Gossip.—Rights are of several kinds.

There are rights public and rights private; fights corporate and rights individual; rights natural and rights legal; rights political and rights moral,—and all these are relative, because subject to limitation, restriction, and sometimes to suppression. (When a man becomes limptions, and you ask him what's the matter, he mill the source, and aughter of J. B. Strong's, A short time since, a daughter of J. B. Our definition of "rights" is—such enjoyment, active, or passive, as the in dividual may elect, with more or less freedom of choice. These lights are nover absolute. Even the rights to "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," are conditional. A man may forfeit his rights to live, under the statutes. He may and the traffic. forfeit his liberty in like manner. He may not Dr. A pursue happiness when the pursuit involves a trespass upon the rights of any other man. So personal liberty appears to be a thing with bounds. Even a man may not do as he pleases with his own, unless he pleases to do rightly with it. No man may commit riclent waste upon his own property with impunity, in any well ordered community. All men have a common right to attend public assemblies. When there, the common right of all is to listen. But no man has a right to do aught which makes the enjoyment of the common "right of listening." impossible to the balance of the audience. Many people take it for granted that purchasing a senat any public performance gives the purchaser a right to conduct himself without reference to his peighbors. We need not affirm the nonsense of such a view. E-crybedy knows that such a view is false: Freedom of speech is one of the rights Americans cherish. It is a good thing, under restrictions. But no man has the right to use profene or obscene language in public places, and claim it by right of free speech. So, also, a and claim it by right of free speech. So, also,

On the expiration of his term of enlishment he reenlisted as a veteran, and served all through the war, until the surrender of Lee at Appointtox. He was a brave, patient, faithful soldier. After the war he married and went into business in this village, first as clork, and afterward as a grocer on his own account. Mr. Rice was unanimously esteemed as an honest man and an exemplary citizen. He leaves a wife and two children to mourn his loss. #10

Mrs Hannah Willard, widow of the late Oliver Willard, died at the residence of her son, Alphens Willard, Esq., in Charleston, Dec. 23d inst., in the 86th year of her age. Mrs. Willard and her hisband came to this country 61 years ago, and settled on the farm where she died. At that time this whole county was a howling wilderness. The site of Wellsboro was a forest and Charlestop and Delmar had scarcely a dezen families. There were no gristmills nearer than Willinusport on one hand and Painted Post on the other. The Methodists have built an addition to their thersonage. Eld. Rhinewalt has been holding protected meetings for some time past, at the Union Church, but with no particular movement so far as I have heard.

REPEATER.

MANSHULD It has been very quiet in our village by the past week; and business men have bad raher long faces for want of something to do. I suppose the condition of the roads and the weather hav, caused the stand still of teather.

Dr. A. J. Colo has moved into Rev. W. Cochran's house on Seminary Acenne. I believe, the Dr. has been buying some virige luts in Wellsorn.

There has been a move made toward building a new fence around J. P. Morris la, corner of Main and Sullivan streets. At least the old fence has been taken away, and the lot is now desirable in our village, and it is a great pity that there is not a fine building on it, as well as a good fence around it. good fence around it.

I feel somewhat indignant at the remarks of "Acci" in last week's issue. I am not fastidious, but desire that the curious, should remain ever rious, and in that article he tried hard to let the cut out of the bag, but I suppose he had some fears of getting scratched, and therefore ceased his attempts. Dr. Clark examines and explains your disease without asking any questions. If he understands your case you know it, and cannot be deceived. If he cannot tell, your disease and how you feel without asking questions he does not consider himself competent to treat your case. This is the criterion to go by and patients should not be satisfied with any other. This is the only direct and positive evidence of my ability as a Scientific Physician, and by this standard I am willing to be judged.

Dr. Clark treats no case unless conscientionally of the opinion that it can be cared or permanently benefitted.

Dr. Clark treats no class unless he can describe the disease and its symptoms without interrogating his patient.

Dr. Clark treats no case unless he can describe the disease and its symptoms without interrogating his patient.

Dr. Clark will treat no Chignic Disease unless he can explain its character to the Complete and perfect satisfaction of the patient examined. And the Dr. would here most positively state, that he desires no patients to take treatment from him, unless they are fully and completely satisfied, with his consultations and examinations, which are made free from charge.

Dr. CLARK bases his practice upon the incontrovertible law of Nature. First.—That every cause has an effect. Second—That diseases are causes producing effects or symptoms, and that every disease has its own poculiar effects or symptoms, which if properly and thoroughly understood by the examining Physician can be clearly pointed out to the complete satisfaction of the patient examined.

Dr Clark's method of diagnosing or explaining diseases and their symptoms is only the process of reasoning from cause to effect, and has been acquired by the rough literary and medical culture, and also by an almost unlimited practiced every form of disease. Monal: Buy your boots of .. SEARS & DERBY. Or any other man. [Printer's Davil,] Wellsboro, Oct. 20, 1869-if. WALTHAM WATCHES! For a few months past we have advertised the above Watches at extremely low prices, and the result has been most satisfactory. Our plan has been to sell the genuine WALTHAM WATCH, in Solid Gold or Silver Cases only, and at a very small profit; giving the purchaser every opportudity of examination and comparison, and with the understanding that if the Watch does not prove satisfactory, it can be exchanged or money refunded.

These Watches are, without exception, the most perfect specimens of fine mechanism ever produced in any country. Each and every part is made by machinery of the most delicate and elaborate construction. Compared with foreign watches, they possess many advantages, excelling not only in princi-ple and finish; but still more in their reliability as time-keepers. As an indication of the prices we submit the following:

Bilver Hunting Watches. GOLD WATCHES, 18 Karat case, 80,00. We often receive orders direct from our advertisement, but prefer that every one should send first for our descriptive price list, which explains all the different kinds, tells the weight and quality of the cases, and gives prices of each. This we will forward to any one on application, and it will be found very useful in making a selection. Every Watch is warranted by special certificate rom the American Watch Co.

We send them by express to any address.—
Allow the purchaser to open the package and examine the Watch before paying, and if afterwards it does not prove satisfactory, it can be exchanged or the money will be cherfully refunded. Please state that you saw this in the Tioga County Agitaton. Address, in full,

HOWARD & CO.,

No. 619 Broadway N V : No. 819 Broadway, N. Y. Our establishment is well known to the residents of New York and vicinity, but that those at a distance may address us with confidence, we invite attention to the following editorial notices:

From the N. Y. Evangelist, May 28, 1868.

We had occasion some time since to refer to these celebrated American Watches which are well known as reliable time-keepers. We cannot do better now than to call the attention of our readers to the card of How and & Co., by which it will be seen that persons from a distance can order any grade of these Watches by express, at greatly reduced prices.

From the N. Y. Independent, June 16, 1868.

We invite special attention to the advestisement of Messys. Howard & Co., who offer the celebrated Waltham W atches not only at the lowest prices, but will send them to any part of the country by express, and give the purchaser the privilege to examine the Watch before paying for it. We have known Howard & Co. personally for years, and cheerfully commend them to the confidence of our friends throughout the country.
