

Arrival and Departure of Stages.
Stages running over the different routes from Wallingford, will depart on Wednesdays, as follows from the Wallingford Post Office:
Wallingford & Mansfield—Depart 10 a. m., arrive 1 1/2 p. m.
Wallingford & Concord—Depart 10 a. m., arrive 12 p. m.
Wallingford & Ferrisburgh—Depart 10 a. m., arrive 12 p. m.
Wallingford & Ferrisburgh—Depart 10 a. m., arrive 12 p. m.
Wallingford & Ferrisburgh—Depart 10 a. m., arrive 12 p. m.

TIoga County Agitator.
Local Items.
WEDNESDAY, MAY 18, 1870.

New Advertisements.
Insurance—Smith & Merrick.
New Goods—Wilson & Van Valkenburg.
New Goods—Humphrey & Co.
New Goods—J. A. Parsons & Co.
Young Bertrand—E. A. Fink.
State Normal School—O. H. Verrill.

BOROUGH LIMITS ENLARGED.—In another column, we published the recent law, extending the limits of the borough of Wallingford.

SPECKLED TROUT.—Mr. H. C. Bailey, will please accept our thanks for a large mass of speckled trout, from the crystal streams of Potter Co.

TO CANDIDATES.—Persons wishing their names announced in this paper as candidates for office, will please remember that the money must accompany the order, to insure insertion. Price, 5¢.

HOW LONG?—We had hoped some steps would be taken before now to remove the graveyard near the Academy. Nothing has been done. Even the imporing of departed spirits seems not to be effectual. How long shall that neglected spot disgrace our village?

RELIGIOUS.—The Third Quarterly Meeting of the Tioga Baptist Association will be held with the Cherry Flats Baptist Church, on Wednesday, May 25, at 10 o'clock A. M. Rev. A. B. Chase will preach the opening sermon.—Contributions for home missions.

Tioga, May 18, 1870. T. D. BENTLEY, Clerk.

CURRENT WORMS.—Mr. Jas. Locke, of this place, informs us that he has tried the following recipe for preventing the ravages of the current worm. It is very simple, and we have no doubt is effectual. Take 1 lb. of copperas, 5 gallons of water, dissolve, and sprinkle with a sprinkler, when the worms first make their appearance.

JOHN RUSSELL YOUNG, formerly of the New York Tribune, is the editor of a new daily published in New York, called the N. York Standard. It meets with general favor, and no doubt deserves success. The day says over 700 copies were sold in Philadelphia one day last week, when it was less than a week old.

GRAND ARMY JOURNAL.—This is the name of a new paper, the first number of which is before us. It is published at Washington, and is intended as an organ specially adapted to the interests of the Grand Army of the Republic. It is well printed, and exhibits ability which will probably make it a success. $2 a year. Address No. 628, F Street, Washington, D. C.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Messrs. Smith & Merrick are doing a lively business just now in the life insurance. They are constantly receiving applications from our citizens who have long neglected this important matter on account of the high rates of insurance. The Prudential Insurance Company, of which they are agents, insure so low, that it is really an object for every man to secure a policy at once. Read advertisement carefully in another column.

DRAMATIC ASSOCIATION.—Remembrance of the entertainments in the Court House, Thursday and Friday evenings, 19th and 20th instants. We are confident they will be well worth going to see. Mr. May's Manager—every man would like to make them. The manager is a gentleman who makes up the characters, are capable. "Lady of Lyons," first night. "Meg's Diversion," the last.

NEW GOODS.—Messrs. Parsons & Co., of Corning, have a large and fashionable stock of goods on hand, and are constantly receiving new additions to supply their customers. See their double column advertisement in this paper, which gives only a small outline of the goods kept by them. We recommend our readers to see them, as liberal advertisers are always liberal dealers.

A man came home late one night with "a brick in his hat," and feeling somewhat thirsty, drank a glass of water, and with it swallowed a small ball of silk, the end catching in his throat. Feeling something, he began pulling at the end, and thus completely unraveled himself by throwing up the ball and ever-so much whisky.—Look out for snakes next.

