NEW POST OFFICE.—There has been new post office established at Cance Camp, (this county,) and Mr. T. J. Jelliss is Postmaster

NEW GOODS.-Messrs. Newell & Ow en, the enterprising merchants at Corning, N. Y. are on hand with a large stock of spring goods, and are offering them at ever so low prices. See dvertisement in another column.

LECTURES.—The Hermaic Society has made arrangements to secure a course of twelve or fifteen first class lectures in this borough the next season. Some $800 have been subscribed already as a basis. Well done.

MAUCH CHUNK TIMES .- This is the name of a new paper published at Mauch Chunk, by Fury & Tolan. W. P. Fury, known to some of our people, is editor. Mr. Fury knows how to get up a spicy paper. It is redically Democratiq in politics, of course. The paper is neatly printed, the general matter well chosen, and withal it gives promise of success. The principalthing it now needs, is a large subscription ist. Success to the Times.

FLOUR SCOOP AND SIFTER. - J. Scieffelin, Jr., of Tioga, has just returned from the city with a pile of Hardware goods, including the Patent Flour Scoop and Sifter, which is really the most convenient article -in-domestic use -It scoops up the flour, and with the use of a little inside wheel the flour is forced through the seive, thus separating every particle of dirt from the flour. It only needs to be seen to be appreciated. Hundreds of other useful articles might here be mentioned, kept at this store, but for the present He refer our renders to Schieffelin's "shoo fly" advertisement in another column.

FIRES.—The barn of Geo. Sloat, near Whitneyville, in Charleston, was consumed by hre, Friday, the 25th ult. A good span of hordestroyed. No insurance. The fire is supposed to have originated from the ashes of a pipe should be a warning to all smokers. The wonder paint it all so plainly before us, and an ugly is that there are not more accidents from this

We understand that the neighbors have contributed liberally to make up his loss. - The house of Mr. Peas, of Middlebury, with the entire contents, was destroyed by fire last week. Mr. Peas is a poor man, and we are glad to know that his loss will in part be made up.

MORMONISM.-We have received the sivance sheets of a book, written by J. H. Beadle, entitled, " Life in Utah, or the Mysterics and Crimes of Mormonism; being an Expose of the Secret Rites and Ceremonies of the Latter-Day Saints, with a full and Authentic History of the Mormon Sect from its origin to the present time." Published by the National Publishing mourn his loss. Society, 26 south Seventh street, Philadelphin. From the extracts before us, the work seems to be quite exhaustive of the subject. It relates the history of this superstitious sect in a style at once popular and chaste, deals philosophically with their doctrines and belief, and forms a volums which we have no doubt will meet with ready sale and find many readers. Now that the abject is much discussed, it is a timely publication, and should go far to educate a sentiment among the people which must soon banish this 'twin relie of barbarism" from the land. The work will boold by subscription only .-gents are wanted." Address as above.

TAXES. The taxes levied by the ommissioners of Tioga county for the present ear, duplicates of which will soon be placed i he hands of Collectors, are as follows: County tax, six mills on the dollar.

Co. Poor " 1 " The State tax is only levied upon personal roperty, so that all the county taxes on real esate only amount to eleven mills. When we renember that farming lands are put in at only ne-half their value, the tax seems very modeate indeed. Yet it will raise quite a large sum be used in the reduction of our county debt. The Poor taxes levied against the several townhips, vary according to the expenses charged gainst them by the county for the support o upers. The highest rate in any township, we lieve, is five mills; while the average is only bout two mills, as we are informed. It would eamatter of great interest, to look over the sessments of Poor taxes for a few years prior the opening of the County Poor House, and see how they compare with these. If this system s to be made what it should be, now that we have a Poor House, it will be entirely a county matter. Of course some townships have no paupers now, and have no township poor tax to pay; out some day the tables will be turned. At all vents, the present system is a substantial im rovement. It costs much less to sustain the these unfortunate people ará much more humaneprovided for. Business Changes.—Messis. Toles Barker mutually dissolved partnership on the Oth ult. Mr. Toles returns to his old home on the wanesque, and Mr. Barker continues the mercantle business at the old stand. The latter gentleman, who has for some time been in the trade in Wellsboro, proposes to a tonish our citizens in a few days with a large stock of fashionable goods for the spring trade; a due notice of which will

- Messrs. Lounsbury & Kimball have also solved partnership in the smith business. Mr. ounsbury has leased Mr. H. W. Dartt's shop, and will be found hereafter "blowing and pouning" at the upper end of Main street. - Mr. P. W. Bigoney has removed his stock groceries to the store of L. F. Truman, and lures up his grocery business. He goes on the ad, peddling. - Messrs. P. G. Lyon and Charles Mosier are leased the shop recently occurred by Louinserry & Kimball, where they will be found herefter on hand for business.

