Is it because they lack interest in the enterprise and hold themselves sloof? To suppose that, is to suppose that they regard such a society as ornamental rather han useful. We admit that bad 'manugement has, for several years, defeated the object of the enterprise. But the farmers this year gave evidence of their intention to make it a success in spite of the past. If now the leading farmers Will interest themselves in having a vigorolis orsenization in the future, the last and most impertant measure to the attainment of success will have been instituted. 7. Both of these gentlemen, assure us that the road can be built in a direct line from Arnot four R. S. to Y. G; Edward Doano L. S. to Y. G; G. miles west, with little grade. From that point L. Harding R. S. S.; H. A. Fisher L. S. Meanwhile, the Trustees of the Magea Estate have experienced a slight revival of interest in a rail road from Lawrence to their coal lands on Wilton Creek, passing through Wellsboro. They