THE INDEPENDENT.—This paper is an invaluable family journal, and should be taken in every household in the land. It is a twenty-two column sheet, nicely printed, ably edited, and contains a large amount of reading matter of the choicest kind. Sent $2.50 the subscription price, to Henry C. Boyer, No. 27, New York, and get it, which is worth twice the subscription price to any one.

GOING TO CHURCH.—We give the following from the Household Advocate, which fully explains the object of our church govern. Read it.
Some go to church for a walk,
Some go there to laugh and talk;
Some go there to receive the word,
Some go there to meet a friend;
Some go to learn the parson's name,
Some go there to worship God,
Some go there to see the sexton,
Some go there to see the sexton,
Some go there to see the sexton,
Some go there to see the sexton.

EQUITABLE.—It has been stated by persons interested in other companies, that the Equitable does not pay at average dividend of 10 per cent. I have nothing to say of other companies, nor doubt they are all good ones. I am satisfied with the Equitable, as are all its policy holders. The following statement made by Mr. P. W. Williams of this borough ought to satisfy any one about the dividend of the Equitable: "It does not call upon Mr. Williams, who says: "I was insured in the Equitable in 1866 for $100; my first premium was $10; my first dividend declared in 1870, amounted to $10; my first dividend in 1871, $21.44 (this year), $21.44.

Gift Enterprises.—The Internal Revenue Department has decided that all who sell candy, or any other article, offering with it any other article, require a license, and may vary in value; or the gift or other article, varying in amount in the different packages, as an inducement to the purchase of candies or other objects offered for sale, are considered as proprietors of a gift enterprise, and subject to the special tax of $10. The small dealers in this vicinity can hardly afford to pay that amount, and will therefore, most likely, discontinue that branch of the trade.

THE WEATHER.—The latter part of April and the first week of May, the weather was most beautiful. It seemed out of season, and seemed worse to come. The worse came on the 15th, and continued throughout last week. Every day brought its showers, and some thick. The mornings cold enough to require fire, but not out the forenoon; and people feared the fall would suffer from the frost. Between showers, the sun came out warm and bright. The weather was as changeable as a fickle girl, though so sweet (well) while she smiled. It is to be hoped that the larger fruits, which are not far enough advanced to be injured now.

THE STATE FAIR.—The committee of the State Agricultural Society intrusted with the charge of selecting a place for holding the fair, recently visited Beranton, and after due consultation and deliberation, the papers were voted to hold the State Fair for the next two years.—Linn's.

GOSSIP.—Well, now I am fatigued, yet am I refreshed, since our walk. And look! We are but just in time. Do you see those dark, thick clouds, rolling and clanking over the tree tops on the hill? Ah, how beautifully they glide along, and how darkly they tower over those children returning not so soon to escape the storm. And now the mad wind whips the trees, as if it were a demon of fury, and they sport gossamer in its path. How wildly magnificent! See! even the doleful clouds are furious. And the horses, how they flee, as if the very dragons of the infernal pit were in pursuit. Just in time, my fine fellow, just in time. The rain, falling as it does, seems to be the rain of heaven, and it is indeed a relief for he left his coat, don't you see? That's a very inferior place, as the world goes, but it's all a home to him. I should like to know, if a smile and kind words greet him, I know it must be so; for she is a generous, kind-hearted creature, whose love must make him happy.

And now the storm is upon us. Fearful, is it? Yes; but you know it does no good to indulge in timidity. Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

Oh, I am so glad you are here! I don't know how I could have done had I been alone!—What a frightful thunder! It has been years since I had such feelings. Don't go out. Do shut the doors and close the window there; the currents of air, you say, are conductors, and I believe we should use our knowledge of such things to make us secure. There, that is a good man. Do sit down here, now, and do not look all so intently out, as if to pierce into the soul of God, and see what we are not given to know. Why, damn you, are you in a fright. If harm is to come, we cannot escape it; yet it is our duty, as you say, to observe all reasonable precaution.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
A COUGH, COLD OR SORE THROAT
Requires immediate attention, as they often result in an incurable lung disease.
BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES
Will most invariably give instant relief.
For BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CATARRH, CONSUMPTION AND THROAT DISEASE, they have a soothing effect.
SINGERS AND PUBLIC SPEAKERS use them to clear and sweeten the voice.
Owing to the great reputation and popularity of the Troches, many worthless and cheap imitations are offered, which are good for nothing. Be sure to obtain the genuine.
BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.
SOLD EVERYWHERE. (Doc. 1, '69-70.)

