Of the political state of affairs in Pennsylvania the New York Commer cial Advertiser says:

Packer has nothing to recommend him but his bank account. He is old, infirm, and past his metalness. Cov. Geary, the Republican candidate, has served the country as a statesman and a soldier. He is energetic and progresssive. The issue in the canvass in Pennsylvania will be dollars, age, and im-

An Iowa paper reports that as a man and in the press of his vast business and his wife were at work in a field in operations, forgets to return the loan. that State, their child, which was in a basket near them, was heard to cry, and the husband asked his wife to go utinutes, and then, to her horror, found, her child dead, with a large snake to a sharper who lets him money at 10 coiled around it. The husband, in the per cent. trenzy of his anger and grief, struck his wife with a hoe which he held in his hand, and killed her instantly.

It is stated that Asa Packer intends to devote one million of dollars, out of the twenty he is reputed to own, to the Pennsylvania this fall. A million of dollars will pay for a great many mass meetings, with plenty of brass bands and indefinite whisky. If the money was divided up among deserving Democrats, there would be one hundred dollars each for ten thousand of them, or ten dollars apièce for one hundred thousand. It is a great thing for a party to have a rich candidate. Who wouldn't he a Packer man?—Bucks Co., Intelli-

H. T. AMES, Esq., of Mainsburg has gone to Williamsport to practice law. He may be found in Judge Maynard's office. Mr. Ames is a thoroughly educated young man, of fine talents, and deserves to succeed.

Hon. Samuel Linn, late President Judge of the Center Judicial District. has entered into a co-partnership with Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong, of Williamsport. This constitutes a strong firm, which will command a full share of the law practice in that section of the State.

The Elmira Advertiser is at a loss to know what is meant by what the papers in the Pennsylvania Anthracite region call "striking for a basis." It to fix the mininum market price of coal. For further particulars examine your coal account next fall.

Asa Packer was born in Connecticut. Two year ago, when Judge Williams of Pittsburg was nominated against Sharswood by the Republicans, the Coppery papers called him a carpetbagger, because he was born in Connecticut. We are waiting to hear from the same papers about carpet-bagger Packer. Or is our ox gored this time?

But such men are comparatively white, contrasted with the swindlers who talk of repudiating the public indebtedness to its ditizens and others. debt contracted by the Government in putting down the rebellion. The leading Democratic papers, everywhere, advocate repudiation in some form.

We are not prepared to say that the Democratic party is inconsistent in this. The debt was contracted in the effort to reduce that party to subjection. Its southern, and largest-half, was in arms against the Government, and the northern wing, by its leaders, was thoroughly the Democracy of Pennsylvania, 'Ohio call on, or address H. M. And then, a great share of the Confederate debt is held by the British aris- you libeler of "the sex." — Cuba True Patr tocracy; that aristocracy at whose feet the Democratic leaders, north and south, groveled in 1863, begging them to interpose and stop the further shedding of blood! Who can doubt the love of the Democratic leaders for the British aristocracy? True, in old times, Democratic mothers used to frighten naughty threats to let a "Britisher" eat them. That is all over. All Britain cannot boast of a prouder host of aristocrats than Belmont and his clan of Democratic leaders in this republic. We hear no cry about British bondholders, because they hold the bonds issued by Jefferson Davis in payment for pirate ships, and as security for loans to the rebels in the hour of need. We do not find it difficult to account for the "perfect understanding" which appears to exist between the Democracy of the United States and the aristocracy of the Old World. Do you?

It was generally conceded that the election of Gen. Grant was a defeat of the schemes of the repudiators. The question was squarely put last fall and as squarely met and answered. Still the question-"Shall we pay our honest debts?"-seems to be forced again to the surface by the Democracy. Such questions never arise among honest men. Thieves, cheats, and professional swindlers usually answer the question in the negative, honest men never ask it; and when met by it ever reply with a single word-YES.
