CORNING ITEMS.—We clip from the Journal:

C. C. B. Walker was thrown from his buggy a few day since by the starting of his horse, when driving him upon the track, and had his ankle sprained badly, so that he was unable to be around for nearly a week.

A few days ago, a young man who has been quite dissipated, and has tried to reform, became despondent in consequence of his fruitless efforts to abstain, and took laudanum to kill himself. Fortunately he did not succeed. The poor fellow is to be pitied. He struggles hard to resist his appetite, and might succeed, but he thinks he can occasionally "take a drink." The result is that he gets drunk, and when he becomes sober he is in despair.

BRADFORD.—The Troy Gazette has the following items of interest to Tioga people:

Mr. L. Putnam whom we noticed as losing a horse and buggy through the avaricious tendencies of W. H. Knight, horse thief, started in pursuit of the missing animal last week, and after considerable trouble, succeeded in tracing it via the Block House settlement where Knight hung around for several days pretending to buy sheep and cattle, and getting farmers to drive their stock down for his inspection, would go off and leave them, promising to call again. He was followed to a place near Jersey Shore, where he sold the horse and buggy for a two-year old colt and $45. The man who bought them immediately sent the horse away and took the buggy to a carriage shop to have it repaired and repainted as if fearful he might lose it through identification. It was found and identified after about forty dollars in repairs had been laid out on it. Knight took the two year old colt and traded it for a watch worth about fifteen dollars, and after having his bill at the tavern unpaid, struck out for freedom and independence up the towpath of the canal. His wife still remains in town.

The same paper has a sprightly Wellsboro correspondent who sends it the following:

Mr. Samuel Fenton and Mr. Lewis Wetmore and family, of Charleston town-ship, left for Missouri on Monday last, with the intention of taking up land there and making that State their future home. Mr. Wetmore and family did not declare his intention to leave so soon, and not until their goods were loaded into the wagon did even their nearest relative know of their intended departure. Of course a great deal of neighborhood gossip is manufactured therefrom. It goes to show that family matters can be kept a secret, and furnishes one instance when it was done. The only curious thing about it is that the whole neighborhood did not know of it. In years to come, as the history of Charleston is written, one page may be devoted to this executive family. But, O. Scribe, remember!—all the old women were out-generaled.

MAINSBURG ITEMS.—On July 10th, Mr. E. C. Smith was taken to the Philadelphia Insane Asylum for treatment, he having been deranged for several weeks. Once he left home, but was found by his friends near Tioga, and at another time he hung himself by a rope on his barn and was found in nearly a lifeless condition. He was a man of great energy and endurance, and was one of our most extensive farmers. It is supposed that his derangement has been brought about by hard labor, anxiety and care.

Miss. M. E. Orvis, of Sullivan, is home on a visit from the Orphan School, Harford, Susquehanna Co., where she has been teaching during the last three years. She speaks very highly of the schools. She will return again about the 20th inst., for another year. She is teacher of the common school branches, and vocal and instrumental music, and we judge with efficiency, as her wages have been increased each year by one hundred or one hundred and fifty dollars.

My last article should read "John Fox" instead of "John Ford," and "S. S. Ramsey," instead of "A. A. Ramsey."

Enquiring for the above please say advertised letters. GEORGE W. MERRICK P. M.

The office of Governor of Pennsylvania has existed for eighty years, and has been filled by sixteen men. It is a noticeable fact that every one of the occupants of the executive chair has been a native born Pennsylvanian.

Lately, amid the plaudits of the Democracy of the whole country, Senator Sprague proclaimed the aphorism that nothing is more cowardly or mean than a million of dollars—except two millions. If this be the Democratic doctrine, what shall we say of the Democratic taste in selecting a twenty-million candidate and choosing him for that reason?

Democratic Newspapers, which a few months ago were prophesying a terrible deficit in the revenue and a consequent augmentation of the national debt as a result of the policy of Congress and the incapacity of President Grant and his cabinet officers, are now engaged in assuring their readers that an increase of revenue and a reduction of the debt were inevitable, and that neither Congress nor the administration is entitled to the slightest credit for the improved aspect of affairs. Did they lie then, or do they lie now?—Watkins Express.

A NEW DILEMMA.—Does Asa Packer own any United States bonds, or did he ever do so?

This is the latest dilemma of the unfortunate Democracy.

If he does or did, then he is a bloated bondholder, to borrow the elegant language of the leading Democratic journals.