ERRORS OF YOUTH
A GENTLEMAN who suffered from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, for the sake of entering a university, and from who needs the remedy, writes in the following directions for making the simple remedy which he used with such success, to be prepared by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing in perfect confidence to J. A. PARSONS & CO., No. 3, Cedar Street, New York.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.
THE Advertiser having long been afflicted with a cough, by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that great disease, Consumption, he is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire to be cured, he will send a copy of the prescription (free of charge), with the directions for its use, and a bottle of the medicine, which he conceives to be invaluable; and he hopes that every sufferer will receive relief from it. The medicine is sold by all druggists, and may be procured of the advertiser, at the following address: J. A. PARSONS & CO., No. 3, Cedar Street, New York.

THE Confessions of an Invalid.
PUBLISHED for the relief of others, and others who suffered from Nervous Debility, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, for the sake of entering a university, and from who needs the remedy, writes in the following directions for making the simple remedy which he used with such success, to be prepared by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing in perfect confidence to J. A. PARSONS & CO., No. 3, Cedar Street, New York.

The Ladies' Club, of New York, recently held their discussions from woman's suffering to their preparations and Plimp's Balm. They declared that woman's suffering had not increased in this century, it was their right—you their duty—to seek it where they could. So they all voted that Megs's Balm be recommended to all suffering women, and that they should be allowed to hold one in this city while he is here, and, as he has consented, the ladies will meet on Friday of next week, in order to give the teachers an opportunity of attending.

Wall Paper, Window Paper and Cloth Shades.
BRUNNEN'S STOCK from 1870—High Young & Co. have just received the first installment of Wall Paper, Window Paper, and Cloth Shades, for Spring trade, which will be sold cheaper than elsewhere. They also have a large stock of Teasels, Gift Certificates, Picture nails, and everything else that belongs to the trade. Come and see our goods, and examine them before purchasing elsewhere. Specimens and prices sent by mail to any part of the country.
N. B. Our stock is the largest ever brought into the country, and we don't intend to be undersold.
HUGH YOUNG & CO., Wallingford, March 6, 1870.

IRON IN THE BLOOD.
"PERUVIAN SYRUP."
The PERUVIAN SYRUP makes the weak strong, and cures disease by supplying blood with NATURE'S OWN VITALIZING AGENT—IRON.
Certificate.—Do sit you get Peruvian Syrup, Philadelphia, and send me a bottle of it, twenty or more, as the following table will show:
From CORNING TO SAN FRANCISCO AS RETURN:
20 to 24 persons, $220.00 per ticket.
25 to 29 " 220.00 " "
30 to 34 " 210.00 " "
35 to 39 " 210.00 " "
40 to 44 " 190.00 " "
45 to 49 " 180.00 " "
50 persons and over, 175.00 " "
These tickets are valid for passengers for sixty days, thus enabling those who desire to see all an opportunity to visit all the principal places of interest on the route.
With a little effort, we think that a company might be organized from this section. Who will be the first to take the matter up? The books of enrollment are now open at the Depot Ticket Office.

A CHOICE OF ROUTES TO THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.—A route to Baltimore, Washington from this section of the country need no longer be limited to the single route hitherto in vogue, for the Erie Railway Company have recently perfected arrangements for the sale of tickets to that and for other Southern points, by the way of New York City and the New York and Washington Air Line route, thus offering the traveler a choice of routes, either by way of Elmira and the Northern Central Railway, or of the new route just mentioned. Passengers are thus enabled to vary their journey to the National Capital by a visit to the Metropolitan City of Cash, saving all interest and discounts which purchasers will once perceive they have in their favor. Most articles in the

WICKHAM & FARR'S,
Tioga, Pa.
Groceries,
WOODEN WARE, AND GROCERY LINE.
CALL & SEE FOR YOURSELVES.
MAY 4, 1870-4.
WICKHAM & FARR.

