School. - The Welisboro District shoul commonces to-day under the auspices of yr. S. B. Young, who taught so acceptably last term, and Misses Wright, of Farmington, and Archer, of Wellsboro-both teachers of ascertained excellence.

SPLENDID-That half bushel of early apples donated to the printers of the Agitator by Mr. Richard Moore, of Delmar last week. There wasn't a poor apple in the lot, nor a wormy one. May Pomona preside over his orchards and every year be fruitful. The "Devil" will be the donor's verlasting friend.

THE METEOR.-Some of our citizens aw the splendid moteor of Tuesday ovening yeck. The papers give glowing, accounts of the ight, and all agree substantially with the descripun given by those who saw it here. The luminous cloud lasted a dozen minutes, or therestout, as seen from this point.

WELL, WELL !- Hold your breath, grthis is truo: Mr. Artemus Borden, of Charles-1.2, last spring sowed one bushel of Norway oats 2 quarts, by measure) on 2 acro of ground. Last week Mr. Borden harvested and threshed the crop, and on weighing the yield found that be had seventy-seven bushels and sixteen pounds of the! That is 771-fold ; and nobody can beat it.
