Henry Cooper, and not Andy Johnson, has been elected U. S. Senator from Tennessee. Alas, Poor Jock!-

How shall he be vindicated? Mr. Strang's majority in Tioga and Potter is 3869. Mr. Niles's is 3864.— There was no opposition in Potter Co., which accounts for the increase in majority.

It is amusing to read the exulting paragraphs in the Copperhead papers relating to the election result in Tioga county. Go on, gentlemen. We find no fault. Rejoice as you did when the news of Bull Run reached the country, and remember that as Bull Run ruined the South, so will this little speck of war in Tioga ruin its managers.

We beg of Mr. Horace Greeley to leave off his attacks on scamps. What matters it if the Albany State House be filled with thieves and peculators next winter? Do not the people rule? Is not this a white man's government? If the people prefer scamps for legislators, and so on, up and down the gamut of position, have they not the right to elect them? Does not the end sanctify the means, Mr. Greeley?

We have waited patiently to hear from those promised democratic gains in Pennsylvania and Ohio. At the present rate of gain the Democracy will have a victory in 1969. In Luzerne county, which usually gives 3,500 majority for the Copper ticket, Packer has a few votes over 1000; and what is worse the Republicans elect two out of three members of Assembly and the County Treasurer.

Thomas K. Beecher is out in the Elmira Advertiser on the duty of the citizen. His doctrine suits us, individually, well enough, but the nation would have gone to the devil before this day the infliction of penaltics for wrong had his notions prevailed among the doing certain. SYMPTOMS OF DECLINE.

Less than two months ago a man of wealth and social standing, residing in a village near the center of the State, deliberately loaded a revolver, and after fifteen minutes search for a victim, found and three times shot at, a negro boy in his employ. The boy was accused of entering the sleeping room of pulsory cures always involve a dangeranother, but white female domestic, at six o'clock in the morning, as the boy says, "to call her up as usual." He was charged with having en- They involve violence and popular fury. tered the room, and nothing more .--When found and shot at, fifteen minutes later, the boy was building the kitchen fire-as usual.

The owner of the house in this care was a man of wealth. He was informed by the female domestic that the boy had entered her room. He loaded his revolver, deliberately, and on exparte testimeny, sought and shot the boy .--The culprit was not running away, remember; but kindling a fire in the kitchen stove-his usual morning chore.

The boy was not killed outright .--Some friend of justice had an information made against the man of the house, and he waived an examination and gave bail for his appearance at Court. A bill of indictment was laid before the Grand Jury by the District Attorney. So far that day well enough.

But now comes the most surprising thing of all. Grand juries, we may be permitted to say, find, or refuse to find, true bills against alleged offenders, upon ex parte testimony only. They can only inquire in the interest of the Commonwealth; and none but persons identified with the complaint, or such as the prosecutor supposes to be cogniz- did Luther. But it is no less a duty to mention and warn. To men whose lives are torrid with the passions of avarice and lust for power, our warning will sound like an accusation. They will resent it as an attack upon their probity and scout the idea of danger. For that we care nothing. While we have voice it shall be raised in denunciation of the classes for whom the penal code was framed. The well-ordered man is a law untohimself.
