LAND AGENCY.-Mr. James M. Bunnel, of Charleston, is the General Agent of the North Carolina Land Company for New York and Pennsylvania. This Company advertises 117 Plantation of valuable lands, each more or less improved. Those who want to go South will do well to examine Mr. Bunnel's lists.

WASHING-MACHINE. - Mr. Ira A Newhall, of Crooked Creek, has obtained a patent for a new and improved Washing Machine, which is said to be an excellentthing. It cleanses the clothes by forcing the hot suds through them, does not wear the clothes by abrasion, and is cheap. We wish Mr. Nowhall success.

PERSONAL.-We see by the Petaluma (Cal) Argus, that Rev. Geo. H. Jenks, formerly Rector of St. Paul's in this village, is meeting with great encouragement. Two years ago the church was nearly double in capacity, and the vestry has decided to again increase its capacity 24 slips to meet the demand. His friends will learn of Mr. J's. success with pleasure. CHERRY FLATS.-A correspondent

"Our village is improving this Spring. We have a Sunday School, of which Mrs. Laura Wheeler is Superintendent; and a Lodge of Good Templars, which meets every Saturday night. Dr. Martin is building a house, and Mr. Wheeler has built a neat fence around his lot. Decoration Day was observed by our people. It was a solemn and sad occasion, especially to the

WESTFIELD LOCAL.-Our village is improving. Messrs, R. & N. J. Krusen have each built a new picket fence and painted their houses. TEMPERANCE CELEBRATION. - The Good Templars propose to unite in a celebration at Lawrenceville, July 2. Extensive preparations are on foot to render the demonstration imposing and effective. The fact that Hon. S. B. Chase, 0. W. C. T., of the Order in Pennsylvania is to be present and deliver the Address, will nttract all who wish to hear one of the most effective champions of Temperanco. The point is admiably chosen, and the substitution of Cold water for whisky in a colobration of the nation's birthday strikes us us a measure most radical. It is be on the ground, as well as the hundreds of temperance men and women who are not connected with any organization. Let the occasion be one to be remembered in the annals of tem-

THE BUTTER MAKERS. - "Mrs. R. M.," writes us from Michell's Creek as follows: "We were interested, last Fall, in the account published by you, of the amount of butter made by some of our Tiogo County Butter Makers, and thought perhaps some of your readers would be interested to know how much some others have made. Last year we milked two cows, one three the other eight or nine years old, from which we made three hundred and thirteen pounds of Butter, besides using cream freely on strawberries and for other purposes. The hot, dry weather, and our cellar both being very unfavorable part of the time. This year we made during the month of May, from the same cows, eighty-eight and three-fourth pounds of nice hard butter. In addition to this we sold seventy cents worth of milk, besides the cream that was used is a small family. This was done without in-fringing on the preceding or succeeding months." -Perhaps somebody can think of a more profitable way to invest $100 than in two cows. We

CLOSE OF SCHOOL.—The Spring Term of the Academy closed Friday evening with appropriate exercises. The house was fearfully jammed, and the air was fearfully mephitic, but we must accord to Mr. Stone the high resides to Captain Peter Keltz came on to the Tioga river and located at Mansfield, in 1805—just 64 years ago. He now resides here, is equite hale and healthy, and works more hours than a majority of the younger inhabitants. Any person desirous of learning how our forefathers lived and worked, can glean much from him.

Of the dialogues, "All is not Gold that Glitters" was best in toaching. Mr. Goo. Langdon's orations in high life. We don't want to encourage Mr. Langdon in that direction, but it is no less, true that his power of control is sufficient to make him an effective speaker. The music, by Misses Matic Stevens and Ada Bush, was chaste, well selected and well rendered. The arrangement of the exercises was a credit to Misses, and the exercises was a credit to Misses was a credit to Misses. the exercises was a credit to Mr. Stone, and the entertainment was a credit to the young men

Mr. Stone retires from the school, and it is doubtful if it will be resumed at present. The attendance has not been remunerative of late nor will it be until the patrons will conset to a union of rigid discipline and capacity. The building is going to ruin, its surroundings are terrible in their desolation. Altogether, to revive the Acadomy will prove a work of magnitude. Where is

At half past three, P. u. Sanday, 30th ult., the itizens of this Boro and vecinity met at the M. E. Church, according to previous afrangement, and formed in procession under direction of Mr. Wm Hollands in the following order: Orator and Clergy; Soldiers Orphans; Soldiers Widows; Soldiers, Choir, and citizens; and marched to the graveyard to decorate the graves of soldiers. The committee on flowers, Mrs. S. B. Elliott, Mrs. J. P. Morris, Mrs. J. R. Wilson, Mrs. M. L. Clark and Mrs. Wm Hollands, faithfully executed their part of the work, and as each grave was decorated, an eulogy on the service and death of the fallen hero, was pronounced by gentlemen selected for that purpose. The oration was delivered by Prof. F. A. Allen at the Cemetery, and was a fitting tribute to the patriot dead, full of feeling and treasured memories, and the graves were again bedewed with the tears of a chastened but redeemed and grateful people. The choir sang appropriate music, and the opening and closing prayer was delivered by Rev. J.S. Palmer (Universalist) the only minister in attendance. But the most beautiful part, and on challenging the poblest sympathies of the human light was that or the children of the Orphan School, in to be hoped that every Templar who can go will uniform and to the number of over 100 marching in sections, with flowers and wreaths to strew upon the graves of the sleeping heroes. Great Improvement in Densistry HAVING purchased the exclusive right of Dr. Folsom's Improved patent Atmospheric Dental Plates for Tioga County. I now take pleasure in offering it to the public as the greatest DIS-

COVERY vet made i Mechanical Dentistry. By the use of which, we can overcome any any and all difficulties which have heretofore baffled the skill of the most practical Dentist in the world. Plates constructed upon this plan remain perfectly firm under all circumstances or condition of the mouth, as no air, or particles of food can possibly get under them. Those having old styles, Gold or Rubber Plates, can, at half the cost, have the Improvement applied to them answering in every respect the same purpose as as a new set. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed in overy case.

ITHAGA WHEEL RAKE.

THE undersigned, a practical farmer, is offering this implement to the farming public with perfect confidence in its superiority to any other rake in use. The teeth are oil-tempered spring steel and fully warranted not to break with fair usage. By an ingenious arrangement the loaded rake is easily discharged by a foot treadle and hand lever, and the pressure of the teeth man, the ground can be executed can are at the second can be executed. treadle and hand lever, and the pressure of the teeth upon the ground can be exactly gauged by the foot. Every tooth is independent of every other tooth, and the head being movable the rake adapts itself to every inequality of the ground. It rakes clean, is simple, strong and lasting. To try it is to buy it.

I refer the public to the following persons who have the rake in use: R. Toles, Chatham; Chancy Ackley, Clymer;
E. H. Stebbins, Clymer; J. W. Davis, Brookfield;
Isaac Thompson, Kelsey Erway, Harrison Valley,
