CASH PAID FOR WOOL BY D. P. ROBERTS. Wellsboro June, 15, 1870 .

Loets' Corner.

THEY WILL BE DONE BÝ JOHN G. WHITTIER. We see not, know not; all our way Is night-with Thee alone is day; From out the torrent's troubled drift, Thy will be done ! The flesh may fail, the heart may faint, But who are we to make complaint, Or dare to plead in times like these The weakness of our love of ease? Thy will be done !

Above the storm our prayers we lift,

We take with solemn thankfulness Our burthen up, nor ask it loss, And count it joy that even wo. May suffer, serve, or wait for Theo Whose will be done!

Though dim as yet in tint and line, We trace Thy picture's wise design, And thank Thee that our age supplies The dark relief of sacrifice. Thy will be done!

If from Thy ordeal's heated bars Our feet are seamed with crimson scars. Thy will be done ! If, for the age to come, this hour. Of trial hath vicarious power,

And if, in our unworthiness,

Be Liberty's eternal gain,

Thy sacrificial wine we press,

Thy will be done ! Strike, Thou, the Master, we Thy keys, The anthem of the destinies: The minor of Thy loftier strain, Our hearts shall breathe the old refrain, Thy will be done!

And, bless'd by Thee, our present pain

vive, we, comrades of the Grand Army, with our loyal friends and the friends of liberty elsewhere, unite to deposit our offerings of pure, sweet flowers upon the graves that have become altars, the ground that is consecrated soil forever. Without note or distinction of rank, or race, or color, or religion, we kneel together beside our dead comrades, and in the beautiful words of Abraham Lincoln, our latest martyr, we here 'highly resolve that they shall not have died in vain: that the nation shall, under God, have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, and for the people, shall not perish
