LOVE LIGHTENS LABOR.

A good wife rose from her bed one morn,
And thought with a nervous dread
Of the piles of clothes to be washed, and more
Than a dozen mouths to be fed.

There's the meals to get for the men in the field,
And the children to fix away
To school, and the milk to be skimmed and churned;
And all to be done to-day.

It had rained in the night, and all the wood
Was wet as it could be;
There was pudding and pies to bake, besides
A loaf of cake for tea.

And the day was hot and the aching head
Throbbed wearily as she said,
"If maidens but knew what good wives know,
They would not be in haste to wed!"

"Jennets what do you think I told Ben Brown?"
Called the farmer from the well;
And a flush crept to his bronzed brow,
And his eyes half bashfully fell;
"It was this," he said and coming near
He smiled, and stooping down,
Kissed her cheek—"Twas this, that you were the best,
And the dearest wife in town!"

The farmer went back to the field, and the wife
In a smiling absent way,
Sang snatches of tender little songs
She'd not sung for many a day.
And the pain in her head was gone, and the clothes
Were white as the foam of the sea;
Her bread was light, and her butter was sweet,
And as golden as it could be.

"Just think," the children all cried in a breath,
"Tom Wood has run off to sea!
He wouldn't, I know, if he'd only had
As happy a home as we."
The night came down and the good wife smiled
To herself, as she softly said;
"Tis so sweet to labor for those we love,
It is not strange that maids will wed!"

Horace Greeley's Last.

At a dinner party held by the gentlemen and ladies of the New York press, a week or two ago, Horace Greeley was called upon to respond to the sentiment—"Country Farming and City Editing." It was expected that he would get off something good, and he did not disappoint that belief. He said:

I don't quite understand whether I am expected to demonstrate an agreement, or a contrariety between these two things. At any rate, if the sentiment is to affirm that one of these pursuits is as delightful and attractive as the other, I respectfully nonconcur.—[Laughter and applause.] As to city editing, I have had something more of it than I have desired, and more than I could enjoy. As to my farming, there are gentlemen who have spoken of it rather more freely than their limited knowledge of the subject would admit. [Laughter.] I think that I have seen some elaborate statements of the cost of each turnip—[laughter]—and these statements were made by gentlemen who have not been generally thought so attentive to the cost of things as these calculations would seem to imply. [Laughter.] I have not made any such calculations, for I have been a little shy of doing so. [Laughter.]

Let me, however, say a few words about country farming, which is a thing I very much believe in. Having done some share of work in the world, I lay down this proposition: That all men or women who can get their work done by 8 o'clock at night need not consider their condition a hard one.—When it stretches far into the night—to 11, 12, 1, 2, 3,—it begins to be irksome. I find it irksome. I am not now so fond of sitting up with a newspaper all night—nor with anybody else.—[Prolonged laughter.] This, then, I can say for country farming, that while it has some rugged aspects, and does not promise any such brilliant and rapid advances to fortune as some of our friends like to achieve in Wall st., it is just about the safest and surest thing any one can engage in; and it is, moreover, a tranquil and certain delight to any human being—who can enjoy his own society. [Laughter and applause.] My little place, while it is nothing to brag of—[laughter]—there is this to be said about it: I have the most delightful barn full of corn, rich, golden corn, that ever you saw in your lives. Now, that is something achieved, something to look at. I have been at work on the press for forty years; and this seems to be the hardship. You work for days, and months and years, and what have you to show? Something, I hope, in mental growth; something in firmness of purpose; something in clearness of intention, but outwardly? Nothing! Thirty years have passed away, and where is the fruit of all that labor? How can your labors compare with those of the man who has produced a book?

And here let me say that, in my judgment, no good book ever was or can be produced on the instigation of a $50,000 check. Such books as that of John Bunyan have been produced by authors who never thought they would get a dime for them. [Applause.]—Those are the books that live. The books that the $50,000 checks will buy—will they sell? I hope so; but the world is charitable and soon forgets them.

Country farming will help also to develop one of the phases of the question of womans rights—wherein I have not so full a part as some of our friends would wish. Country farming gives just the right field for the development of your energies. [Laughter.] Any number of you are wanted to take your part in country farming. [Renewed laughter.] You need not dispute nor clamor—there it is. "The world is all before you where to choose." If any lady wants her rights—I am a woodchopper—I will furnish an axe and the trees, and give her scope and verge enough. There are plenty of opportunities; so, then why don't some of our friends who want their rights come out into the country and take them?—There need be no controversy. Wide enough is the world; and there is work enough for all. I hope that some of this din and controversy will roll itself abroad into work; and that our excellent friend, "the last, best gift," and so on, will achieve her rights with her own right hand. [Great applause.]