DEATH BY ACCIDENT.-Mr. Thomas ton, son of Adolphus Enton, of East Charleson, Tioga county, departed the present life on farch 11, 1870, near, Bosket station, upon the New York and Eric railroad, aged 26 years. A nge under the engine giving way, it ran for a while humping over the ties, at the rate of fifty niles per hour, till it came to a curve, when it langed off. Mr. Enton jumped to the track; of the coupling between the tender and cars had eparated, and the cars continued their course on the track and the cars continued their course on the track and ran over him, dreadfully mutilating his head, arms and leg. He was a member of the Locomotive Firemen's Union; and, with house to the fraternity, was carefully attended to his parents' home, and buried by a gentlemanly delegation from the same. Tho mas was a soldier under Banks, in the 42d Massachusetts volunteers, Co. E., in the late war.

Gossip.—Tear down the idols, dame tone down the idols! But lay away the ones that were not bought, tenderly, as mementoes of the happy days now so lately gone, yet so distant. ometimes we live too little in our days, and then comes some bereavement to be a constant reminder, and to fill each moment with a host, and each a language of its own. Then is time full; and a few days seem as years, and we grow old so fast, because we see and know more of the living, or for nower, is to fill a life, it may be, with transient happiness; but to walk with the infinite, in abstract mental philosophy, is to cultivate a knowledge of the great Unknown afore: 5016 1100 550 Nicklin & Griffith: 149 06 1707 time; as it were, to gain a passport to the eternal 5927 1100 4732 " 192 44 time; as it were, to gain a passport to the eternal world, in good time for the final port of this. 5927 1100 3676

The world is all so beautiful to the control of this. The world is all so beautiful to those who see it; 6977 1200 2521 we all would know, but cannot, it has no charms 6955 1101 400 save as an "evidence of things unseen." It is then that the body is a prison house; and the "Thou mayest not leave the kingdom." Yes, dame, we are all under quarantine—we must bide 5047 1090 our time. No matter how bright, how alluring | 5914 1100 is the future, it is not ours, but we are time's. | 5838 1100 Yet time is ours, too, for he tells us the secret of 5840 1100 600 his life, if we but dultivate his Triendship. And 5054 1099 809 James Wilson, he is a dear old soul. The best conversationist I 5836 1100,1071 ever met, madame; for he is more traveled and 6837 1100 conversant with all things in every country.-Sometimes he seems looking back, longingly, to 5837 his boylood, and he forgets that he is Time, old | 5837 1100 133 er than the hills, and prattles a play or a nursery tale as a child. And this is why he is so general 5927 1100 248 Nicklin & Griffith, favorite. Like some old men—that is, men of | 5927 1100 229 nany years—he is good company for all, "E'en now I see his withered face Boneath you tower's mouldering vase, Where mossy vestments cling."

Where? Where, Mr. Gossip! I thought you ad given up the ghosts—you said you would. Easy, dame, easy. It's only three lines from a stanza I used to hear a sweet little school girl repeat when I was a boy. It's poctry; you're not fraid of poetry, are you? "Oh! I thought there was a spook coming."

And then, again, he recounts the deeds of his niddle age; the conquests of war and peace; of 1221 1099 232 George Harrison pastoral life: of the cities and the sea. But he 1328 1099 54 R. Blackwell pastoral life; of the cities, and the sea. But he 1328 1099 s most eloquent when he leads us throughout the 1328 1090 176 realms of the future, and unfolds all that we are | 1332 1099 able to comprehend, of the world to come.

I was standing the other day with a friend in 4472 1000 270 James Wilson 4473 1002 his office, looking out the window at the boys, 4474 away off on the hill that lies just beyond the vil- 4474 lage where I live; and as we looked (can you | 4479 999 191 polieve it?) he said, "I would I were a hoy 5048, 1099 5052 1099 again." Just as the boys went back up the hill, 5052 1099 drawing their sleds, for the privilege of another, 1579 990 181 ride down the hill, he wished to trudge along 1579. 990 back the winding course of his life, that he might ride down on the same road, to come at last to 4474 1002 400 James Wilson the same place, and again to make the same wish ! What sort of a boy would a man be, who had once traveled the road? Ah! I fear His sharpone-sitraveled the read? Ah! I fear this sharp—1550 940 113 ".

ened vision would fail to discover all that he once 4473 1002 100 James Wilson had seen, on the same way. No, dame; we can only live a life once, and 1580 990

you say we should make the best of it. I will not disagree in this. But the memory, sometimes | 5048 | 1099 | 410 | James Wilson so kind to us, and then so cruel, may bring 5404 1100 back the past, and paint all its beauties, in still 5495 1109 more levely colors, as we see us all together in a 5497 1100 picture, which the storms and wintry blasts of 5497 1100 100 years cannot obliterate. Every action, every 5835 1099 367 M. Coleman thought, every landscape view, is photographed a collection and this collection and this 150 75 E. And were I a moralist, here I would say: How important that we never do an act which the owner himself had knocked out on the which shall deform the picture of life, through ground, some distance from the barn.
