A Laughable Incident. A few days since, a colored lad entered a drug store in Portland, with what he described as "an awful feeling in de hooks and angle worms," and demanded a "Setter powder," as he had been advised that would give relief. Accordingly the Scidlitz powders were dissolved in separate glasses, as usual, and placed before him, with instructions to pour one into the other and drink while effervescing. But the sable youth did nothing of the sort. Instead of following the directions, he hastily drank off the contents of one glass, and immediately swallowed the other. The effect may be imagined, but not described .-The effervescence, which should have taken place in the glass before it was drank, took place in the pewildered darkey's stomach, sending streams of the frothy liquid from his mouth, nose, eyes and ears. As soon as the poor fellow could recover breath, he cried out. in frightened tones: "My stomach has busted; I can't live a minute!" In a few moments, however, he felt better, and turning to depart, he said, "Dat stuff may work well enough on de white trash, but it's sure death on a nigger." The lumber trade of Wisconsin has assumed gigantic proportions. At Oshkosh alone there are twenty-one steam saw mills, eighteen shingle mills, six planing mills, etc., To supply them, 140,000,000 feet of longs come down from the rivers northward. The timber lands are a belt one hundred and twenty miles long, and thirty-eight wide. They include eighty townships, and 1,760,000 acres. The estimated supply of lumber on this tract is 20,000,000 feet of pine lumber for the next fifteen