If he does not, or never did, then he refused to aid the Government in the hour of its peril in the only way he could aid it.

If his millions, like a Democrat's doubts, have always been cast against his country, they are not to his credit. If, on the other hand, his money is invested in the tax-exempted bonds of the Government, then he has been violating the first principles of the gospel of modern Democracy after Brick Pomeroy.

On which horn of the dilemma does Mr. Packer hang? Can his "next friend" in Philadelphia tell us?—Press.

GREAT MISTAKES.—Those who know Asa Packer will be astonished to learn that he is a "sound lawyer." At least, as such they are attempting to palm him off in some parts of the State. He is a good business man, but never professed to be a lawyer. His Judgeship arose from his being for a time an "ornamental" or side judge in great Carbon county!

The cops also talk about "Judge Pershing," which is also a misnomer. He is no Judge—is only trying to be one. He is a fair lawyer—perhaps, indeed, the best in the magnificent county of Cambria!

On the other hand, Gov. Geary has administered the law—not as a Judge, by name, but in fact—in California, in Rebeldom, and as Governor of Pennsylvania. In civil as well as in military experience, he is very decidedly the superior of Mr. Packer. In the "heft" of his money bags, only, does Asa excel John W.

And Henry W. Williams is every inch a Judge, having administered the law, with distinguished honor, in Alleghany county, and is now on the Supreme Bench in Pennsylvania, where he was legally elected two years ago, but was kept out by Wallace's coffee-pot. That flagrant wrong will now be righted. Mr. "Perishing" must get his Judgeship at home, or wait a while. The coffee-pot is smashed.—Montrose Republican.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 11, 1869.

Republican Nominations.

-FOR GOVERNOR-

GEN. JOHN W. GEARY,

OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

-FOR JUDGE OF THE SUPREME COURT-

HON. H. W. WILLIAMS,

OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

COUNTY.

Assembly. { B. B. STRANG, J. B. NILES. (subject to choice of Conference.)

Prothonotary—LEROY TABOR, of Charleston.
Register, &c.—D. L. DEANE, of Delmar.
Treasurer—DAVID CAMERON, of Tioga.
Commissioner—P. V. VANNESS, of Rutland.

Auditors { 3 years—ISRAEL STONE, Delmar. 2 years—S. D. PHILLIPS, Westfield. 1 year—D. K. MANSF. Gaines.

Coroner—Dr. A. J. HEGGIE, Oceola.

We see that the Republicans of McKean County have nominated Rogers, of the Miner, for Prothonotary. That was well done. He will be elected sure as a gun. Congratulate you, Lucius.

We are obliged to working Republicans in Tioga County for an addition of 500 to our list of subscribers during the past week. We now circulate a little over 2,300 copies of The Agitator, weekly. And still they come.

The Irish Church bill has passed the British Parliament, and one of the heavier grievances of Ireland is now redressed. Let us see if the Irish people can make good use of their enlarged liberty.

While Geary was standing up for fair play in Kansas, Packer was supporting Buchanan and the Border Ruffians who sought to defile that territory with the curse of Slavery. The Republicans remember Geary, and the Democrats remember Packer. Both are duly grateful.

The Boston Advertiser shrewdly and wittily says: "The issue in the political contest in Pennsylvania the coming fall is one of dollars and sense. The Democrats have the dollars and the Republicans the sense." Perhaps the Boston papers ought not to interfere in Pennsylvania politics, however. Packer is a Connecticut carpet-bagger, you know.

The Democracy now swear that Asa Packer came forward liberally with his cash to aid the Government to prosecute the war. Well, if that be true, (which we deny) the Democracy have nominated "a bloated bondhonder."—Goodness gracious! They will be nominating soldiers of the Union next.—Can they find a "Lincoln hireling" to take a nomination?

Asa Packer was, we believe, a delegate to the Charleston Convention in 1864. He voted solid for Breckinridge. He was not even a Douglas democrat. Another reason more why he should have been nominated by the Copperheads; and still there are the twenty million dollars reasons, you know.—That's twenty million and one reasons. Geary can't beat that.

The Advertiser's Wellsboro Correspondent has come to the surface again and blows a clarion note of defiance to all who accuse him (?) of patronizing lager beer shops, or slops. Whoever it may be, the correspondent gives all the news to date. Go in, keep sober, tell the truth, and don't play hide and seek with your name. Bet you wear crinoline and a chignon. Bet you're a lone, lorn woman. Come now!

SPEAK, BOSE!

