The Rev. Dr. Stone, of San Francisco. lectured in Boston, a short time since, on California. The following is an extract: "How about fleas?" [Laughter.] Well, I must confess that in our State we have to scratch for a living. [Laughter.] Some of our ladies are accustomed to parody in this way, 'The wicked ffea, when no man pursueth.'-It is a wonderful stimulant to activity. It is not quite true that he has no respect of persons. Visitors especially if young and tender, are preferred to old residents. [Laughter.] He is rather annoying to those who like to nap in church. Preachers don't object to him. He is especially fashionable with us!-He is admitted to the closest intimacy in the best society, and if the lady on whom you call manifests some uneasiness during your interview, and makes for the next 25 years. Besides no man has a bigdemonstrations to show what the character of the uneasines is [laughter,] it is accepted as a part of good breeding." [Continued laughter and applause.]

No woman should wear her garter below the knee. It is rulnous to the shape of the calf. More than this, it has serious consequences of another kind.-The principal vein of the leg runs just beneath the skin until it nearly reaches the knee, when it sinks beneath the muscles. Now if this is constricted at its largest part by a tight garter, the blood is checked in its return to the not mixed as I mix them here, but in good order, heart, the feet are easily chilled, and I buy all the more liable to disease, the other veins of the leg are swollen into hard, blue knots, become varicose, as it is called, and often break, forming obstinate ulcers. This is a picture which a physiclan sees every day. With the garter fastened above the knee, all this pain and deformity are avoided.

There is a station on the Pittburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railroad called Hauna, in honor of a deceased citizen of Fort Wayne. A train stopped there the other day, and the brakeman after the manner of his class, thrust his head inside the door and called out "Hannah" loud and long. A young lady, probably endowed with the poetic appelation of Hannah, supposing he was addressing her, and shocked at his familiarity on so short an acquaintance, frowned like a thunder cloud and retorted," shut your mouth!" He shut it.

BEAUTIFUL EXTRACT. - Do trees Wilson & Van Valkenburg's talk?-Have they not leafy lungs-do they not at sunrise, when the wind is low, and the birds are caroling their songs, play a sweet music? Who has ever heard the soft whispers of the green leaves in spring time on a sunny morning, who did not feel as though rainbow gleams of gladness were running through his heart? And then, when the peach-blossoms hang like rubies from the stem of the parent tree-when the morning glory, like a bun before the shrine of God, unfolds her beautiful face, and the moss-roses open their crimson lips, sparkling with the nectar bless his Maker? When autumn comes-the season of the "sere and yellow leaf"—when the wheat is in its golden prime, and the corn waves its silken tassels in the air, how those who think, bow and remember the reaper Death! And then again in winter, when the bosom of old mother Earth is cold, and the white snow like a shroud, is on her breast, and the naked trees with leaves all fallen, stand quivering in the wind?
