THE VALUE OF HUMAN LIFE.

The sanctity of human life varies as widely as men themselves. The Thug of India may be supposed to represent the lowest regard for it; the murderer in Christian lands, not being professionally a murderer, may claim to stand a step higher. The Alexanders and Napoleons, the Charles the Twelfths and the American Indian, may take a little higher rank. The highest estimate put upon human life will be found only among men and women of culture, either mental, moral, spiritual, or all, We are not reminded of these things by the prevalence of acknowledged crime alone. The man who makes a glutton of himself, and the man who keeps himself pickled with whisky, each, exhibits a wanton disregard for the sanctity of human life. However, it was not the recklessness of the glutton and drunkard which moved us to write the caption foregoing. In fact, it seers of election in any district where was nothing occurring here, or hereabout, which set us to reflecting upon the varying degrees of regard for the long to the same political party the lives of men and women. Rather, it overseers shall be of the opposite party, was the relation of a most painful oclives of men and women. Rather, it currence in the Clinton Republican,

Up to this time we have not seen an objection to any measure intended to prevent frauds in elections, raised by any but the Copperheads.— When it is considered that some 60,000 fraudulent votes were east for Seymour in New York State last fall, and more than 1800 in Philadelphia at the State election, the necessity of the law, as well as the reason for Copperhead abuse of it, will be readily comprehended. The man who sits as Mayor in Philadelphia to-day was elected by fraudulent votes. Gov. Hoffman, of New York; undoubtedly owes his position to fraudulent voting. What more natural than that the party of frauds should protest against laws for the prevention of frauds? The Registry law is not oppressive to any but those who

EDITOR AGITATOR :- The sixteenth Annual Session of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars of Pennsylvania will com-mence in the city of Scranton on Tuesday, 8th day of June next, at 10 A. M. It is confidently expected that the coming Session of this important organization will be one of universal interest. With upward of six hundred Lodges of the order in this State, it is probable there will be unward of 1000 Representatives and Delegates in ttendance. As Tioga county stands in the first rank in this department of good work, I send for information of the members of the order, the fol-lowing extract from a circular, issued by Hon. S. B. Chase, the G. W. C. T., for Penna.:

"The representatives to this session must be elected by the respective Subordinate Lodges at the first regular meeting in May.

"A representative must be a Third Degree member, and a member of the Lodge he represents. No Lodge can be represented by any but its own members, and a transfer of membership shall vacate a representative's seat." Cons. Act