Every boy has tried his hand at making a dog perform. "Speak!" Lie down and roll over!" "Sit up!" "Be Dead!"—and similar commands to dogs must be tolerably familiar to most boys.

And there are not many boys who do not know that dogs somewhat resemble human beings. For example—a dog may be trained to do all above commanded, but not without reward.—"Bose" will not learn to "speak" unless you suspend a piece of meat, or bread, above his muzzle, which morsel the dog expects to drop into his mouth as a reward. For a small piece of meat Bose will "whisper." A little bigger piece will provoke an audible bark. A big, juicy piece, will incite a series of short, sharp yells and great activity. The same sort of a bribe will induce a very small dog to lie down and roll over in a very dirty place. The big dog, with more dignity, will lie down and roll over, but not in a dirty place. He will, if possible, have a Brussels carpet between his broadcloth and the mud.

Now, we don't intend an odious comparison; but who can refuse to notice things manifestly out of the ordinary couse. We remember something about the last gubernatorial campaign, when Hiester Clymer was the Democratic candidate. The leaders fought well for Mr. Clymer, but they did not set in so early nor so sharp as they are doing for Asa Packer. We are almost persuaded to say that the sum of good things said for Asa Packer up to this date, equal, if they do not exceed, the sum of good things said for Hiester Clymer during the entire campaign of 1866. On the other hand more very bitter things have been written and said against Gen. Geary up to this date, than were witten and said during that first campaign.

Casting about for a reason we did not find reasons as plenty as blackberries, but found one which rather accounts for the difference above mentioned. If Mr. Packer gets more compliments than Mr. Clymer did, it is also true that Mr. Packer's milions nearly equal Mr. Clymer's thousands. The latter did not propose to fling a million of dollars into the arena, and probably did not, out of his own purse, expend two thousand.—Andrew Johnson's office holders furnished most of the cash for the Clymer campaign, but not a million, perhaps. And there were many middle-men who handled the funds, at that, in whose fingers some dollars must have stuck.—So, while Mr. Clymer had warm support, it was not actually redhot.

But now, A. D., 1869, three years later, comes Asa Packer, the man of millions; able to pay down $100,000 for the nomination—and the fact is charged boldly by the Philadelphia papers—a man made rich by the possession of monopoly. No sooner does he appear as the Candidate, than behold every Democratic leader, little and large, and every drummer and fifer of that organization, flings his cap in air! He is not young, he is not much above commonplace, but he was with his party soul and mind during the war of the rebellion; but better than all, more than party fealty, more than patriotism and brains—Mr. Packer is illimitably rich! Mr. Clymer could fling but a spare bone to the dogs, and the dogs only "whispered," or "spoke" in half audible tones, nor once "rolled over." Mr. Packer flings down his million—a big piece of meat—and straightway the whole pack is in full cry. The scent is strong and the pack lays down to it with a vigor unsurpassed. Hundreds of them have already rolled over and over, and the original dirt is obliterated. Lisp a word, good-natured though it be, against the immaculateness of Mr. Packer, and the pack rend the air with indignant cries.

Ah, well; in the line of duty it becomes necessary to ventilate the record of this Democratic Dives during the times when men were either wholly for the republic or wholly against it. Mr. Packer has been seldom active at anything but business. But we assert without fear of successful contradiction that from the hour when he voted for Breckenridge at Charleston in 1860, to the present hour, Asa Packer has been in full communion with the Frank Hughes and W. A. Wallace Democracy. During the war he was in full sympathy with every movement of his party to hinder the Government in its efforts to prosecute the war successfully. He concurred with Buchanan and Jerry Black in the opinion that the Government could not coerce the South into obedience. In evidence of this we submit the fact that Woodward presented his name last year at the famous Tammany Convention, as a candidate for the Presidency, recommending him as a Simon Pure-Democrat, whose record could not offend the South.

Judge Woodward was right. There is not a line of Asa Packer's record as a politician which could offend the most factious rebel in the South. Even Jefferson Davis would not object to him; on the contrary who does not know that every unreconstructed rebel, south or north is opposed to the election of Geary and in favor of Packer. When the time comes we shall be able to show that the most prominent supporters of Packer in Tioga County were as thorough traitors as Jefferson Davis himself.

Friends—it is the same old fight.—Beelzebub opened the quarrel ages ago, and bequeathed the work to his offspring, the Democratic leaders. Against all manner of tricks and chicanery, against money and a traitorous foe the Republicans of Pennsylvania have to make the battle. As for us, we partake of no man's fears while we share the common anxiety. A million of money may do many things, but we do not for a moment believe that it can corrupt the intelligent voters of this Commonwealth.