MAIDEN SIMPLICITY.—A good-looking and honest-faced country girl came to town with her "beau," one day, to do a little shopping. The magnitude of the shop, the piles on piles of goods, the dazzling array of articles, the rows of busy shopmen, quite overpowered our good friend, who scarcely knew what to do. Her "beau" obstinately refused to go in, but loitered about the door. The shopmen being all busy at the time, the young woman was obliged to remain standing for a few moments. At length a dapper fellow with a gold watch and chain and flourishing whiskers, came bowing and smiling up to the bashful customer, with:

"Anybody waiting on you madam?"

The color deepened on her cheeks as she hesitated, and drew a long breath, till finally with a nod of her head towards the door, she faltered out:

"Yes, sir, he is."

TO THE FARMERS OF TIOGA COUNTY.

I AM now building at my manufactory, in Lawrenceville, a superior

FANNING MILL,

which possesses the following advantages over all other mills:

1. It separates rye, oats, rat litter, and foul seeds, and chess and cockle, from wheat.
2. It cleans flax seed, takes out yellow seed, and all other seeds, perfectly.
3. It cleans timothy seed.
4. It does all other separating required of a mill.

This mill is built of the best and most durable timber, in good style, and is sold cheap for cash, or produce.

I will fit a patent sieve, for separating oats from wheat, to other mills, on reasonable terms.

FOUTZ'S

CELEBRATED

Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly re-invigorate broken down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite—gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.

To keepers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It is a sure preventive against Rinderpest, Hollow Horn, etc. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hide, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and cure for the Hog Cholera.

WALTHAM WATCHES!

For a few months past we have advertised the above Watches at extremely low prices, and the result has been most satisfactory. Our plan has been to sell the genuine WALTHAM WATCH, in Solid Gold or Silver Cases only, and at a very small profit; giving the purchaser every opportunity of examination and comparison, and with the understanding that if the Watch does not prove satisfactory, it can be exchanged or money refunded.

These Watches are, without exception, the most perfect specimens of fine mechanism ever produced in any country. Each and every part is made by machinery of the most delicate and elaborate construction.

Compared with foreign watches, they possess many advantages, excelling not only in principle and finish, but still more in their reliability as time-keepers. As an indication of the prices, we submit the following:

Silver Hunting Watches	$18,00.
Gold " Watches, 18 karat case,	80,00.
" " " ladies' size,	70,00

We often receive orders direct from our advertisement, but prefer that every one should send first for our descriptive price list, which explains all the different kinds, tells the weight and quality of the cases, and gives prices of each. This we will forward to any one on application, and it will be found very useful in making a selection.

Every Watch is warranted by special certificate from the American Watch Co.

We send them by express to any address.—Allow the purchaser to open the package and examine the Watch before paying, and if afterwards it does not prove satisfactory, it can be exchanged or the money will be cheerfully refunded. Please state that you saw this in the Tioga County AGITATOR. Address, in full,

HOWARD & CO.,
No. 619 Broadway, N. Y.

Our establishment is well known to the residents of New York and vicinity, but that those at a distance may address us with confidence, we invite attention to the following editorial notices:

From the N. Y. Evangelist, May 28, 1868.

We had occasion some time since to refer to these celebrated American Watches which are well known as reliable time-keepers. We cannot do better now than to call the attention of our readers to the card of Howard & Co., by which it will be seen that persons from a distance can order any grade of these Watches by express, at greatly reduced prices.

From the N. Y. Independent, June 16, 1868.

We invite special attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Howard & Co., who offer the celebrated Waltham Watches not only at the lowest prices, but will send them to any part of the country by express, and give the purchaser the privilege to examine the Watch before paying for it. We have known Howard & Co. personally for years, and cheerfully commend them to the confidence of our friends throughout the country.

PORTABLE ORGANS

Together with the ESTEY COTTAGE ORGAN and MELODEONS, can be advantageously purchased of

T. A. WICKHAM,

TIOGA, PA.

HAVING obtained the agency from the manufacturers of the above named instruments we have the facilities for furnishing them at prices to compare favorably with those of dealers in either the same or other reed instruments. Their reputation is such that scarcely anything need be said regarding their being desirable, having been awarded premiums and medals at the principal Fairs and Institutes, both in this and foreign countries. Many fine modern improvements, which are so desirable in all good reed instruments, are owned and retained for their exclusive use by the manufacturers of these instruments. Hence it is, while they claim strength and durability, together with volume and quality of tone equal to any, they excel all other reed instruments, in the variety and combination of tones which can be produced.

INDIVIDUALS, SCHOOLS, CHURCHES, SOCIETIES, and other organizations, wishing to obtain a reed instrument, can be suited as regards size styles, prices, &c., &c.

ALL INSTRUMENTS WARRANTED.
