WELLSBORO, PENN'A. WEDNESDAY, NOV. 3, 1869.

Thesteamer" Stonewall" was burned blame.

Gov. Geary has appointed Hon. F Administration.

Those papers now advocating a repeal of so much of the election law as puts the township elections on the 2d Tuesday of October, are at fault. There should be but one election a year-we the Commonwealth not less than $500,-000 a year. Better so alter the Constitution as to elect State, county and township officers no oftener than we clect a President, and take the Judiciary out of the arena of partisan polities, giving it to the Executive to constitute, as of old. Perfection is unattainable; but the present system is about as bad as it can be.

inade himself unpopular with the lead-Geary's known connection with the temperance movement damaged him with the German Republicans, to some as compared with William's.

The time is at hand when the efforts of good men must be united to resist present and threatened evils. The movement in the West to exclude the ought to be continued. When it becomes dangerous for children to read pulsion is a result of labor.