The Public Debt Statement for July, made Aug. 1, by Secretary Boutwell, shows a reduction of the debt during the month of July of $7,435,749,29—making the total reduction since Grant assumed the reins, $43,896,523,72. This averages rather more than $8,000,000 per month, so far. We congratulate the people upon the inauguration of the era of economy. If you want to endorse Grant and official honesty vote for Geary and Williams. If you want to rebuke official integrity work for Asa Packer.

When Geary was leading a division against armed Democrats in the Southwest, in 1864, Packer was endorsing the "Peace at any price" platform upon which McClellan was placed at Chicago. The difference between their attitudes toward rebels may be stated thus: Geary was for peace on terms involving the surrender of the rebels to the Government. Packer was for peace on terms involving the surrender of the Government to the rebels. Some people can see a difference in the positions of the two. We can see the difference. So did Jeff Davis, at the time.

We are obliged to Mr. Close for his report—the only one received this month, though there are supposed to be three factories beside within a raidus of five miles. In fact there is no doubt that more cheese is making this year than in any former year. The Round Top factory is making a third more than last year. All the factories sell as fast as made, and without transportation.

Mr. J. P. Huling, Route Agent from Lock Haven to St. Mary's, having been removed, and Capt. Henry Porter having been deputed to fill the vacancy, a daily paper in Lock Haven made a violent attack upon Hon. W. H. Armstrong, charging him with the removal and appointment. The Williamsport Bulletin, copied the article with more haste than discretion. This brought Mr. Armstrong out with the statement that he "did not ask for the removal of Mr. Huling, nor did I know of it until after it was done; nor did I ask for the appointment of Capt. Porter, nor did I know of it until after his appointment.' Mr. Armstrong goes on to say that on the 23d of July he received a letter from the P. O. D., with information that certain registered letters having disappeared on Mr. Huling's route, a special agent had worked the case up and recommended the removal of Mr. Huling, Route Agent.

We suppose that the Bulletin will have dignity and candor enough to apologize.

Furthermore,

The beneficent proprietor of this mammoth establishment—out of sheer good will, and if you will believe him for no other motive than your interest and his, has at vast expense established at the same place an immense depot of Provisions, consisting of Flour, Pork, Lard, Codfish, White Fish, Sword Fish, &c., &c.

Meal, Hams, Butter, Trout, Blue Fish, Halibut, &c., &c.

All of which he intends to sell at a profit, on the principle of "live and let live." He generally proposes also to receive in exchange all the products of your farm and dairies, and it is said confidentially to the public, that he never refuses

Cash.

Tho' it irks him wretchedly to keep it. So anxious is he, that the dear people should want nothing whatever that money can buy of Attention Militia!

THE GOVERNOR desires that an organization of the Militia of this County should be effected as soon as convenient. All persons therefore desirous of organizing companies will proceed to enroll the names of all such as will join the same, and report to me at Elkland, Pa. A company to consist of the following officers and men: 1 capt., 1 1st lieut., 1 2nd lieut. 5 sergeants, 8 corporals, 2 musicians, and 32 privates—50. As soon as a sufficient number of names are enrolled, an election of officers will be ordered and commissions issued at once, at which time the Governor will issue arms and equipments to each company. It is desired that the old officers and soldiers should take hold of the matter and we can soon have our ten companies organized and equipped.

Great Improvement in Densistry.

HAVING purchased the exclusive right of Dr. Folsom's Improved patent Atmospheric Dental Plates for Tioga County. I now take pleasure in offering it to the public as the greatest discovery yet made in Mechanical Dentistry.

By the use of which, we can overcome any and all difficulties which have heretofore baffled the skill of the most practical Dentist in the world. Plates constructed upon this plan remain perfectly firm under all circumstances or condition of the mouth, as no air, or particles of food can possibly get under them. Those having old styles, Gold or Rubber Plates, can, at half the cost, have the Improvement applied to them answering in every respect the same purpose as a new set. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed in every case. C. N. DARTT, Dentist.

Wellsboro, June 9, 1869.

This is to certify that we are now using the Improved Dental Plates with perfect satisfaction. Having used the old style of plates for years with all the trouble and inconvenience known in the use of such plates, we cheerfully recommend the improved Plates as far superior to anything yet known. E. R. KIMBALL, CHAS. WILLIAMS.
