THE BOROUGH ELECTION,-The strugterrific, casting the Presidential election into dense shade. Not less than three full and straight tickets were offered to the choice of our electors; two of them Republicans, and one Democratic .-The successful ticket was nominated in caucus the Tuesday evening previous, and is as follows:

Burgess-Lucius Truman. Council-Chester Robinson, Geo. Derby.

Constable-Win. B. Van Horn: School Directors-John I. Mitchell, R. B. Webb Judge of Election-Josiah Emery.

Inspector-E. J. Purple. Auditor-Geo.-W. Merrick. Assessor -- David Sturrock.

Mr. Derby, for Councilman, was substituted for Mr. J. R. Bowen, the caucus nomince, the latter having refused to serve. For Constable, Mr.

Van Horn had no opposition. The humors of the canvass were varied and unusual. Several of the most noisy actors in the nomination of the successful ticket, finding nobody to quarrel with, set up another ticket and undertool to break down their first-love. In view of this fact we urgently recommend to His Honor, the Burgess elect, that he appoint one of the bolters to some position in the new government where he can perfect himself in the art of carrying water on both shoulders, so that, in the time to come, he may be able to accomplish that difficult feat made Collector of this Port for the ensuing year. They were the last words he ever uttered. His

I see by the Agitator that ome of our old friends in Tioga county want to sell, probably to come west. Did I own one of their farms I should stay there. I like this country, but it will take from $5000 to $10,000 to buy a farm of 160 acres, in this locality, with no great improvements.

OBITUARY.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of Rev. John Shaw, which took place at Himrod, N. Y., Saturday night, Jan. 16, inst .-We append a lettr, from his son, Capt. J. H. Shaw, in which some account of his last moments are given. It is under date of Jan. 21,

"Ao many of our friends in Wellsboro and vicinity know that I came here a week ago, summoned by a dispatch, stating that father was dying. I will write you a brief account of the last hours of one who, we believe, had many friends among the readers of your paper.
"I reached home Saturday, 16th, at 4 P. M., and found that though the taper of life burned low in the socket, still it was bright. Father had expressed an carnest desire to live until I came, and they were giving him stimulants for that purpose. After he had greeted me, he seemed entirely willing to go. He had no apprehensions in regard to the future, and said to a clorgyman near him—"Although the waters are hensions in regard to the future, and said to a clergyman near him—"Although the waters are cold, yet will I venture in, and though darkness surround me, there's a light ahead." He failed rapidly after I reached him, but there was no pain, no suffering. For a few moments, after eleven o'clock he was pressed for breath, but it was soon over, and he lay as calin as though in a natural sleep, while his short, feeble breath, alone, denoted that the soul was about to take wing.
