HERMAIC SOCIETY.-The discussion of the abolition of polygamy by law, was before this Society last Friday evening. The debate was opened by Major Merrick, in committee of the whole, J. B. Potter in the chair. He was followed by James Bosard, the newly elected President of the Society, on the negative. Messrs. Joseph Bailey, Hugh Young, Palphrymand, R. C. Bailey, and Bunnell, also took part in the debate. The discussion sufficed to while away the evening. Some things amusing, some interest ing, were said.

The President announced that the HERMARC will adopt some scheme to furnish a course of lectures to our people next winter. They intend hand strainer for this county. It is a great ineti- 2222 1099 to procure some of the first lecturers of the countries o try. Such a course as that contemplated will be no burden upon us; for, whatever it may cost, will be many times made up by the benefits to us all. To make this effort a success, no time should be lost, as the best lecturers will soon begin to fix their appointments for the com-

The Editor is a working engine, whose fires are kept going day and night. Now he sails against the tide, and now with it, going along at a dashing rate, until suddenly he comes up all standing against some hidden snng, which nearly shivers his timbers in pieces. Whenever he moves, he puts the waters in agitation for a time, and leaves a wake of troubled waves behind him, which lasts about five minutes. He serves everybody but himself, carries freight and passengers in any quantity, and goes puff-puffing down the stream of life. Often his powers are overtasked, and the boiler bursts, but unfortunately, it kills no one but himself, and who cares for an editor? An excellent pame for a steamboat! We wish success to "The Editor." May she have many a rapid and pleasant run on the broad bosom of the Father of waters, and when her voyages are ended, be permitted, in some quiet and placid harbor, to rest from her labors. Wellsboro - Its Prospects. - Very little interest has been manifested until of late on the part of our citizens to build up and improve our village. In '68 the question of a railroad be gan to be agitated, and the following year this interest seemed to increase, and a spirit of enterprise caught hold of the people; real estate went up rapidly, and almost everybody went to were called, committees appointed to secure the right of may and raise money by subsociption to pay for the same.
