MAGIO POLISh.-Mr. F. M. Butler, of Delmar, is the proprietor of a Magic Polish for boots and shoes, as well as for harness. From what we are able to judge it is the best polish in use. Mr. Butler deserves to make something handsome out of it and we hope he may do it. It is said to be water proof.

of Scars & Derby in this village. Hurry up. PROFITABLE DAIRY.-Mr. Bateman Monroe, of Sullivan, last year kept a dairy of 13 old cows and 3 two-year-old helfers-equal to 15 head. From the milk of these cows he made $1040 worth of butter for market, and from the buttermilk realized, in calves and pork, $135.

helfers as cows of full growth. We do not know how this looks to other people, but to us it looks as if Mr. Monroe kept no dead-, heads in his dairy last year, and managed it with great skill. We call that investing money at 6 percent, per month. If any other man in Tioga can show a clearer balance sheet for 1868 we are ready to help him before the public.

THE LEGISLATURE. - Mr. Strang read in place a bill to correct a clerical error in the act relative to the eligibility of the officers of the Tioga R! R. Company, confirming the acts and proceeding of the directors and managers of said the fact that members had franked heavy packages, the postage on which amounted to $5, and asked for the cussation of the practice: The way to stop that sort of thing is to expel any member guilty of so gross a theft of the public moneys. If Mr. Wilson be true to the best interests of the Commonwealth he will give the name of the offending parties that they may be held up to public scorn and reprobation.

LOOK OUT FOR HIM!-We have received the following letter, which tells its own

"Will you publish the following for the benefit of the community at large?

"Alight complexioned colored man, calling himself "Wm Shorter," slim built, and about 35 years of age, has imposed upon the Baptist Church, and the citizens in general, on Troup's Creek. He represented himself as a Baptist Beautiste builting from Virginia, and formerly a Creek. He represented himself as a Baptiet licentiate, hailing from Virginia, and formerly a slave. He is passing through the country, raising means, as he says, to educate himself at Oberlin College, Ohio, in preparation for the ministry. He raised, here, four or five dollars. Calls himself a single man; we have learned, however, that he has a wife not far away. This was proved by witnesses who know him. He imposed upon the people of Alfred, Hornellsville, and Woodhull and was advertised in the Addison and Corning papers. By a vote of the Bantist and Woodhull and was advertised in the Raptist and Corning papers. By a vote of the Baptist church here this warning was ordered to be published, branding the fellow as an impostor.

"J. H. FISH, Clerk."

Of course the public will defend against this impostor. The better plan; is to let men earn their education, and so refuse to contribute money for each purposes. A man who begs his way through college is not apt to be worth much to Churches or community when he is graduated. We regret that any colored man should thus place new obstacles in the path of the difficult progress of his race. But rascality, unlike legislatures, knows no race or color.

THE COURTS .- Among the cases tried and determined last week the most notable were Com. vs. Lowis, assault and battery, doft. pleaded guilty, and was fined $10 and costs. dom. vg. Steele and others, assault and battery defts fined $30 und costs. Com. vv. Latimer larcony, acquitted. Com. vs. Kelly, larceny deft. pleaded guilty and sentenced. Com. vs. William Connolly, A. J. Smith, conspiracy to defraud creditors, true bill, and settled on payment of costs. Same vs. B. C. Hart and Edwin Dewey, same offence, settled by leave of Court. Same vs. Edwin Dewey, perjury, nol. pros. Same ys. John Berlew, malicious mischief; deft. acquitted and costs divided between parties. Same vs. B. C. Hart, False Pretences; deft. acquitted and to pay costs. In the matter of Phelps and

In the matter of hotels, only three were licensed to sell intoxicating drinks, of all that applied in the county. To the three licensed no opposition was made. In every case, where the was made. In every case where the people of the locality remonstrated , the Court refused to license, and deserves, as it will 'receive, the thanks of the vast majority of the well wishers of thanks of the vast majority of the well wishers of two stories in hight; 28x80' feet. Considerable excitement reigned in our usually quiet streets during the week, growing out of the return by the constable of the upper Drug Stores for selling liquor without license. Nearly two dozen witnesers were subpoensed and secured, but as many more fled the constable, and remained in hiding until the matters were disposed of. The evidence, we learn, before the Grand Jury, was positive and abundant, and the hiding of the parties alluded to was an open confession of guilt. The Grand Jury, however, however, by the confession of guilt. The Grand Jury, however, see'y, David H. McIntyre, Treas. The posed of. The evidence, we learn, before the confession of guilt. The Grand Jury, however, while freely admitting that the parties were guilty of numerous violations of the law, refused Feb. 18, 1869, to consist of plays, character, to find true bills, on the ground, chiefly, that the singing, &c. For particulars, refer to the local. law is a bad one. We call the attention of Attorney General Brewster to this verdict, and beg him to send all doubtful laws to this county, where we fill the jury wheel with Constitutional 894 the result lawyers. you that in the process of the age, able solld globe, if it be not a hollow sphere, will become incandescent, and finally resolved into its constituent gases? The payest theory is, that at one period, a distant one, say some millions of years ago, this earth was much smaller than it is now, and extremely dark and cold. As the ages swept on, it is said, the earth passed, as it now passes, through vast spaces filled with meteors, which, coming in contact with the earth, took fire and fell in ashes upon its cold, dark surface. Thus, the earth grow from accretion, and as it and fell in ashes upon its cold, dark surface. ALSO-Stoves suitable for burning hard or soft coal, will be furnished to order. Oustomers of all sorts. Thankful for liberal patronage in the past, I respectfully soileds a continuance of Sept. 16, 1868. WM. ROBERTS.

The American Cooking Stove All articles of value and established reputation have their imitations. Manufacturers who have not the brains to inventor the enterprise to establish a reputation for themselves, seek to appropriate the inventions and reputations of those who have. The American Cooking Stove, for instance, has obtained a world-wide reputation. Messrs. Shear, Packard & Co. have spent tion. Messrs. Shear, Packard & Co. have spent seven years in improving and perfecting this stove, till it is almost perfect as a stove, and they have spent large amounts in advertising and bringing its merits before the people. There have been numerous imitations of it, and they have been compelled to bring five suits against different parties for appropriating their patented improvements, all of which have resulted in their favor. The last phase of these imitations is one similar in design and almost an exact imitation of the name, only one letter left out. These spurious imitations are sought to be palmed off upon the public as a genuine article. This is in violation of their rights; and they have commenced a suit to restrain the sale of these fraudulent articles; and they propose to these fraudulent articles; and they propose to proscente all infringements and imitations till others cease from appropriating and imitating their improvements.
