. We have made special arrangements to increase its usefulness as Club will be fully reported, and special articles on agricultural topics contribu-ted by the best writers. No farmer who desires to till the soil with profit, and to know the progress constantly made in the science of his calling, can afford to neglect the advantages of a newspa-per like The Weekly Tribune, espe-cially when it unites with agriculture; other features of interest and profit. The Weekly Tribune contains a summary of all that appears in The Daily and Semi-Weekly editions, while in addition it is made to address itself to the wants of the great farming class. Reviews of all the new publications, and of all that is new in music and the fine arts; letters from all parts of the world-some of them of rare interest to the farmer, as showing the progress o agriculture in other countries; editorial e-says on all topics of home and foreign interest, together with full and care fully reported reports of the markets. will be furnished from week to week and at a lower price than that of any newspaper in America. WEDNESDAY, JAN. 13, 1869. We are obliged to Surveyor General Campbell for a copy of his Annual Report for 1868. Also, to Mr. Wickersham, State Supreintendent of Schools, for a copy of his Annual Report for 1867-8.

The political pottage has been cooked and distributed at Harrisburg, since our last paper before this was made up. Mr. John Clark, of Philadelphia, was man of unblemished integrity and fine the former, whenever those who fought against the Union shall have in good faith given up the contest early from the contest, expressing himearly from the contlest, expressing himself satisfied with Mr. Clark.

JOHN SCOTT, of Huntingdon, was nominated by acclamation for U.S. Senator, Messrs. Grow, Scoffeld, and Moorhead having withdrawn from the contest. Mr. Scott is about 45 years of age, has never been a politician, and is in no sense of the term a office-seeker. As a lawyer he occupies a first position, having few equals, and fewer superiors, in the State. His integrity has never been brought in question. His political antecedents are Democratic. he, like John Cessna, having attached himself to Lincoln's Administration hished every morning, Sundays except in the outset of the war. Like Cessna ted. Terms, $10 a year; $5 for six he represents the Radical element, and will heartily co-operate with Senator CAMERON in the Senute. In common with others who desired Mr. Grow's nomination and election, we regarded such a result not only desirable but polttic; but if the place could not go to a Northern Pennsylvanian we'are entirety satisfied with the result. Mr. Grow, behaved handsomely throughout, and it does, the verdict of war and the procomes out of the contest without loss of gress of republican principles, upon prestige.

Geary and the State officers who so ably second his efforts to lift the good old Commonwealth out of the slough of debt

The assets of the Sinking Fund consist of bonds of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, $6,400,000; and bonds of the Philadelphia and Erie Railroad Company, $3,500,000. These bonds, bearing no interest, the Governor recommends to be sold to the highest bidder, and the proceeds to be upplied to the liquidation of the State debt. As the bonds do not mature for many years, it is not likely that any bidder will offer more than the principal less the interest at 6 per cent. discounted, for the balance of the time they have to run. These bonus ought not to be sold for a less sum. If sold a that figure the State will be the gainer by stopping interest on so much of the debt as the proceeds will liquidate. But

The public dent on the 1st day of December 1867, was $37,704,409,77. On ary, 1869, at two o'clock P. M., for confirmation and allowance. the lat day of December 1868 it was $33,286,946,13. Of this sum, as stated, almost $50,000 is depreciated funds, which has been carried forward on the Treasurer's accounts for eighteen years. The Governor recommends that the cum testamento annexo of the Estate of Joseph Legislature appoint a Committee to examine into these depreciated funds and dispose of them to the best advantage for the treasury. He also recommends that any surplus moneys in the treasury be applied to the liquidation of portions of the debt from time to time, and so stop the interest which would have to be paid at maturity. This plan seems to us, and will strike the people, as wise and proper. There should be no large balance in the treasury, unappropriated. And if the debt can be paid before it matures, and not cost too cal integrity. He adverts to the watchfalness of the people, and says that they are ever ready to strike down all who are not ready to take effective action in measures of radical reform; that the money paid into the treasury is the property of the people, every one of whom has a just right to hold his representative to a strict accountability for every dollar that may be appropriated or expended." Truer or more timev caution was never given; and Governor Geary is justified in urging retrenchment upon the Legislature, which, in its haste, has not legislated wisely in more respects than one. The recommendation to greater deliberation in the passage of the annual appropriation bill deserves the praise of candor and justice. The Governor last year requested time to examine the general appropriation bill before signing it, but lost the wise and proper with the extravagant. He now repeats the request, the draft of another law. In conclusion, the Governor congratulates the people upon the settlement of certain questions and their removal from the arena of politics; upon the election of Gen.