Tioga High School.
Academic and Commercial Courses.
The third term will commence April 14, 1870. Thorough instruction, Terms liberal. Philadelphia, Pa. Tuition a half term strictly in advance. For particulars call on or address
H. M. BENTLEY, Principal.
March 23, 1870. Tioga, Pa.

FOR SALE.
1 pure blooded Alderney Bull, 3 years old, 1 grade Alderney Bull, 1 year old.
1 pure blooded Jersey Bull, 3 years old.
Also Chester white pigs, price reasonable.
L. C. BENNETT.
Wallingford, May 11, 1870.

PRIZE TROTTER STALLION JUPITER.
By JUPITER DAM, Fanny Esler, will make the season of 1870, for a limited number of horses, at the following places, viz:—
W. H. BARKER, at Elmira, N. Y.
W. H. BARKER, at Elmira, N. Y.
W. H. BARKER, at Elmira, N. Y.
W. H. BARKER, at Elmira, N. Y.

NILES' VALLEY Steam Flurling Mill.
Will do custom work on Mondays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, and will accommodate our business better.
Highest market price paid for Wheat and Oats.
L. C. BENNETT.
Niles Valley May 18, 1870-3.

CARPETS, OIL CLOTHS AND MATTINGS.
Just received at
MAY 4, 1870.
THOS. HARDEN.

GOING SOUTH.
C. L. WILCOX hereby gives notice to all persons indebted to him, that unless they pay the amount due, as all accounts must be closed in ten days as he is going South. Persons failing to do so, will stand liable to the Bankruptcy of May 11, 1870, 2c.
C. L. WILCOX.

CAMPAIGN OF 1870.
NEW GOODS AT THE
J. A. PARSONS & CO'S,
No. 3, Concert Block, Corning, N. Y.

PEOPLES' STORE.
OUR STOCK IS NOW VERY COMPLETE
In all the branches, and Prices down to the standard of Gold per Ounce.

STOCK OF CLOTHS
CARPET STOCK
Linen and White Goods

United States Tea Company,
Hoop Skirts,
Serge and Pebble Goat Work,
FOR LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN, in Button Boots, Polish Boots, Congress Gaiters, also Serge Goods fixed in Fine work. We keep

J. RICHARDSON'S MAKE,
Clothing!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

J. A. PARSONS & CO'S COLUMN.
NEW GOODS AT THE
J. A. PARSONS & CO'S,
No. 3, Concert Block, Corning, N. Y.

PAISLEY SHAWLS,
Open Centres and Small Centres, in Blacks and Soarles.

Spring Shawls,
PLAID, PLAIN AND STRIPED.

DRESS GOODS,
In Great Variety. PARASOLS from $1.00 to $5.00 each. SUN UMBRELLAS from $1.25 to $2.75 each. KID GLOVES—the Josephine Beanoes, warranted equal to any in market.

White Goods,
Hoop Skirts,
Serge and Pebble Goat Work,
FOR LADIES, MISSES AND CHILDREN, in Button Boots, Polish Boots, Congress Gaiters, also Serge Goods fixed in Fine work. We keep

J. RICHARDSON'S MAKE,
Clothing!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

CLOTHING!
FOR GENTS, BOYS AND CHILDREN.

GUARDIAN'S SALE.
By virtue of an order issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Tioga County, the undersigned, J. A. Parsons & Co., do hereby sell the premises, in Chatham township, on the 19th day of April, 1870, at ten o'clock A. M., all that certain piece of land, containing one acre and one-half, situate in the northeast corner of a lot of land owned by Robert Howard's land, north 20 degrees west 41.8 perches, to a post in the road; thence along the highway leading to William Clark's land, north 21 degrees west 41.8 perches, to a post; thence along the west line of said Clark's land, north 21 degrees west 41.8 perches, to a post; thence along the north line of land owned by William Clark, south 73 degrees west 41.8 perches, to a post; thence along the west line of said Clark's land, south 87 degrees west 40.6 perches, to a post; containing 40.6 acres, more or less.