

The Agitator.

WELLBORO, PENN'A. WEDNESDAY, JULY 28, 1869.

Republican Nominations.

FOR GOVERNOR— GEN. JOHN W. GEARY, OF VERNON COUNTY.

FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT— HON. H. W. WILLIAMS, OF ALLEGANY COUNTY.

COUNTY. B. B. STRANG, ASSEMBLY.

THE Campaign Agitator. We will furnish the Agitator from August 4 to October 15 for 25 cents a copy.

What will become of the Copperhead and rebel cry of a "nigger" now? The Democracy of Virginia have elected three colored men to the legislature.

Who's the Wellboro Correspondent of the Enquirer? A while ago the cry was "who is he?" Now it is "where is he?"

The Pittsburg papers openly charge that Packer paid $100,000 for his nomination, thus defeating Cass, the candidate of the western part of the State.

Gov. GEARY was nominated on the first ballot, by a vote of 25, to 8 for all other candidates.

Our Republican Administration, in its four months of office, has discharged thirty millions of the National debt.

THE OUTLOOK. If a wise and economical administration of public moneys, and a steady and systematic decrease of the public indebtedness entitle a magistrate to encouragement and support, then Gov. Geary has the first and highest claim upon the people of Pennsylvania.

The expenses of the government and the lifting of the State debt are accomplished without strain upon the lesser proprietors.

The Copperhead papers complain that in looking over Geary's record for the last 20 years they can find nothing in his favor.

Mr. Stone, renominated for Auditor, is a first-rate officer, and deserving of the trust reposed in him.

Mr. Cameron, nominated for Treasurer, is one of our most active young men, and a first-rate accountant.

Mr. Deane, our present efficient Register and Recorder, very properly renominated, is one of the most careful, correct, and efficient officers in the State.

Mr. Heggie, for Coroner, is one of the most enterprising of our young medical men, capable and deserving.
